

Milstead-Sims State Leaders

Even after last week's drubbing by TCU Charley Milstead and Randy Sims are still among the SWC leaders statistic wise.

Although Milstead doesn't hold down any first place positions, he figures in the second place spot in several categories. He is second in total points scored with 18 points. The Tyler senior is also second in net passing yardage and total gain.

Randy Sims took over the first place position in kickoff returns and boasts a 23.3 yard average on three returns. He has caught seven passes for 72 yards to put him among the leaders in pass receiving.

Ags Humiliated 39-6 By Fired-Up Froggies

The TCU Horned Frogs, a forgotten team in the Southwest Conference until last Saturday, suddenly found themselves this past weekend and crushed the Texas Aggies by a 39-6 score.

TCU, already once beaten in SWC play by the Arkansas Razorbacks, needed this victory to stay in the conference race. This was the first conference game of the season for the Farmers, fresh from three straight wins over inter-sectional foes.

A&M received the opening kickoff and moved upfield for two straight first downs to the Cadet 46 before the Froggies held and forced the Aggies to kick.

The first quarter was a tight contest with neither team able to penetrate past their own 50-yard line, until in the fading minutes of that period the Ags Robert Sanders fumbled on his own 39 and the Frogs recovered to put them in A&M territory.

Charley Milstead quick-kicked to open up the second quarter and TCU began their long march upfield to score their first touchdown. The Frogs covered 70-yards in nine plays to tally, with Fullback Jack Spikes going the final 28-yards around left end to score. R. E. Dodson, TCU's extra point specialist, kicked his first of four extra points to put the Frogs out ahead, 7-0.

TCU kicked off to the Aggies with Jesse McGuire taking the kick and moving to his 32 before the Froggies' Jimmy Gilmore hit the Aggie halfback and Bob Lilly recovered.

The Horned Toads needed only three plays to score this time, with Halfback Marshall Harris hitting Marvin Lasater with a 23-yard scoring pass. Dodson's try for extra point was again good.

A&M then took over the ball and moved to one first down before Spikes intercepted Milstead's pass on his own 32-yard line. TCU then moved 68-yards on eight plays to score their third TD, with the try for extra point being run over by Donald George.

The Aggies countered in the final seconds of the half on two passes, the first one covering 43-yards to the TCU 10 on a Milstead to Russell Hill pass. Milstead then hit Hill again for the touchdown with seven seconds left in the game.

TCU scored again midway in the third quarter after Milstead got off a bad kick from his own nine to the A&M 41. The Cadets held for two plays, then George hit End Dale Glasscock for a 42-yard touchdown pass. Dodson again made his conversion good.

The Christians made it 36-6 on the first play of the final quarter with Lasater, saying turn about is fair play, hit Harris with a 4-yard TD pass.

TCU completed their scoring the next time they got the ball, with Jackie Sledge, the TCU quarterback, booting a 36-yard field goal.

Milstead, playing most of the second half out on his feet after meeting headlong with Spikes, completed 8 of 16 passes for 99 yards to lead the Aggies offense. Two of them were intercepted.

Spikes was the big man on the ground for TCU, carrying 10 times for 76 yards. Jon Few was the leading rusher for the Cadets, picking up 26-yards on 7 carries while Robert Sanders had 17 on five tries.

Just four years out of college...
He heads a team of 63 people

L. Dean Darbe graduated from Kansas State U. in 1955 with a B. S. degree in electrical engineering. Today he is Supervising Service Foreman for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Hutchinson, Kansas. Dean has five Foremen and 58 craftsmen reporting to him. He's got full responsibility—covering installation, maintenance, testing and repair—for 21,000 telephones and all the equipment that serves them.

"It's interesting work," says Dean, "and it keeps me on the go. Here are a few of my activities during a recent day on the job."

"8:30 a.m. I meet with one of our Foremen at the plant garage to discuss a cable-pressurizing job. We're putting all aerial cable in Hutchinson under air pressure to keep out moisture which causes cable failure and costly service interruptions."

"10:15 a.m. My boss, District Plant Superintendent Randy Barron, and I go over plans for an addition to our dial central office. Several pieces of large and complex switching equipment will have to be rearranged to tie in with the new facilities."

"1:30 p.m. After lunch, I drive out to the new plant of a mobile home manufacturer. My men are completing installation of a new-type cordless switchboard. I discuss features of the new equipment with the firm's Vice President and Plant Manager."

"3:00 p.m. At our toll center we'll soon be adding another test desk to increase our facilities for 'trouble shooting' Long Distance circuits. Here, with our Chief Testboardman, I go over some of the board changes which will have to be made."

"That's about it for one day. Tomorrow's schedule will be different. I'm doing interesting, challenging work all the time—and I'm given plenty of responsibility. That's what I like about my job."

There are countless young men like Dean Darbe who are moving ahead in supervisory careers with the Bell Telephone Companies. You could be one of them. Talk it over with the Bell interviewer when he visits your campus—and read the Bell Telephone booklet on file in your Placement Office.
