

Aggies Whip Dons in Overtime

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A&M, the nation's 10-ranked college basketball team, was forced to beat the San Francisco Dons in overtime here Monday night, 69-65. The regulation game ended 61-61. The hard-pressed victory gave the Aggies a 13-1 record, and a three-game win streak. The Dons were down by 10 points with 3:46 left. The Texans led the Dons until the final two minutes, and San Francisco trailed, 32-25 at the half. Hal Urban sent San Francisco into the lead for the first time on a jump shot from the circle, 60-59. Then the Dons went two points ahead on Charley Range's free throws. It was a one-and-one situation. Range made his first shot, and missed the second, with 21 seconds left. But the Aggies' Elliott Craig tied the game in the last six seconds, goaling from 17 feet, and the intersectional game went into a five-minute overtime period. Urban immediately goaled from the circle again and the Dons were up two points, 63-61. A&M's Don Stanley connected from the corner and there was another deadlock. But with 1:48 left Craig's jump shot put A&M back in command, 65-63. Don Stanley's four free throws clinched it for the Aggies, who received another productive night from Carroll Broussard.

Broussard led all scoring with 26 points. He hit 50 per cent of his shots, connecting on 10 of 20 from the field. The Dons had the better of the shooting percentages, hitting 40.3 from the floor against the Aggies' 38.1. A&H dominated rebounds, 48-39. The six-foot seven Wayne Lawrence of A&M topped all rebounders with 11.

Tech Completes Coaching Staff

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Tech football coaching staff has been completed.

Jim Parmer, who helped coach the freshmen the past three seasons and aided in installing Tech's multiple offense, was named an assistant varsity coach Tuesday.

Santa Clara Hands Ags Second Loss With 66-55 Victory

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—The Santa Clara Broncos pulled one of the basketball season's biggest upsets Tuesday night with a relatively easy 66-55 victory over A&M, Southwest Conference leader.

The Broncos, led by Frank Sobrero and Jim Russi, were sharp from both the field and the free throw line. They built a 29-24 half-time and were never headed. Santa Clara, second in the West Coast Athletic Conference, now has a 14-6 season record. The Broncos are 3-1 in the conference. It was the second defeat of the season of the Aggies, ranked 10th in the nation, and gave them a 13-2 mark.

The closest the Aggies came to catching up in the second half was at 34-31 with 13:45 remaining.

Santa Clara then pulled away to a nine-point lead and the Aggies never again were close. The Broncos once led by 17 at 64-47. At that point Bronc substitutes took over and the Aggies scored eight points.

A&M hit 28.1 per cent on 18 of 64 shots. Santa Clara had 45 per cent, making 22 of 49.

The Aggies led in rebounds, 39-37.

Ags Host Tech In Important Game Saturday

The Aggies' loss to Santa Clara Tuesday night gives new hope to the Texas Tech Red Raiders, who looked like they would battle for the cellar at the start of the season, but now loom as contenders for the championship.

The Raiders, led by sensational sophomore Del Ray Mounts, who scored 35 points, hurt Arkansas' chances with an 82-79 upset Tuesday night. It was Tech's second conference triumph in a row. The victory shot the Raiders into a tie for third place with Arkansas and Texas and put them only a game out of first.

A&M leads with a 4-1 record only because the Aggies have played more conference games than second place Southern Methodist (3-1). The Methodists play Texas Christian at Fort Worth Wednesday night. A victory for SMU would put them into a tie with A&M for the top.

Texas meets North Texas State of the Missouri Valley Conference at Denton in a nonconference test.

Arkansas missed a chance of pulling into a tie for the lead with the Aggies when the Razorbacks lost at Lubbock Tuesday night. They led twice by nine points in the first half and were ahead, 38-33, at intermission. But Tech went ahead midway of the last half and held it to the end.

The loss by A&M gives the conference an intersectional season mark of 22 victories against 24 defeats.

TCU Plans Offense Around Passing

FORT WORTH (AP)—Texas Christian's Horned Frogs plan to throw the ball more next season and their first workout in spring training Tuesday indicated it.

Seventy-four candidates reported and Coach Abe Martin had his three quarterbacks, Don George, Guy Gibbs and sophomore Ben Nix moving immediately into the passing game. Gibbs is the 1959 sophomore who was ineligible.

Bill Phillips, 200-pound sophomore from Snyder, moved into the left guard spot replacing Roy Lee Rambo, two-year letterman who was found scholastically ineligible last week.

Larry Dawson, the No. 2 quarterback last fall, was moved to halfback.

Jockey Willie Shoemaker made it three straight United Nations Handicaps when he scored with Round Table. It was the Shoe's ninth $100,000 victory of 1959 and Round Table's third such score.
