

'Bad Night for Ags'

Aggie Supporters Remain Confident

By BOB SLOAN
Battalion Staff Writer

Most A&M students were confident the Aggies would still capture the Southwest Conference basketball crown—despite a rugged loss to the smooth Southern Methodist Mustangs last Tuesday. The game was typical of SWC athletics, with the Ponies opening a 14-point lead with but nine minutes remaining in the clash. But the Cadets, hitting with amazing regularity, almost caught the stalling Mustangs, falling short 66-64. Nevertheless, the student body, although disappointed the 10-game

Dr. Rupel, Meekma Will Participate In State Meeting

Dr. I. W. Rupel, head of the Department of Dairy Science and A. M. Meekma, dairy husbandman with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will participate in the Texas Brown Swiss Assn.'s annual meeting Friday at Stephenville.

Rupel will narrate color slides depicting dairying in Switzerland and other European countries. The professor recently toured Europe and will tell of his experiences. Meekma will be a member of a panel which will discuss various dairying topics.

The two men also will attend the state Brown Swiss cattle sale to be held Saturday at Stephenville.

Michigan State's soccer team entered the 1959 campaign with a 22-game unbeaten streak stretching over three seasons.

winning streak of the nationally ranked Cadets was broken, expressed the Farmers would take the loop laurels.

James K. Werner, sophomore from Henderson, Tex. had this to say: "I thought we played a great game Tuesday. I don't see how it could hurt our chances for the conference and I think we all knew we had to lose sometime; now the pressure is off."

Charlie D. Parmer, senior from Nolanville, Tex., believed Tuesday's loss will give the Aggies a greater incentive to win. "Tuesday was just a bad night; all teams have them. The loss will put pressure on the team to win from now on out. We will be rated in the lower 20's next week, but we will win the Southwest Conference," he said.

Homer H. Hershey, senior from Hereford, was another student who believed the Aggies just had a bad night. "We just weren't hot Tuesday night," he said. "SMU wasn't hot either, but they were playing better than we were. They were lucky on rebounds. All teams have a bad night at least once during the season. When a player like Carroll Broussard gets only 4 points and Don Stanley gets only 6 points in a game, you know they are just off. We will win the conference title, but we won't be in the top 10 next week."

Not everyone believes the Aggie ratings will go down next week. One optimistic Aggie remembered "when Georgia Tech lost to SMU this year, their national rating actually went up."

J. E. Loupot, class of '32, had this to say about the Aggies position on national polls, "What is all the fuss about press ratings? I don't care where they put us. It doesn't matter—just so we beat Texas Friday."

as the election of Eisenhower and Nixon.

Lindley has devoted attention to international affairs and American foreign and military policies. In this connection, he has traveled extensively abroad. In 1955 he attended the Asian-African Conference at Bandung, Indonesia and visited 14 Asian nations and colonies. He wrote a series of columns and articles on the progress of the struggle between freedom and communism in that part of the world. Lindley also has lectured on international and national affairs for many important audiences, including the National War College, the Air War College and the Naval War College.

Also Radio, TV

Lindley has been a radio and television commentator on various radio and television networks. He received the Overseas Press Club Award in 1950 for television news presentation and interpretation.

In addition, he has written a number of books on national and international affairs and contributed to various magazines.

The Newsweek editor is a member of Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Delta Chi, Phi Beta Kappa, National Press Club, Overseas Writers (president, 1948-49) and the Cosmos Club. Lindley has been awarded a Chubb Fellowship, Timothy Dwight College, Yale University (1952), the Order of St. Olav, Norway, and a Distinguished Alumni Services Award from Indiana University in 1956.

Admission for the Great Issues presentation will be by Great Issues-Recital Series Season tickets or $1.50 per person.

A closed reception for Lindley will follow his talk, after which the noted commentator will depart by plane from Easterwood.

Sites Announced For New Summer Study Programs

Paris, Florence, and Vienna will be the sites for three new summer study programs for college students, announced the West Coast Office of the National Student Assn.

The group in the European cities will have an opportunity to combine language studies with a study of the literature, music, politics, history, agriculture, architecture, economics and theater of the country.

Along with meeting members of local governments, religious leaders, educators and artists, the students will travel for several weeks within the country and will live with local families.

The total cost of the all-summer program is $795 and includes transatlantic transportation and all expenses in Europe.

For further information write: U. S. National Student Assn., "Study-travel" Dept., 2161 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley 4, California.

Arctic foxes, with their heavy winter fur, can live comfortably in temperatures as low as 40 below zero.

Regalia For The January Commencement Exercises
All students who are candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy are required to order hoods as well as the doctor's cap and gown. The hoods are to be left at the Registrar's Office no later than 1:00 p. m., Tuesday, January 19 (this will be accomplished by a representative of the College Exchange Store). The Ph. D. hoods will not be worn in the procession since all such candidates will be hooded on the stage as a part of the ceremonies.

Candidates for the Master's Degree will wear appropriate military uniforms. Rental of caps and gowns may be arranged with the Exchange Store. Orders may be placed between 8:00 a. m., January 4 and 5:00 p. m., Friday, January 15. The rental is as follows: Doctor's cap and gown $5.25, Master's cap and gown $4.75, Bachelor's cap and gown $4.25. Hood rental is the same as that for cap and gown.
