

Battles for Rebound

A&M's Wayne Lawrence (12) and Pat Stanley (32) battle with Baylor's Carroll Dawson for a rebound late in the second period. The Aggies won the game, 68-51.

Keith, '56, Hired as Coach

Bobby Drake Keith, an end on Paul Bear Bryant's 1956 championship team at A&M, returns to Aggieland this week as a line coach replacing Bud Sherrod, Jim Myers' top assistant, who left A&M to go into private business.

Keith, an end coach at Alabama under Bryant during the 1958-59 season, will coach ends and tackles at A&M. Alabama, if you remember, has risen from the depths of the Southeastern Conference to bowl competition this year under Bryant.

The former Aggie athlete will have top material to work with at ends, with all four starters headed by Ralph Smith and Bob Phillips, returning.

Keith may have trouble with the tackle situation, a position where the Aggies were hit hard by graduation. George Hogan, the outstanding freshman lineman in the Southwest Conference this past season, could give Keith something to look forward to.

A native of Breckenridge, Keith is married and has no children.

Farmers Remain Undefeated, Dump Baylor Cagers, 68-51

Coach Bob Rogers' Aggies racked up their ninth straight win of the season last night in White Coliseum before a season high crowd of 4,200, downing the Baylor Bears 68-51 in the opening round of Southwest Conference play.

The Aggies, one of four major college basketball teams remaining undefeated in the nation, are ranked 13th in the Associated Press national polls and 10th in the United Press International rankings.

Baylor managed to tie the score six times in the first period before the Farmers were able to catch fire with ten minutes remaining in the half, and pull away from the stubborn Bruins for a 27-23 half-time lead.

A&M was cold in that first period, hitting only 12 of 40 field goal attempts for a meager 30 per cent from the floor, while Baylor was rocking along at a 44 per cent clip.

Tall Wayne Lawrence brought the fans to their feet groaning in that first period when he crashed to the floor after driving in under Baylor's basket for an attempted field goal, and had to be helped from the floor with what appeared to be a serious knee injury. But Lawrence returned, after several minutes of anxious waiting, and reentered the game to the applause of the crowd.

It was last season in Waco in the Aggies' first game against Baylor, that Lawrence hurt his ankle that sidelined him for the season.

Don Stanley carried the Aggie shooting in the first half with 12 points, and finished the game as high scorer with 18, trailed by sophomore Carroll Broussard's 15.

Broussard fouled out of the game with more than five minutes remaining in the contest, but the Farmers boasted a 13 point lead at that time and reserves were beginning to flood the A&M lineup.

The Cadets came out strong in the second period, jumping to a 12 point lead while all Baylor could do was sink free throws. The largest lead the Aggies had in the second half was a 17 point spread with two minutes remaining in the game.

Carroll Dawson was the leading scorer for the Bears, scoring a total of 13 points, nine of them coming in the second half. David Pierce was second high for Baylor, scoring 10 points. Pierce and Dawson were the only two Baylor cagers to score in double figures.

Pat Stanley was third high scorer for the Aggies with 13 points, equalling Dawson's output for the night and bringing the Stanley

Twins' total scoring to 31 for the evening.

Half: A&M 27-23
Officials: Larry Covin and Dan Watson

Dawson had been averaging 19 points per game prior to this contest, but Broussard took on the job of guarding him before he fouled out, and held the Baylor athlete to six below his normal output.

The Aggies will now be idle until Saturday night when they journey to Fort Worth and their game with the TCU Horned Frogs. The Cadets met TCU in the Southwest Conference Tournament in Houston last week, and downed them by a 72-61 score. Next Tuesday the Farmers return to their home court in College Station and tangle with SMU, rated a top contender in the conference.

Frosh Nip Bruins, 66-60; Third Win in Four Starts

The Aggie Fish tucked another victory under their belt last night as they nipped the Baylor Cubs 66-60.

The young Cadets led the contest from start to finish, but their lead dwindled to two points three times in the first half.

With 2:54 minutes left in the first half the Aggies lost the services of Charlie Minor, the little ballhawk from Pampa.

Minor twisted his knee as he went up for a pump shot, but not before he poured in 12 points. He is still the Fish's leading scorer with a 14.7 average.

As Minor went out, 6-6 Jerry Windham took over the scoring honors and pumped in 20 points to be the high point man of the game. 18 of his points came in the second half.

Windham hit 8-14 field goals, mostly on jump shots, and 4-7 free tosses. He boosted his average to 14.5.

The Cadets came out strong in Aggie to score in the double figures with 12 points.

Free throws and rebounds spelled out the Aggie victory with the Cadets sinking 24 of 36 tosses and grabbed 42 rebounds.

Baylor hit a good percentage of their free tosses but Aggies weren't fouling as much. Also the Cubs only counted for 30 rebounds.

The Cubs fired off more shots than the Aggies, but the Fish's shooting eyes were sharper as they hit 53.3 per cent of their shots compared to 39.6 for Baylor.

Don Brownlee walked away with scoring honors for Baylor as he made 17 points, hitting the most of them from way out.

Second high man for the Cubs was Teddy Hobby who had 13 points.

The Cubs' Richard Shoberg was top rebounder for the night with 11 followed by Qualls of the Ags with seven.

Taking a look at the Fish statistically, they are averaging a little over 66 points in four starts and have held their first four opponents to 61 points.

The Ags have outmanned their opponents on the boards by grabbing 193 rebounds compared to 175 for the foes. The Cadets have hit 41.5 per cent of their shots from the floor.

In the free throw column the Cadets are hitting 61.8 per cent.

After last night's contest the Ags boast a record of three wins and one loss. In the opener they stayed at home and whipped the Tyler Apaches 68-54. They hit the road for a game with the Kilgore Rangers and came out on the bottom end of the score in a 62-67 contest.

In a rematch with Tyler at Tyler the Cadets again emerged victors as they edgel the Apaches 70-64.

The next game for the Fish is scheduled for Jan. 12 when they meet Kilgore preceding the Varsity-SMU clash. The Kilgore game is a rematch that had to be postponed before the holidays.

WHY VERN GRAHAM PICKED A FAST GROWING ELECTRICAL COMPANY...

Vernon E. Graham of Fredericktown, Missouri, Class of 1959 at Missouri School of Mines & Metallurgy. Sales Engineer with Federal Pacific Electric Company.

“I figure I made the right move when I joined a fast-growing electrical company like FPE. You get in on the ground floor and you move up fast as the company expands... you're not submerged and lost in the shuffle. Do a good job and people hear about it. There's no paternalism—your own ability and determination are what count.”

WHAT SHOULD THE COMPANY IN YOUR FUTURE BE?

- An industry leader, professional in every phase of business conduct... with each product ahead of its field.
  - Expansion at a rate even faster than the remarkable growth of the electrical industry with a complete line of electrical distribution and control equipment.
  - A warm organization with room for personal growth and development.
- Federal Pacific is all this... and more.

THERE'S A FUTURE FOR YOU IN ENGINEERING—SALES

A Federal Pacific Representative will be at Texas A. & M. on Jan. 14
Your placement director can arrange an appointment. Watch for this FPE Interview Date. If you cannot attend, write to:
