

Farmers Challenge League Leading Longhorns in Comeback Trail Contest

Their shoe laces tied by the SMU Mustangs, the A&M basketball team hopes to become swift of foot and sure of eye tonight in White Coliseum when they hit the comeback trail against the real gone Texas Longhorns.

Texas, boasting wins over SMU, Arkansas and Rice, stand atop the Southwest Conference heap with an undefeated record, while the Farmers have suffered one shellacking in three games, with the Mustangs wielding the paint brush. The Farmers are tied for second in the league with Arkansas and SMU.

The Ags have met and conquered the Steers once this season, downing the bovines by a 10 point margin in the Southwest Conference tourney, but that one win by the Cadets over Texas could be just an added incentive for the Longhorns to win.

Coach Harold Bradley's Texans have three men in the top ten scorers in SWC play, and Senior Jay Arnette is the top scorer for the conference in season play. A&M has two men in the top ten, but they reside in eighth and ninth place in SWC play.

Add to that Texas' towering advantage in height, and you have a team that the Aggies are going to be hard pushed to beat. The Steers have the tallest man in the league in the person of Wayne

Clark, a 6-11 midget who is averaging in the neighborhood of nine points per game.

Two other starters on the Longhorn team top 6-5 or better, Brenton Hughes at 6-5, and Jerry Graham at 6-6. The tallest man on the Aggie team is 6-7 Wayne Lawrence.

Hughes is averaging 14.7 points per game, while Shorty Donnie Lasiter, a junior college transfer, is swishing the basket at a 17 point per game pace. Arnette, the top shooter, has made 20 points or better per game over the season route.

Sophomore Carroll Broussard is the top gun for the Farmers, rock-ing along at a 13.3 point per game average in Southwest Conference play, although he could manage only four points against SMU. Lawrence is averaging 13 trailed by Don Stanley with a 12.6 average and Wayne Annett with a 10.6.

Since the A&M-Texas basketball series began back in 1917, the Steers have won a total of 69 games while dropping 39 to the Farmers. Last year the Aggies humiliated the Steers in College Station by winning by a 44 point margin.

Texas has fielded a remarkable team this year under a new head coach, Bradley. Last year the Longhorns could win only four of 20 games, but this year they have already racked up a 9-3 season record, and is now the top contender in the conference.

Prior to their defeat at the hands of the Ponies Tuesday night, the Ags were ranked eighth in the nation by the Associated Press national poll, and seventh by United Press International.

Fish Seek Fifth Win in Tonight's Tilt

The Aggie Fish will try for win number five tonight as they meet the Texas Shorthorns preceding the Varsity Contest. Game time is at 6.

In six starts the Frosh have been beaten twice. In the early part of the season Kilgore topped them 67-62 and last week the TCU Wogs handed them a 53-47 defeat.

Henderson Hall

Dedication of Henderson Hall, A&M's new athletic dormitory, is scheduled for 1 p. m. Saturday with A&M President Earl Rudder presiding. The hall is named in honor of Bill "Jitterbug" Henderson, a winner of 11 varsity letters during the years 1939-43.

Athletic Dorm Dedication, Banquet Scheduled Saturday

Basketball has to step out of the limelight for one day this weekend, with the annual football team and cross-country banquet scheduled for Saturday night, preceded by the dedication of the modern athletic dormitory scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

The dormitory, named Henderson Hall in memory of the late Bill "Jitterbug" Henderson, will be dedicated at 1 p. m., with A&M President Earl Rudder presiding over the formal ceremony while H. B. Zachry, president of the A&M Board of Directors, and Former A&M Coach Homer Norton will speak.

Henderson was an all-time athlete at Aggieland, earning a total of 11 varsity letters in five sports and three freshman numerals, in addition to winning the intramural heavyweight boxing and handball titles at A&M from 1939 through 1943.

The former Aggie great died in 1955 at the age of 36, a victim of multiple sclerosis. Jitterbug was the first Aggie athlete to win four letters in one year—1940-41—football, basketball, baseball and track. His other athletic honors included being named to the All-Conference team as an end in 1942, and co-captain of the basketball team that same year.

Henderson will be represented at the ceremony by his widow and mother.

That night at the athletic banquet, six football awards will be given for the most valuable player, best lineman, best blocker, best little man, rookie of the year (sophomore) and player with the highest academic standing for three years.

Two winners of last year's awards return for another try at the honors, Gordon LeBoeuf, winner of the best blocked award, and Allen Goehring, winner of the outstanding little man award.

The best blocker award is named the Bert Pfaff Award, in honor of Pfaff, while Herb Smith's name is attached to the best little man award. The A. M. Waldrop award goes to the best lineman.

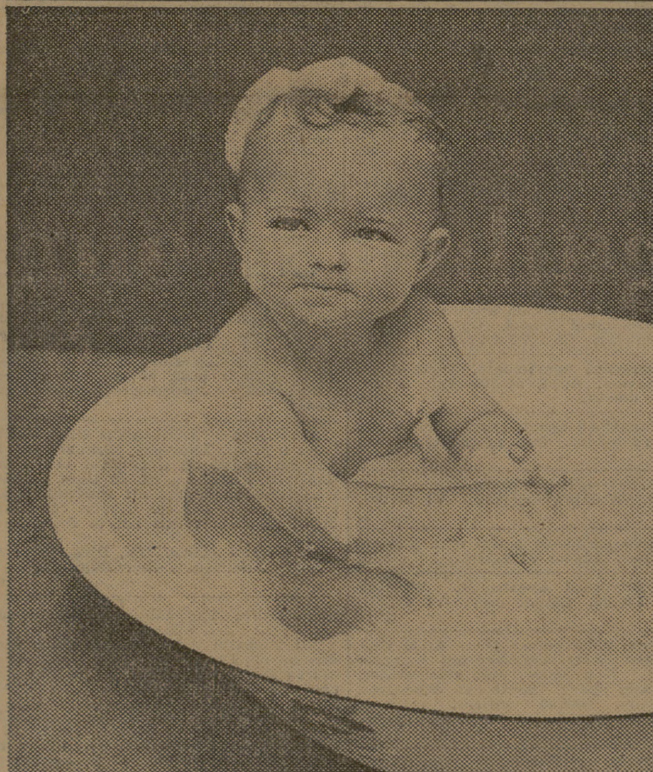

C. N. "Newt" Hielscher, former Bryan insurance executive now of Shreveport, will be master of ceremonies for the football dinner-dance, that is scheduled to begin at 7 p. m. in Sbisla Hall.

NEXT TO GODLINESS

Soap became a part of his daily life long before he understood its use. He's still more concerned with its bubbles than its cleansing properties—but he knows soap is mighty important.

And no one ever thought of postponing his bath until he was old enough to make decisions for himself!

Wise parents never postpone a child's religious training. Long before he is able to reason, he needs the character-building and guidance of the Church. Christianity should become important to him in his daily experience before its truths can be fully grasped by his mind.

We are fortunate that our churches are equipped to instill a vital Christian faith in the youngest child. Fortunate is the boy or girl whose parents begin his religious training in their church's Nursery or Beginners' Department.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
