

Miss Annaratone Named Sweetheart

Seen at Dance

Hilry Ranson, Corps Commander Bill Heye's voting delegate for the Aggie Sweetheart Selection Committee, dances with Mariwyn Morris, junior from Jefferson, one of 12 TWU candidates for the honor. The event is a formal dance that was held Saturday night.

both girls and the Aggies had reached the breaking point, the committee entered the room in which the candidates were seated and Burns made the announcement. The winner was greeted with screams of elation and tears of joy by her fellow candidates, as flashbulbs popped. And an audible sigh of relief was heard from the Aggie side of the room.

Miss Annaratone, with her typical candor, joyfully remarked, "This is the happiest day of my life." Then she announced the "Tessies" selection of "Mr. Congeniality," as Percy Mims, commander of the 2nd Wing.

Immediately the Selection Committee lined up and one by one kissed their new sweetheart on the cheek after congratulating her.

She will be presented officially at the Corps Trip, Saturday, Oct. 17, during halftime ceremonies of the A&M-TCU football game.

Finalists in the contest were: Seniors—Judith Babington of Alexandria, La., Carmela Cabra of Kingsville, Rebecca Clapp of Borger, Jeannine Fitschen of Garland, Carol Kokernot of Longview and Ellen Jane Lester of Orange.

Juniors—Miss Annaratone, Barbara Dunn of San Antonio, Mariwyn Morris of Jefferson, Mary Roberts of Roswell, N.M. and Elizabeth Sonnen of Brownsville.

The lone sophomore was Myrtice Lee "Sug" Conn of Miami, Fla.

Members of the Selection Committee were Wayne Schneider, social secretary of the Class of '60 and head of the committee; Allen Burns, president of the Class of '60; Bill Heye, cadet colonel of the Corps of Cadets; Jake Sekerka, president of the Student Senate; Hiram French and Ronald Buford, MSC Council and Directorate; Buck Buchanan, commander of the 2nd Brigade; Percy Mims, commander of the 2nd Wing; J. C. Burton, commander of the 1st Wing; Stan Wied, vice president of the Class of '60; Ben Havard, treasurer of the Civilian Student Council; Joe Brooks, civilian student representative; Hilry Ranson, Corps Operations Officer, and Allen McCree, editor of the "Aggieland '60." Ranson acted as voting delegate for Heye.

Other members of the party included Hardesty, Geiger, Laney, McMath and Sam Langley.

The group returned Sunday night.

At Ag Extension Service

Bergsma Assigned Marketing Expert

Lloyd W. Bergsma has been named livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. His headquarters will be at College Station.

According to the announcement made by Extension Director John E. Hutchinson, the new specialist began his work October 1. He will work on the economics of livestock marketing with much of it being done through the county agents of the state. He will also work with livestock organizations and groups on their marketing problems and his work will be closely coordinated with that of the livestock production specialists, Hutchinson said.

Bergsma is a native of Goodland, Kan.; a graduate of Edson Consolidated High School and Colorado State University with a B. S. degree in agricultural economics. He also attended Kansas State College and A&M.

He was reared on a Kansas wheat farm and for five years was a 4-H Club member. He managed, as a part owner, a 5,000 acre wheat and livestock farm in Kansas from 1947-58. He also worked for the Doane Agricultural Service and for the Texas Education Agency as a specialist in farm management. He resides with his wife and two children at 1604 Armistead Street, College Station.

Cornell Authority To Speak Tonight

Dr. Frederick W. Hill of Cornell University will speak on "Soybeans—A Primary Resource for Meeting Tomorrow's Food Needs", tonight at 8 in Room 114 of the Dairy Biochemistry Building.

Hill is an authority on soybean nutrition and since 1953 he has served in his present position as professor of animal nutrition and poultry husbandry at Cornell. In 1939 he received the B. S. degree and in 1940 the M. S. degree from Pennsylvania State and his Ph. D. degree from Cornell in 1944.

AN EARLY START

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Lloyd Glenn Schiltz is three years old. The only Sunday he missed going to Sunday School was the one following his birth.

"We thought he was too young to go the first week," said his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Schiltz.

Coliseum To Remain Open

G. Rollie White Coliseum will remain open whenever there are large numbers of visitors on the campus interested in seeing some of the facilities of the building, C. E. Tishler, head of the Department of Health and Physical Education announced recently.

The coliseum will be open until 5 p.m. on Oct. 24; Nov. 7 and 21; Dec. 12; Jan. 10; Feb. 13, 20 and 27; March 5, 12 and 19; April 2, 9 and 23; and May 7 and 14.

Because of the night game with the University of Houston next week, the Coliseum will remain open until 8:30 p.m., according to Tishler.

Tishler has asked anyone who knows of a large number of people visiting the campus any Saturday when the coliseum is not scheduled to be open to call VI 6-5749. He said the Department of Physical Education would like to know who the visitors are and how many are expected to be on the campus on a particular Saturday afternoon.

Still young and beautiful at age 75!
THEY SAID IT COULDN'T BE DONE... But America's most famous lady does it!

No Paris design of '59 is more lovely than this ageless beauty, a gift from France 75 years ago. Miss Liberty has welcomed millions to these shores with the words, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free... I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

A cigarette that's Low in tar with More taste to it!
THEY SAID IT COULDN'T BE DONE... But L&M does it!

When you're in New York, be sure to make the trip over to see Miss Liberty. And wherever you are right now, enjoy the cigarette that's kindest to your taste. That's L&M: Low in tar, with more taste to it. No wonder more Americans switch to L&M every day! Live Modern... switch to L&M!

Live Modern with L&M KINDEST TO YOUR TASTE!
