Prof, Two Students Attend FFA Meet

Dr. Jarrell D. Gray, associate professor in the Department of Agricultural Education and Dowell Hunt and Melvin Young, agricultural education majors, are attending the National Future Farmers of America Convention at Kansas City, Mo., which ends today.

They also are participating in the national convention of Student Teachers in Vocational Agriculture, held in conjunction with the FFA parley. The conventions began Monday.

In addition to serving as delegates to these conventions, Hunt, who is president of the A&M Collegiate FFA Chapter and Young received their American Farmer Degrees.

Gray said this is the highest degree awarded by the national FFA organization. Only one member in a thousand may attain the American Farmer Degree, which is given for outstanding achievement in farming and rural leadership.

Approximately 10,000 FFA members from throughout the United States are attending the convention, Gray said.

SFA Girl To Give Governor Turkey

Miss Sharon Grisham, Texas Turkey Queen and junior at Stephen F. Austin High School in Bryan will go to Austin Oct. 21 to present Gov. Price Daniel with a turkey for his Thanksgiving dinner.

Sharon will make the trip with George Draper, president of the Texas Turkey Federation and poultry supervisor with the Department of Poultry Science.

The queen was chosen at the convention of the Texas Poultry Improvement Assn. held in Dallas last August. Draper was elected president of the Texas Turkey Federation at the same convention.

T.F.F. works over the entire state with hatcherymen and growers in the marketing and promotion of turkeys. Sharon and Draper will be on hand at the National Turkey Federation Convention on Jan. 5-6 where they will participate in various activities representing Texas turkey growers.

The two have just returned from the Texas State Fair in Dallas where they presented awards to the outstanding turkey growers of Texas.

Saturday, awards were presented to F.F.A. and F.H.A. winners. On Sunday, which was Texas Turkey Federation Day, awards were presented to adult winners in the turkey show.
