

Farmers Rip Tech 89-59 in SWC Tilt

Coach Bob Rogers' crew cut five were playing in tune again Saturday night as they came off with some jazz too hot for the Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Pat Stanley was the big gunner for the Cadets as he tossed in nine of 12 field goals for an 18 point total.

Stanley had plenty of help from his team as four other members hit in the double figures. Carroll Broussard had 15 and Kelly Chapman, playing only seven minutes, hit 12 points. Wayne Lawrence added 11 and Don Stanley pumped in 12.

The Cadets hit a booming 51.3 per cent of their shots and were never threatened in the contest. The percentage was a big improvement over the 38 and 28 per cent in last week's West Coasts games.

With eight minutes left in the game the regulars turned over a 34 point lead to the reserves. The score was 75-41 and was the biggest in the contest.

Saturday's showing was one of the best of the season for the Cadets as they ran to a 48-23 half-time margin. The Ags out-rebounded the Raiders 56-37 for the night and 31-12 in the first half.

High men for Tech were Gene Arrington and Roger Hennig who both netted 12 points.

Tech's Del Ray Mounts, who had been filling the basket consistently for the last few games was held to 11 points by an alert defense sparked by the alternate guarding of Wilmer Cox and Pat Stanley. In the two games prior to the Aggie game Mounts had scored 61 points.

Saturday's results left the Raiders with a 3-3 record in SWC play and the Ags boast a 5-1 record.

Cadet Cindermen Boast Eleven Returning Lettermen for 1960

A&M opens its track and field campaign Feb. 27 at Houston with 11 returning letterman including nine who won points in the SWC meet here last spring.

Coach Charley Thomas' Aggies meet Texas and Houston in a triangular meet at Public School stadium in Houston two weeks from Saturday.

Leading the returnees is Owen Hill, Dallas senior who won the discus event last spring. The Aggies took third in the meet behind Texas and SMU in Thomas' first year at the helm. With only four lettermen gone Thomas figures on an improved squad this season.

In addition to Hill in the weights, returning lettermen include Ernie Uribe of Laredo, sprints and hurdles; Bill Palmer of Uvalde, 440; Henry Bonorden of Pt. Lavaca, weights; Newton Lamb of Houston, javelin; Bobby Clark of Marshall, sprints; Freddie Du-lock of Axtell, two-mile; C. J. Hajovsky of El Campo, 440 and relays; Bobby Thomas of Dallas and Charles Merka of Premont, high jump and Olin Garrison of Dallas, hurdles.

Top sophomore candidates are Malcolm Hardee of Groveton, mile; Thad Crooks of San Antonio, 880; Jim Long of Westport, Conn., javelin; Ty Tiemann of Brenham, weights; Hubert Nelson of San Antonio, vault; Frank Schmalstieg of Sinton, sprints and Gil Jacobson of Houston, sprint and broad jump.

Four lettermen not back include Sprinter Joe Flood of Waco, John Long of Westport, Conn., javelin; Frank Madura of Tulla, high jump and Ray Vance of McAllen, vault. In addition, James Nixon of Freeport, freshman discus champ, is scholastically ineligible.

A&M will compete in seven triangular meets, three relays and the Dallas Invitational in addition to the SWC meet at Ft. Worth May 13 and 14.

Bob Roycroft, North Carolina State football guard, grows plants for a hobby.

Cadets Head for Hills To Meet Razorbacks

Aggie Cagers hit the road tonight and head for the hills of Arkansas where they will combat the Razorbacks.

Arkansas is always a constant threat to anyone on their home court and anything can happen "in the hills."

Last week the Aggies began to get back in winning form as they romped over Tech's Red Raiders. Arkansas threw a scare into the SMU Mustangs as the regular contest was forced into an overtime. In the overtime period the Hogs fell under the Ponies' hoofs as Kim Nash tossed in a marker with eight seconds left to make the score 72-70.

Tonight will be the first meeting of the Ags and Hogs and will complete the first round of conference play for both teams.

All of the Cadet personnel are in top form and they proved it Saturday night against Tech when five of them hit in the double figures.

Arkansas' top point maker is Clyde Rhoden who took the same honor last year. Rhoden's pace this season is described as being within reach of every record in the Razorback basketball book.

Rhoden has been receiving a lot of help from Ronnie Garner and Jerry Carlton.

After tonight's game the Cadets will be at a slight disadvantage compared to their co-leaders, the SMU Mustangs. In the second round the Cadets have to play Baylor, SMU and Texas away from home while SMU will be defending home soil against each of the top contenders.

Taking a look at the rest of the conference, Baylor meets TCU in Waco and SMU meets Rice in Dallas.

Saturday's schedule includes Rice and A&M in College Station, Arkansas and TCU in Fort Worth, Baylor and Texas Tech in Lubbock and SMU and Texas in Dallas.

