

Lope-A-Long Smith

But don't let that monicker fool you, because Sophomore Tommy Smith is one of the most deceptively fast members of the Aggie basketball team, and he's a good rebounder too. Smith is called "one of the most improved members of the team" by Coach Bob Rogers.

Rogers Delivers Ags From Cage Depression

Bob Rogers started his career at Aggieland with a losing season in 1958, that is a losing season according to Rogers, but a winner for the Aggies.

This year is bringing greater things for Coach Rogers and team, ranked eighth in the nation, as they boast a 12-1 season record. For the second year in a row they took the Conference Tourney by beating SMU in the finals by three points.

Rogers and his Cadets as his wins outnumbered his losses 15-6 besides taking the Conference Tourney in Houston, something no other Ag cage coach had managed to do.

One thing that has contributed greatly to Rogers' cage team is the junior colleges transfers that have flocked to Aggieland since his arrival.

The first of these was Archie Carroll of Lon Morris who was sixth high scorer in the conference last year.

Last year two more top JC cagers arrived on the campus in the person of Wilmer Cox of Kilgore, who made All-Conference, and Kelly Chapman of Tyler.

Junior college contributions to the 1960 team are Wayne Annette of Paris and the Stanley twins, Pat and Don from Kilgore.

All five of the transfers have served Coach Rogers well thus far this year, not to speak of their value for the rest of this season and in the future.

Freshmen Cagers Learning Bad Habits

This year's crop of freshmen cagers have been falling into the habits of their superiors, the Varsity. However, this habit is a good one . . . winning.

Before the season Coach Shelby Metcalf was a little skeptical of the Fish. He said that the Fish would have to depend strongly on their speed and defense to match last year's record of seven wins and five losses. With eight games behind them the Fish have won six and have four more left to better last year's record.

In the four games remaining, the Fish have beaten all the opponents except one, the TCU Wogs. The Wogs edged them six points in the game at Fort Worth. The Wog tilt was the first one that Charlie Minor didn't play and Jerry Windham was out with the flu. Since that time Windham has come back into the lineup and Minor's replacements have been doing a more than adequate job.

The Daily Texan, school paper of Texas University, finally realized that the Aggies have a school spirit that extends down to the younger ranks.

This comment, stolen from The Texan's commentary of the A&M-Texas basketball game, points out how demoralizing the Cadet spirit can be.

"Nothing took the spirit of the Longhorn fans so quickly as the sight of kids (maybe they didn't know better) wearing miniature Aggie Uniforms."

The parenthesis and the comment on the young Aggies' spirit was included in the story by The Texan.

Phillip Peter, one of Houston's outstanding backs, has signed a football letter of intent with Texas A&M and will enroll at the college for the spring semester.

Coach Jim Myers of A&M signed the former Austin prep star to a letter of intent. Peter is 6-2 and weighs 190 pounds.

Paul Brookshire, Sports Editor of the Bryan Daily Eagle, had this small story in his Sports Scripts column that is too good not to reprint in The Battalion.

"A Red Shirt banquet, first in A&M history, was held recently honoring 17 members of the Aggie football team that served as clay pigeons for the varsity day after day. 'Letters' presented the squad, coached by Capt. Joe Bennett, were in the form of a white 'A' sewed on a red T shirt.

The Red Shirts even chose an "All Opponent Team." Ends selected were Russell Hill and Richard Love; Tackles Bill Godwin and Gale Oliver; Guards Wayne Labar and Wayne Freiling; Center Larry Broadus; and Backs Powell Berry, Eddie Van Dyke, Randy Sims and Gordon Leboeuf.

CHAINS

These hands might have painted the world's greatest masterpiece. These hands might have played faultlessly the most difficult concerto. These hands might have mixed a compound that would destroy disease. These hands might have been raised in blessing over a trusting mankind.

Instead they are chained. Somewhere, somehow, they failed. Perhaps they reached over a counter and stealthily snatched a jewel. Perhaps they searched a safe and took what other hands had worked for. Perhaps they held the gun that wiped out a life. Somewhere they went wrong. Somewhere they failed.

Hands do not act by themselves. Personalities control them—personalities swayed by impulses and convictions, good and bad. The Church, your Church, is waiting to guide hands, minds, hearts and lives. Here good impulses, right convictions are born and nurtured. Here, in God's House, hands learn to move aright to find life's work, unchained and triumphant.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
