By JOE CALLICOATTE

The Aggie Cagers fell prey to Texas Longhorns last night in Austin as they were in the line of fire produced by Jay Arnette, Al Almanza and Brenton Hughes, all who riddled the bucket like a rifle team.

An overflow crowd was present to witness the annual rivalry with fans perched on the rafters, wedged between the bleacher rails and sitting within inches of the boundary markers. The fans began pouring in Gregory Gym early in the afternoon to watch the Fish-Shorthorn contest, which was a full night's entertainment, and the varsity tilt that followed.

Arnette, Hughes and Almanza combined forces to put the Longhorns in an early substantial lead that never diminished.

After the 10 minute mark passed in the first half the closest the Cadets could come to matching the score was 10 points. This margin was fairly consistent until the half ended 40-30 in favor of the Longhorns.

Accuracy and Height
The Longhorns superb shooting and height proved to be the biggest advantage of the game. Their shooting percentage from the floor was an even 50 as they made 30 of 60 shots compared to a below average 35.1 per cent for the Cadets who gathered only 39 rebounds compared to the Steer's 44.

Arnette was the game's leading scorer with 25 points, but just a shade behind him was Carroll Broussard who had 24.

About the only place the Cadets were hot was at the free throw line as they hit 22 of 26 with Broussard getting 12 for 12.

The Longhorn fans displayed their traditional sportsmanship and had to be asked twice during the evening to tone down the booing and stop throwing pennies and paper on the floor.

Fish Shine

The Fish played the Shorthorns a hot contest in the preliminary game that could have very easily been moved across the street to Memorial Stadium. It was rough all the way.

At halftime the Fish had a 32-26 lead that dwindled to a 59-59 tie at the end of regular game to put it in an overtime.

After a four point scoring burst by Lewis Qualls the Fish pulled ahead and won, 65-63.

Qualls was high man for the Fish with his 17 markers, followed by Jimmy Cobb with 15, Willie Lager with 14 and Jerry Windham with 11.

The Shorthorn's high men were Jimmy Gilbert and Robert Ledbetter with 19 each.

After last night's action the Farmers will have to share first place honors with Texas and SMU who also have lost two games in conference play.

Humble Downs CHS, 56 - 51, in 21-AA

By RUSSELL BROWN
CHS Correspondent

A rough bunch of Humble Wildcats decided that the A&M Consolidated Tigers would have to settle for second spot in the District 21-AA race when the defending champion 'Cats made it two wins in a row with a 56-51 win over a tough quint of Bengals in Tiger Gym.

Humble used the fast break, the full court press, the freeze and plain well-balanced basketball to stymie all the efforts of the rampaging Tigers. Bruce Thompson won the scoring battle with Hershel Archer of Humble, but Archer's teammates chipped in more tallies to give them the crown.

Thompson's hook shot late in the second period knotted the count to 23-23 before the full-court press began to tell on the harried Tigers. Poor passing gave the Wildcats six gift points and pushed them into a 34-25 halftime lead.

The Bengals kept chopping away at the lead but fouls in the last minutes of play in an attempt to kill the freeze by Humble gave the 'Cats the margin.

Thompson's 19 tallies paced both clubs while Condy Pugh and Kelly Parker had 10 and 11. Joey Brown had 16 and Archer had 15 for Humble.

The Bengals took the "B" contest, 46-32, with a 23 point second quarter outbreak, and went on to soundly trounce the 'Cats behind Larry Randolph, Bob Adams and Fred Brison who had eight points each.

Wednesday, the Bengals close the season in Cy-Fair against the Bobcats for second place in the loop. Thompson, Parker, Brison and Virden Smith will see final action as seniors for the Tigers, a successful season for Coach Jack Churchill in his first year at Tigerland.

Be perspicacious!

Not this: a student who studies drowsily no matter how much sleep he gets.

This! Perspicacious... sharp! NoDoz keeps you awake and alert—safely!

If you find studying sometimes soporific (and who doesn't?) the word to remember is NoDoz. NoDoz alerts you with a safe and accurate amount of caffeine—the same refreshing stimulant in coffee and tea. Yet non-habit-forming NoDoz is faster, handier, more reliable.

So to keep perspicacious during study and exams—and while driving, too—always keep NoDoz in proximity.

The safe stay awake tablet—available everywhere. Another fine product of Grove Laboratories.