Jay Arnette of Texas is still the leading scorer in the conference with 310 points. Carroll Broussard of A&M and SMU's Steve Strange hold down the number two spot with 278 points. Baylor's Carroll Dawson is third with 274.

Consolidated Meets Navasota Tonight

The A&M Consolidated Tigers go after their fourth District 21-AA win against two losses here Tuesday night when they seek revenge on the Navasota Rattlers in Tiger Gym.

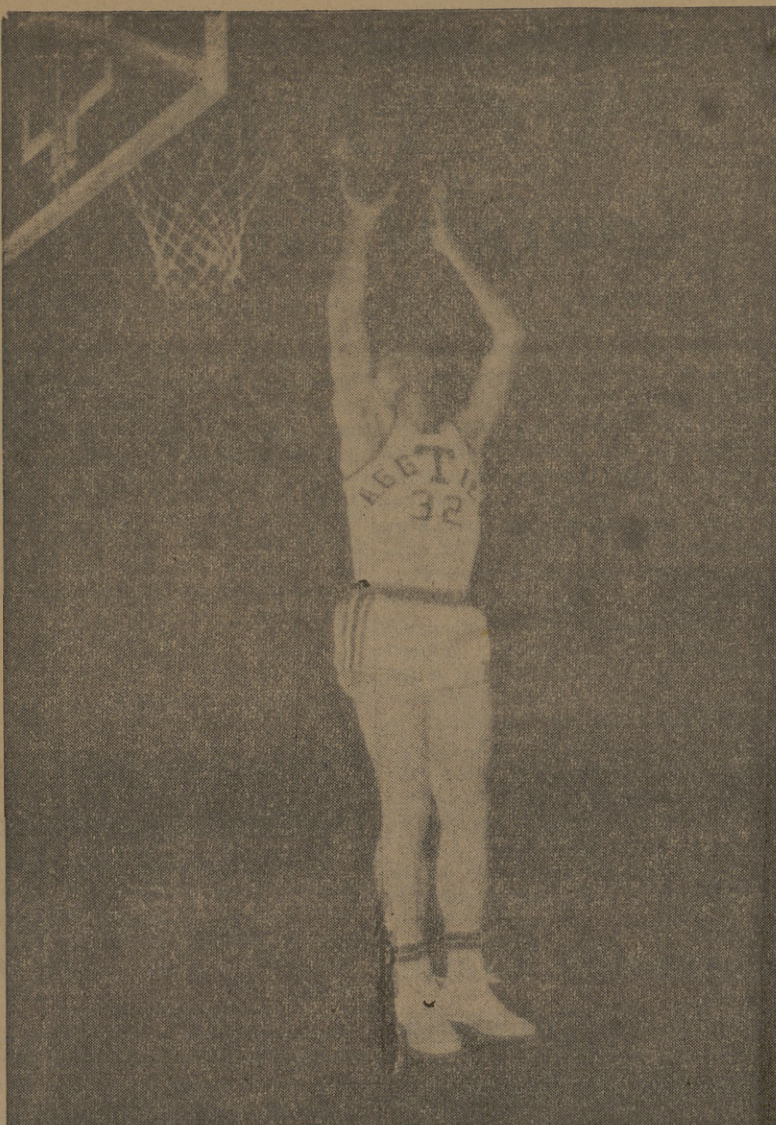

The Tigers, paced by 6-2 Bruce Thompson and 5-8 P. D. Gandy, have now racked up a 14-7 season accounting, including the 3-2 loop count good enough for second place in 21-AA play, though they rest two games back of the defending champion, Humble. The Rattlers have tallied one conference victory at the expense of the Bengals earlier in the season.

Coach Jack Churchill will probably go with a starting five of Thompson (6-2), who has tallied 284 points in 21 games; Virden Smith (6-2), who has 110 points in 20 tilts; Jim Riggs (5-10) with 78 or Kelly Parker (5-10) with 137 will be at one forward slot while Condy Pugh (6-2) with 89 will be at the other forward; and Gandy (5-8) who has tossed in 107 points in 16 tilts will be at guard.

In the preliminary "B" tilt, the Tigers, with a records of 12-6 and 3-2 will go with Larry Randolph and John Stark at posts, David Rame and Fred Brison at forwards and Danny Garner at guard.

Friday the Bengals visit Cy-Fair before closing out the season Tuesday in Tiger Gym against Humble.

Top Against Tech

Pat Stanley, half of Bob Rogers' snappy twins, was recognized as a defensive standout in the earlier part of the season. Now he is holding his own in the scoring column as he poured in 18 points against Texas Tech to lead the Aggie scoring.

