White Big Loss

C. G. (Spike) White, who resigned from his position with the Memorial Student Center yesterday, will be missed by everyone connected with A&M.

White, a member of the Class of '35, resigned Wednesday to become associated with the American General Life Insurance Co. of Bryan.

Noted for his bright and colorful Town Hall productions, it was White who brought many of the current "names" in the entertainment world to this campus. Among these entertainers were Lawrence Welk, The Kingston Trio, Dorothy Collins, Edye Gorme, Oscar Levant, Joni James, Bob Hope, The Four Lads, The Four Freshmen, Doris Day and many others.

The friendly White first became a member of the college staff in 1939, serving as director of intramural athletics until 1942. He returned to this position in 1945 after three years' service in the U. S. Navy.

He moved to the Department of Student Activities in 1947 and became a member of the Memorial Student Center staff when the services of the Department of Student Activities and the MSC student program were consolidated in late August of this year.

Although White is most known for the contributions he made to the Town Hall productions, few know of his promotion of the college through planning the production of A&M songs on records, the film "We Are The Aggies," inauguration of the Twelfth Man Bowl, supervision of the layout and construction of the golf course and improvement of many entertainment and sports facilities.

A strong advocator of a strong and healthy youth, White will continue to operate Kanakuk Kamp for Boys and Kanakomo Kamp for Girls, both near Branson, Mo., in the summer.

White held a high place in the hearts of all Aggies and he will be missed dearly.

VALUELESS PROPERTY

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Is garbage property? Yes, says Arizona Atty. Gen. Robert Morrison. Garbage companies claimed they should not be under jurisdiction of the state's Corporation Commission because they were not common carriers of property.

But Morrison said in a formal opinion that the word "property" is broad enough to include garbage and refuse—and, therefore, the companies are considered subject to commission regulation.

How to Flunk Out

by Jim Earle

IGNORE PROF

Anyone who has flunked out will tell you that ignoring your instructor in class is a very effective means of flunkin' out. Ignoring your instructor requires a great deal of stamina since many of them yell too loud and wave their arms. Plan ahead so that you may utilize your class period in spite of a noisy instructor. Any news stand will offer you material that is inspiring. Most comic books would lend themselves to class reading. At mid-semester, you will be able to devote all of your time to such literature, if your parents will let you back in the house.
