

Two Ag Extension Economists To Give Six Talks, Feb. 16-20

Two economists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will make six farm community talks from Feb. 16-20, a period of six days.

They are Bob G. Cherry and Dr. A. B. Wooten who will discuss the importance of agriculture in the Texas economy, agri-business and the agricultural outlook for 1960. The talks are part of a week-long Soil Fertility Days program sponsored by the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Feb. 16, Wooten will speak at Sudan and Cherry will address a farm group at Lubbock. Cherry will then make talks on Feb. 17 at Dimmitt; Feb. 18, Silverton; Feb. 19, Lockney, and Feb. 20 at Tulia.

John G. McHaney, another economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will speak Feb. 11 at the annual banquet of the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce. His subject also will be the importance of agriculture to the total Texas Economy.

VIENNA ON PARADE

pectedly won the hearts of the public.

Program Highlights
The highlights of the program, which is co-sponsored by Pravy and Marald A. Hoeller under the personal supervision of Andre Mertens of Columbia Artists Management Inc., begins with the celebratory Austrian national anthem, which Josef Haydn often declared was his favorite of his many works, and a group of stirring marches by the Deutschmeister Band. A group of romantic numbers featuring Miss von Widmann, Gross and the Viennese Belles are collected under the title of one of Johann Strauss's loviest waltzes: "Tales from the Vienna Woods," inspired by and old print, another number recalls "A Party in Schubert's Days."

His good humor and supply of effervescent melodies made young Frank Schubert a great social favorite in Vienna. It is just such an evening that the principals and the string ensemble will recreate.

Admission for the production tonight will be $1 for high school and elementary students; and $2.50 and $3 for adults.
