

A&M Faces Trinity Tonight; Freshmen Idle Until Tuesday

Navy's basketball team will be seen in New York's Madison Square Garden against N.Y.U. on Jan. 7.

Aggie Tall Man

Wayne Lawrence, the 6-7 center from Pawcatuck, Conn., has been the big man on the A&M scene for the past three years, but injuries have hindered him from reaching a peak in the past two years. With Lawrence pacing the Ags, the team is considered a title contender this season.

The record-breaking Aggies, their reputation at stake after mauling the Centenary Gentlemen, tangle with the independent Trinity Tigers tonight at 8 p.m. in White Coliseum. There will not be a pre- varsity contest by the Frosh, who are scheduled for action again Tuesday.

A&M set an all-time scoring record against the Gents with a 95-point production last Tuesday, plus pasting up a new mark of biggest points spread between two teams.

Trinity is fresh from a 74-72 triumph over the Rice Owls, squeaking out the victory on a field goal in the final 10 seconds of the game.

Big gun in the Bengals' attack is Junior Don Hrebec. The 6-4 guard scored 36 points against the Owls, 25 of them coming in the second period.

Larry Dulge, expected to be the No. 1 man on the Trinity team by Coach Leslie Robinson, saw only scant action against Rice due to an injury, but could be ready for action against the Aggies tonight.

A&M will counter Trinity's Hrebec with Sophomore Carroll Broussard, the top-scoring guard who paced the Farmers past Centenary with a 15-point output. Broussard, who stands at 6-5, scored ten points in the second half, with both Coach Bob Rogers and Shelby Metcalf agreeing that he was "cold" for most of the first period.

Close behind Broussard in scoring and rebounding is the jumping Kentuckian, Kelly Chapman. Chapman garnered 14 points against Centenary, and collected seven rebounds.

Tall man on the A&M team is Wayne Lawrence at 6-7, who will battle with 6-5½ John Canavan for Trinity under the basket. Canavan scored the final two points against the Owls that won the game. Lawrence scored 13 points for A&M in the last outing and was one of the top rebounders.

Rounding out the Aggie lineup should be the three junior college all-Americans, Pat and Don Stanley, and Wayne Annette. Veteran Wilmer Cox could move into a starting assignment before game time.

The Aggies will tangle with the University of Houston Monday night in their third straight home game of the year at White Coliseum, with game time scheduled to be 8 p.m. The Freshmen jump into action again Tuesday night when they face the tough Kilgore Rangers at College Station, with game time set at 7:30.

All varsity games will be broadcast over KORA radio station for the benefit of those who can't attend the game.

Nashville of the Southern Assn. will maintain its working agreement with the Cincinnati Reds for 1960.

Kelly Chapman

The jumping tobacco farmer from Kentucky opened the season with a bang against Centenary with 14 points, and hopes to keep his production quota up to par against Trinity tonight. Chapman, a 6-3 forward, can touch the top of the basket with a standing high jump.

CHS Dumps Hearne, 42 - 25; Try Leverett's Chapel Today

By RUSSELL BROWN
CHS Correspondent

The A&M Consolidated Tigers copped their second victory in as many starts in Hearne Tuesday night as the visiting Maroon and White dumped the Eagles 42-25. The "B" team suffered a 21-18 defeat at the hands of the Eagle reserves in the opening contest.

Coach Jack Churchill's fast-breaking offense and rugged defense gave the Bengals a comparatively easy victory over the hosts, as the Eagles couldn't seem to move the ball toward the basket with any degree of success all night.

Senior squadman, Kelly Parker, a 5-11 forward in the quick Tiger offense led both clubs in the scoring column as the flashy senior dumped in four field shots and four charity tosses for 12 points. Senior Bruce Thompson, the Tigers' 6-2 rebounding ace and high post man, tossed in eight points as did junior squadman Jim Riggs. Howard White of the Eagles found the range for 11 counters to lead the hometown club.

Thompson and junior squadman John Pedigo combined for three quick points in the opening seconds of play to give the Tigers a lead they never relinquished. The Bengals took a 10-4 quarter lead then Parker and Riggs combined for seven tallies in the second period to give the visitors a 19-8 halftime margin.

The Tigers came back strong in the third stanza as Condy Pugh hit for two quick buckets after Jerry Sowma had tallied for Hearne. Again Parker and Riggs led the winning quint as the Bengals moved to a 30-14 three-quarter lead.

Churchill ran in his subs liberally after the visitors had racked up a 36-16 lead as the Eagles came on the tally more frequently, but the Tigers sacked the victory 42-25.

In the "B" tilt, both teams looked dead with only a four basket flurry in the opening minutes of the final stanza by the Eagles clinching the victory.

Harris Marshall popped 10 points through the hoop to lead the losers while Doug Wilkerson, Sam Altimore, and Grady Russell each hit six points.

The Bengals took a 9-8 halftime margin after the first quarter ended 2-2. But with the count 13-11 A&M at the outset of the final quarter, Altimore and Russell pushed the Eagles into the lead 19-13, a lead which the younger Bengals couldn't overcome.

The "A" teamers meet Leverett's Chapel Friday afternoon in the Bryan Tourney before meeting either the winner or loser of the Allen Academy-Conroe tilt. The "B" teamers meet the Bryan Colts in the North Zulch Tourney Thursday afternoon with the winner meeting the victor of Fairfield "B" and Teague tilt Saturday. The girls also are participating in the female section of the tourney.

Intramurals

After laying off for a few days of relaxation and turkey eating, Aggie intramural athletes are hard at it again with plenty of action in all classes.

Class A horseshoes top the list with six winners being recorded. Sq. 17 beat Co. E-1, Co. C-2 topped Sq. 3, Co. D-1 outscored Co. D-2, Sq. 6 took Sq. 4, Co. F-1 stopped Co. E-2 and rouding out the contests, Sq. 1 beat Sq. 5.

In class A and C football the losing teams came out with goose eggs for scores except Bizzell who scored eight points in their loss to College View who made 14 points. Other scores were Co. L-2, 10-0 over Sq. 9; Mitchell 6-0 over Hart; Co. H-1, 24-0 over Co. K-2 and Sq. 12, 8-0 over the Maroon Band.

The two big events in the class B division were bowling and basketball.

The highest score in the bowling games were 458 points by Sq. 17 as they topped Maroon Band's score of 406. Co. B-1 beat Sq. 5 by a score of 453-377. Sq. 7 won over Co. A-1, 433-392 and Co. F-1 won over Co. H-1.

Only one basketball score compared to a regular basketball score, but looked like football scores instead. The high score was 27 points turned in by Sq. 7 when they met Co. E-2 who scored 14. Co. B-1 beat Sq. 9, 10-8. Co. C-1 topped Sq. 8, 12-11 and Co. H-1 won by a forfeit.

Only one game in ping pong was recorded as Walton beat Miller.

The last tallies for the season showed Sq. 1 leading in the class A division with 255 points. The second place spot was held by Sq. 8 with 230 points.

In class B standing Sq. 11 was at the top of the ladder with a booming 311 points followed by Sq. 10 with 290.

Bizzell led the class C division with 172½ points.