Freshman Sets National Swim Mark

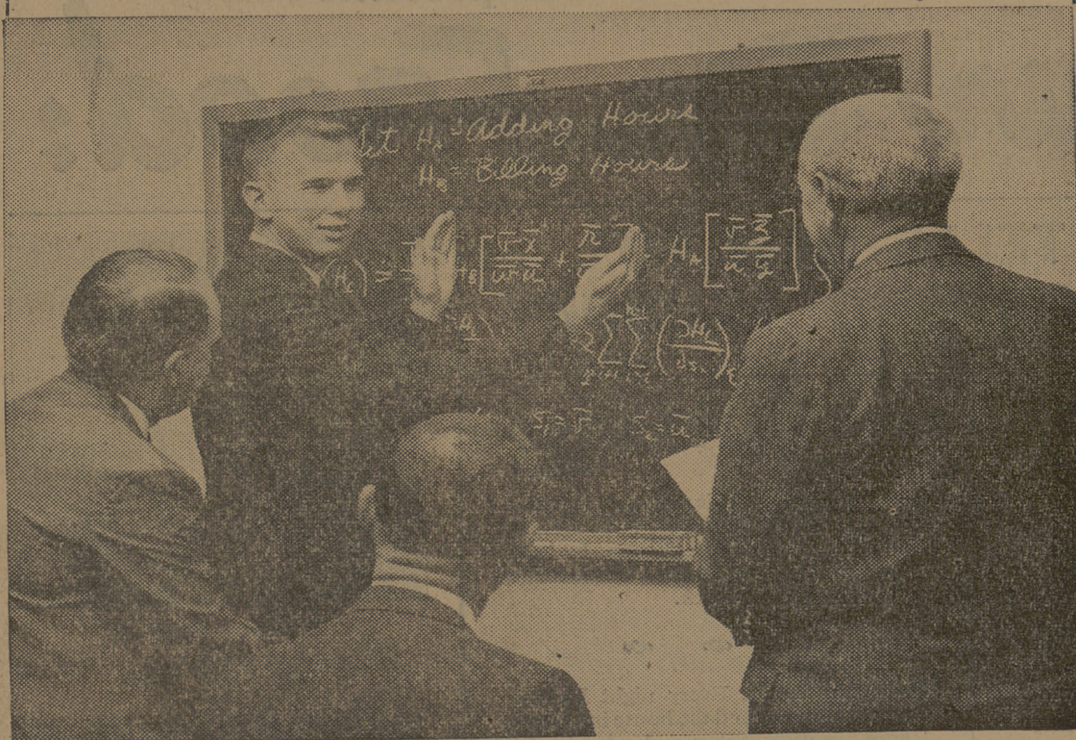

Coach Art Adamson's Aggie swimmers dropped their first meet of the season last week to SMU but an Aggie freshman tankman bettered the national freshman record in the 60-yard freestyle event.

SMU, conference swim champs the past three years, rolled over the Ags 65-30 but the Fish took the measure of the Colts, 47-39, paced by Bill Baker and Tom Kennerly, both of Spring Branch in Houston.

Baker's time of :27.9 in the 60 freestyle was a tenth of a second under the national frosh mark set in 1946 by Stanford and tied in 1954 by a Yale swimmer. Baker also won the 100 free and individual medley while Kennerly won the 200 free and anchored the winning freestyle relay.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

Ken Murphy meets with Revenue Accounting people to discuss a new statistical formula. This will be used to proportion the billing time spent on interstate and intrastate Long Distance calls.

He's making math and telephones add up to a fine business career

During his senior year in college, math major Kendall T. Murphy had job interviews with several firms, but none of them appealed to him. "I wasn't interested in doing pure mathematics," he says. "I wanted to apply math and statistics to everyday business problems and have management responsibilities, too."

At a professor's suggestion, Ken talked with a Bell System representative and was "surprised to learn how many practical applications statistics had in telephone company operations." The thorough and varied training program and opportunities to advance as a member of management also impressed him.

Ken joined the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company at Sacramento, California, in June, 1956. Two years of rotational training familiarized him with company equipment, services and commercial procedures. Then he was assigned to the Chief Statistician's Office in San Francisco.

Today, as a Staff Statistician, Ken is applying his math background to a variety of statistical studies dealing with: rates and revenue, inventory and obsolescence of equipment, customer opinion, personnel administration, quality control and auditing.

"This is a big, fast-growing business," says Ken, "and I feel I'm helping it operate more efficiently every day. That's a mighty satisfying way to put my college education to work."

Ken Murphy got his B.A. in Mathematics from the University of California's Santa Barbara College in 1956. He's one of many young men building interesting careers in the Bell Telephone Companies. There could be one for you, too. Be sure to talk it over with the Bell interviewer when he visits your campus.
