

More Recruiters Visiting Campus

Visiting job recruiters are more numerous on the A&M campus this school term than they were last year, W. R. Horsley, director of the college Placement Office, announced.

"From the way things look now, the increase in recruiters could amount to about 10 per cent," he said.

Recruiters are representatives of various firms who conduct on-campus interviews with Aggie seniors.

Horsley said he believed the increased job interviewing activity is due to an upsurge in electronics, data processing, federal agencies and the food processing industry. He said the situation has more than recovered from the business recession of a year and a half ago.

The Placement Office, with offices in the YMCA building, is a central agency designed to supplement and aid faculty members in directing A&M graduates into professional work.

Horsley said the service is available to undergraduates, graduating seniors and alumni. No charge is made except a nominal fee for printed personal data sheets.

Witch Doctors, U.S. Doctor Partners

DALLAS—(AP)—Tom Dooley, an American doctor who has taken medicine into some far-off jungles, tells of becoming partners with native witch doctors.

He said witch doctors were one of his big problems in bringing modern healing to the jungles. He said in a speech at the University of Dallas.

"In our hospital we believe that when you can't lick 'em you should join 'em. So we say to a witch doctor, 'Let's form a clinic and you will be paid.'

"In comes a patient. I say, 'This looks like cellulitis, staphylococcus in origin, and I recommend penicillin. What do you say?' The witch doctor nods. When the patient gets well and pays the hospital—two coconuts or a chicken—the witch doctor gets half.

"This is fee-splitting—and the American Medical Assn. would not approve of it," he chuckled.

Dr. Dooley is the founder of Medico, a non-profit organization which raises money and recruits doctors and nurses for Dooley's Hospital in Laos and for others in Asia, Africa and South America.

There is a town, an active market for trading in western Tibet called Gartok. This is believed to be the highest inhabited town on earth. It stands 15,100 feet above sea level, an altitude which the National Geographic Society says is higher than the tallest mountain in the United States.

Stats Lie In Last Arkansas Contest

When the Aggies met the Razorbacks last year on Kyle Field they won everything but the score, Arkansas walking away with a 21-8 victory.

The Ags had 24 first downs to Arkansas' 12, racked up 384 yards total offense to the Razorbacks' 258...but still lost. The Hogs scored seven points in the first quarter and 14 in the third to win the game.

Arkansas Honors Undeclared Team

Saturday's contest between the Aggies and Arkansas Razorbacks will mark the 50th anniversary of the Razorbacks last undefeated season.

Arkansas will celebrate the occasion at their annual Homecoming when they honor three members of the 1909 championship squad.

Hog Contest Drill Excuses Available

All cadets planning to attend the University of Arkansas game in Fayetteville, Ark. can obtain excuses to miss Saturday morning drill from their unit tactical officers.

Uniform for the game will be Class A Winter.

Razorbacks Honor Undefeated Squad

The University of Arkansas will celebrate its 50th anniversary since an undefeated, untied season Saturday when they meet the Aggies in Fayetteville.

The three living members of the 1909 team that will be honored are Phil C. Huntly, Thomas B. Ellington and Steve Creekmore.

LUCKY STRIKE presents

Dear Dr. Frood:

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH

Most college students today do not know the meaning of the word "adversity." Those who do are just a handful of English majors.

Dear Dr. Frood: How can I leave my husband without making him happy?
Prof's Spouse

Dear Prof's Spouse: Leave a note saying you'll be back.

Dear Dr. Frood: Our library is full of "no smoking" signs. When I want a Lucky, I have to go outside. Is this right?
Furious

Dear Furious: It's monstrous. But think of the poor souls who go outside only to smoke brand X or Y or Z.

Dear Dr. Frood: Boys are always whistling at me. Do you think my clothes are too snug?
Prudence

Dear Prudence: It's impossible to tell without a picture. Send one. Please.

Dear Dr. Frood: When raccoon coats swept the campus, I wore a polo coat. When the English bobby cape came in, I wore a raccoon coat. I'm always in last year's style. How come?
Dated

Dear Dated: This is an anxiety complex arising out of being a "late-diaper" baby.

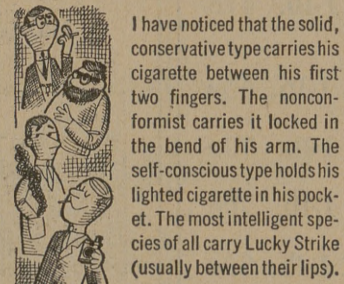

Dear Dr. Frood: I am irrationally, incalculably, irrevocably in love with a girl on campus. How can I tell her?
Lovesick

Dear Lovesick: Use small words.

Dear Dr. Frood: When I listen to stupid people or read anything boring, I fall asleep. What can I do?
Superior

Dear Superior: Yours is an extremely difficult prob mfh zzz z

DR. FROOD TELLS WHO HOLDS HIS CIGARETTE HOW

I have noticed that the solid, conservative type carries his cigarette between his first two fingers. The nonconformist carries it locked in the bend of his arm. The self-conscious type holds his lighted cigarette in his pocket. The most intelligent species of all carry Lucky Strike (usually between their lips).

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco:

TOBACCO AND TASTE TOO FINE TO FILTER!

Product of The American Tobacco Company—Tobacco is our middle name
