

K of C Head Plans Radio Talk Monday

Tom Lake, Grand Knight of the College Station Council No. 3205 of the Knights of Columbus, has announced that a Columbus Day address by Supreme Knight Luke E. Hart, head of the million-member fraternal benefit society of Catholic men, will be broadcast at 5:15 p.m., Monday over radio station WTAW.

Hart, who has been a member of the Supreme Board of Directors of the organization since 1918 and has held the office of Supreme Knight since 1953, initiated many of the society's major projects.

He was a leading figure in the inauguration, in 1948, of a program, still in operation, by which advertisements of Catholic doctrine and practice are placed in newspapers and periodicals of large general circulation. He was the prime mover, too, in the project which has resulted in the microfilming of 11 million pages of priceless Vatican Library manuscripts. The film library is located at St. Louis University and is available to all scholars.

The theme of Hart's Columbus Day address is "Christopher Columbus and the Eternal Values." It will be heard over radio stations in all the countries where the Knights have councils—the United States, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

Mayor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, four hundred and sixty-seven years ago Columbus' discovery of the New World marked the most spectacular and most far-reaching discovery in recorded human history; and

WHEREAS, the American continent has become the symbol of a new way of life—of freedom and opportunity—for people the world over; and

WHEREAS, the celebration of Columbus Day until 1955 was largely kept alive by the distinguished leaders of the Knights of Columbus and the various Italian-American societies; and

WHEREAS, since 1955 hundreds of thousands of Americans—adults and young people—have learned more about the spiritual significance of the Great Discovery as well as the historic bonds of the 21 American Republics; and

WHEREAS, while Columbus Day has long been celebrated by many of our Latin American neighbors, and in 1959 an all-out effort is being made both in this country and in the other American Republics to pay tribute to one another; and

WHEREAS, the 1959 theme for the observance of Columbus' discovery is "American All—Working Together", a spiritual symbol uniting Americans of many creeds, languages and cultures in a manner without precedent the world over;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Ernest Langford, mayor of the city of College Station, do hereby proclaim October 12, 1959 as in College Station and do hereby urge people of this city to make this an occasion to learn more about our Latin American neighbors in the southern part of the Western Hemisphere and to undertake some specific program which will reveal our friendship to them.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and have caused the Seal of the City of College Station, Texas to be affixed.

Ernest Langford, (Signed)
Mayor

SOLITARY SAILS

In the last glow of the sunset, this sailboat seems to be alone in the vastness of the sea. And yet it isn't. Were this boat suddenly to get into trouble, helping hands would swiftly come to the rescue.

So it is with life. At times you may feel very much alone—yet in reality you are not. For if you didn't have a single friend in the world, you would have the Church.

The Church welcomes everyone—and that's a pretty big thing when you stop to think about it. It means that always there is a door open to you. You have but to turn the knob.

Chart a new course for yourself. Start going to church. When you do, you'll find that your voyage through life has acquired fresh purpose.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
