

Cadet Cross Country Runners Close Season This Weekend

A&M's cross-country team closes out its season with two matches this weekend.

Coach Charles Thomas' harriers enter the Houston AAU meet Friday morning, then travel to Fayetteville, Ark., for the annual Southwest Conference championships over the Fayetteville Country Club course.

Thomas will enter seven men in both meets. His three seniors have been named tri-captains for the SWC meeting. They are Freddie Dulock of Axtell, Richard Hickman of College Station and Charles Hajojsky of El Campo. Others making the Arkansas trip are Malcolm Hardee of Groveton, Thomas Johnston of Franklin, Thad Crooks of Hooks and Gail McDaniel of Hemp-hill, all sophomores.

A&M won a dual from SMU here last Saturday, 26-33, in spite of the Mustangs' finishing one-two with Jan Ahlberg and Jim Parr.

The Aggie freshmen will compete at Houston Friday. They are Johnny Faulkner of La Fayette, Tenn., E. L. Ener of Jasper, Ronnie Dingle of Pine Tree; George Pickel of Williamsport, Pa., Jay Hundley of Austin; Mike Kerley and Ken Patranello, both of Bryan, Ed Krenek of El Campo and Glen Shipp of Baytown.

The Cadet varsity has won four of six meets this fall.

Penn quarterback Larry Purdy is the star pitcher and captain for the Penn baseball team.

Many Fans Expected To Be On Hand For Rice-Aggie Tilt

No matter what's at stake when Rice and A&M play, there's always a lot of folks on hand to watch the mid-November classic.

In 1957 and 1958 there were many things at stake. Two years ago the John David Crow-led Aggies were No. 1 in the nation and needed a win in Rice Stadium to clinch the Southwest Conference championship and a Cotton Bowl berth. Rice upset the Cadets, 7-6, and took the title and Cotton Bowl for itself.

Last year the Owls were unbeaten in league play but Charley Milstead and company up-ended Rice, 28-21 and TCU took the bunting. This year the only thing going Saturday at Houston is pride. The two clubs stand combined, 3-10-2, with all three wins on the Aggie side, five losses apiece and two ties by Rice. But the fans still flock to South Main. Two years ago there was a record 72,000 crowd to see the Crows of Aggieland fall. Last year some 60,000 watched the Milsteads upset the Owls.

This week, a 50,000 plus group of fans are scheduled to be on hand when both teams seek their first conference win.

Coach Jim Myers' Aggies have been looking good in defeat lately and so have the Owls, but the record books never seem to list how you look and the record for this week reads 3-5 and 0-4 for A&M and 0-5-2 and 0-3 for Rice.

Nine veteran Cadets are still on hand from the 1957 game with 10 more having played last year. The nine of '57 are Gordon LeBoeuf, Milstead, Gale Oliver, Buddy Payne, Allen Goehring, Robert Sanders, Bill Godwin, Joe Munson, and Bill Darwin. The other 10 who played last year include Ralph Smith, Roy Northrup, Randy Sims, Wayne Labar, Paul Piper, Carter Franklin, Jack Estes, Powell Berry, Tom Moore and George Gray.

Milstead filled the huge stadium with passes last year while Sims caught many of them. LeBoeuf took a blocked punt in 55 yards for one touchdown. Charley threw one TD pass to John Tracey, now with the pro Chicago Cardinals and scored a couple himself after setting them up with tosses.

In spite of all these veterans of past Rice-Aggie battles, it could be a sophomore who does most of the receiving. He's End Russell Hill of Dallas who is the leading pass receiver in the conference in total yards caught. Hill has snagged 16 for 311 yards.

The Aggie Cadet Corps will be on hand for the annual Corps trip and parade and the famed, 250-piece Aggie band and mascot, Reveille, will help add color to the contest.

The game itself will be the 44th in the series which began in 1914 with A&M out in front in victories, 23 to 17 with three ties.

Rice Sophomore Stars in Backfield

The Rice Owls boast one of the top sophomore backfield stars in the Southwest Conference in the person of Roland Jackson, a 6-0, 195-pound athlete.

Many of the fine sophomores on the A&M team will remember Jackson from the performance he put on against them as a freshman last year in a losing game against the Cadets. Jackson probably put on one of the finest one-man defensive shows seen on Kyle Field.

For his play as a freshman back Jackson was selected on the all-SWC frosh first team.

Rice is desperately green in the fullback position, but Jackson has taken a lot of pressure off the position. Abye backing up the sophomore from Louisiana are Juniors Bill Schneider and Frank Smith.

Hill Moves Into Top Receiving Position

Russell Hill, Aggie left end from Dallas, took over first place in total yards gained in the pass receiving column. In Saturday's game with SMU Hill upped his total to 16 catches for 311 yards. Hill also boasts the highest average per catch in the conference with 19.4. His average is followed by Jack Estes who averaged 13.6 yards per pass.

On the firing end of most of the Cadet passes has been Charley Milstead, who is second only to SMU's Don Meredith in total gain by passing. Milstead has completed 44 passes for 566 yards. Milstead's average toss has been 12.0 yards.

In last week's game with the Mustangs, Randy Sims, Cadet right halfback, chalked up all the scores for the Aggies as he kicked a field goal, caught a pass for a touchdown and snagged another pass for the extra points. These 11 points that Sims made last week put him in fifth place for SWC scoring honors and sent his total to 20 points.

Gordon Speer, from Rice, is the leading punter in the conference with a booming 42.1 average on 21 punts.

Texas, the conference leader, has gained 2,381 yards and all of it has been on the ground except 380 yards.
