

A&M Harriers Trip Mustangs

Coach Charley Thomas' Texas Aggie cross-country team won a dual meet over SMU over the 3-mile A&M course Saturday morning.

Jan Ahlberg and Jim Parr finished one-two for the Mustangs but the Aggies won the meet by finishing third, fourth, fifth and sixth.

Ahlberg's winning time was 14 minutes flat while Parr was clocked at 15:03.

Malcolm Hardee was A&M's top finisher. His third place time was 15:09. Freddie Dulock of the Aggies was fourth followed by Thomas Johnston, A&M; Thad Crooks, A&M; Billy Walker, SMU; Richard Hickman, A&M; C. J. Hajovsky, A&M; Gale McDaniel, A&M; Johnny Walker, SMU; Jack McCaslin, SMU; Ken Taylor, SMU and Richard Weising, SMU.

Michigan State's oldest football rival on its 1959 schedule is Notre Dame. The series began in 1897.

Ponies Squeeze Past Farmers, 14-11, Behind Play of Passing Don Meredith

The SMU Mustangs, scoreless for three quarters while the ragging Aggies held onto a 3-0 lead, finally broke loose for two tallies in the final period to nip the Farmers, 14-11, in Southwest Conference action on Kyle Field Saturday.

A&M's loss left them mired at the bottom of the conference pit with a 0-4 record. SMU is 1-1-1 in conference play. The Aggs opponents for this week, the Rice Owls, have yet to win a game this season, but have managed to tie two teams, one of them the Ponies.

Aggs Score First
The Aggies scored the first time they got their hands on the ball in the second quarter, moving 31 yards in 12 plays before they were stopped and forced to kick a field goal.

SMU had thrown the Cadets for a two-yard loss after the Farmers had a first down on the Mustang four. Halfback Randy Sims toed the field goal for the Aggies.

The Mustangs took the kickoff after the field goal and drove right back downfield toward the Aggies' goal, but a Don Meredith to Glynn Gregory pass thrown from A&M's 26 was cut off short on a beautiful interception by the Aggies' Robert Sanders on A&M's three. Sanders had to leap high to pull the pass away from Gregory.

SMU Misses Field Goal
SMU forced the Farmers to punt from inside their own ten, and then drove again to A&M's eleven before the Cadets' forward wall could hold the stampeding Ponies. Facing a third down situation with nine yards to go and the clock running out, the Mustangs elected to try a field goal, but the attempt was wide to the right and the Aggies took over the ball on their own 20 to run out the clock in the first half.

The Mustangs began rolling again late in the third quarter, and continued their drive into the fourth frame when they scored their first touchdown of the afternoon. Meredith passed to Bud Jones for the tally and Gregory's conversion was again good.

Without pausing to rest the Mustangs kicked off to A&M. The Aggs couldn't get their offense to working and punted back to the Ponies, after making three yards on three downs.

SMU again put their football machine into high gear and rolled 58 yards on nine carries for their final score. Meredith ran the touchdown over from one yard out. Gregory's conversion was again good.

A&M Closes Gap
A&M refused to lay down and die for the Ponies, and took the kickoff and marched right back for their first TD of the day, moving 64 yards in 10 plays. Milstead threw to Sims for the touchdown, then reared back and hit Sims again for the extra points.

The Aggies tried an onside kick, but the ball failed to travel the required 10 yards before being touched by an A&M player and SMU took possession of the ball. The clock ran out with the Farmers throwing desperation passes from mid-field in an attempt to score the winning touchdown.

Wildcats Halt Humble, 12-0; Meet Bellville In Title Slate

By RUSSELL BROWN
CHS Correspondent

For the third time in as many years the A&M Consolidated Tigers and the Bellville Brahmas have come to the final tilt of the season for both clubs tied for the league lead in District 21-AA. On the strength of Friday night's slate of Bellville downing Navasota 36-13 and the Tigers taking a Homecoming victory over the Humble Wildcats 12-0, the two teams are knotted for first place honors with 3-0 loop counts.

Two years the situation occurred with the Big Red rolling over the Tigers with comparative ease 34-0 while last year the Bengals triumphed in the mud 16-8 and went on to bi-district play against Liberty. Liberty humbled the Tigers 40-8, advancing into the state playoffs before bowing to Angleton.

Friday night finds the two elvens clashing in Bellville with the winner again battling the Liberty Panthers who have clinched a tie in District 22-AA. In other action of the also rans, the Cy-Fair Bobcats and Humble Wildcats battle for third spot, each boasting 1-2 records. Navasota has finished its play with an 0-4 showing and a 1-8-1 season standing.

Last Friday night the Bengals allowed Humble to run all over the field until the 'Cats knocked on the goal line door. Three times in the first half the Wildcats penetrated the 25-yard line, each time the rough Bengal defense held, twice on downs and once on an intercepted pass destined for touchdown land.

The Tigers' first scoring opportunity came late in the third period when the local machine cranked up a drive from the Tiger 46 to the Humble 25 where quarterback Condy Pugh kept on a roll out and rounded the corner for ten yards only to see the ball disappear into a stack of white-shirted Wildcats. Two plays later junior tackle Mark Luther diagnosed a drive by Humble fullback Buddy Wisenbaker, making Wisenbaker part company with the ball.
