

Farmers Down Bulldogs, 2-1; Tilts Slated Today, Tomorrow

After much bad weather and one cancellation the Aggie diamondmen started 1960 baseball rolling Saturday as they topped the Texas Lutheran Bulldogs, 2-1.

Byron Barber seemed to be at the plate when the Ags had to have him as he hit 2-4 and scored the winning run on Clifford Davis' sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth inning.

The Aggies' first run came in the bottom of the third when Henry Batten batted for David Pitcock and drew a base on balls from the Bulldogs' Bill Cartwright.

After two straight outs, Barber came to the plate and poled a double into left field to score Batten.

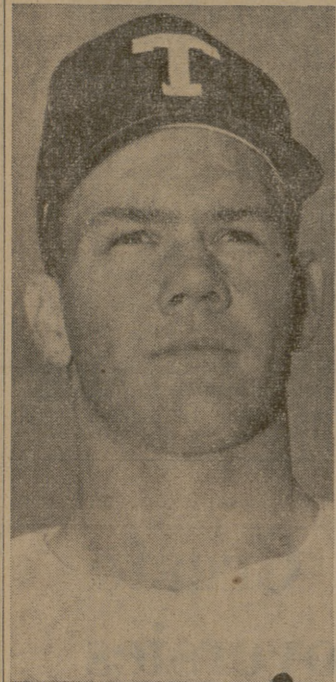

Texas Lutheran's lone score came in the seventh when Steven Maurer singled to left and was advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt by Jim Green. Billy Russell, pinch-hitting for Cartwright, topped the first pitch into the dirt and a wild throw at first base brought Maurer home.

Coach Tom Chandler used three hurlers Saturday against the Bulldogs. Pitcock started for the Cadets and pitched three innings. Gary Priddy allowed two hits in his four innings on the mound and Jack Roeder was given credit for the win, allowing only two hits.

The Aggies left this morning for Seguin to return the Saturday game. The lineup will not change except on the mound where Buddy Tanner will make his first appearance of the year.

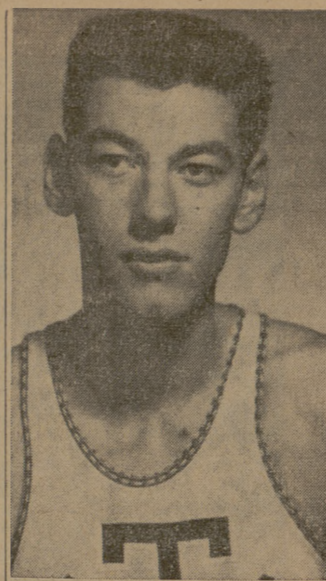

Tomorrow the Ags will travel to Huntsville to play the game with Sam Houston that was canceled last week because of bad weather.

Bonorden Wins at Olympics; Golfers Take Second Place

Texas University repeated as champion of the Border Olympics Saturday in a meet that saw the records fall, including a 14-1/4 pole vault by David Clark of North Texas State.

The discus record held by an Aggie, George Kadera, was broken by Bobby Weise of Houston with a toss of 167-9.

Houston finished second, Abilene Christian College was third and Baylor fourth.

Although the Aggie team didn't place, several top performances were turned in by the members.

Henry Bonorden, Port Lavaca senior shot putter, turned in his finest effort of the season and tossed the weight 53-11/4. It was Bonorden second straight win for the season.

Owen Hill of Dallas, Southwest conference discus champ, topped his previous season high with a throw of 158-3/4, but only managed to take third.

Newton Lamb of Houston finished third in the javelin with a toss of 192-6 1/2 and Bobby Thomas of Dallas tied for fourth in the high jump with a 6-1 1/2 leap.

The Cindermen will make their next appearance next Saturday when they travel to Shreveport, La. for the Shreveport Relays.

The Aggie golfers placed second behind the NCAA Champion Houston Cougars at Laredo in the 72-hole medal play affair. A&M had a four-player total of 1158 to 1144 for Houston. Texas Tech was third with 1170 while North Texas was fourth with 1177. Houston was eight under par for the 72 holes while the Aggies were six over par.

Two sophomores for A&M, John Lively Jr. of Athens and Dickie Doble of Galveston, tied the Border Olympics 18-hole record with six-under par 66s.

Doble was low man for A&M with a one-under par 287 which gave him fourth place. Other Aggies were Johnny Johnson of Harlingen, 289; Billy Martindale, Jacksonville junior, and Lively, 291 each and Jim Fetters, Port Arthur sophomore, 308. Al Jones of Harlingen, only senior on the team, registered a 54-hole total of 220, 4-over par, and was forced to withdraw because of illness for the final 18-hole round.

Ags Begin Final Week of Workouts

Despite inclement weather during the first three weeks of workouts spring football at Aggie land has brought a note of optimism to Coach Jim Myers and his staff.

The Aggies wind up spring training Saturday night with a regular Maroon and White intrasquad game beginning at 7. Admission will be $1 and will include the practice baseball game between A&M and Rice at 2 p.m. on Kyle field.

The Aggies plan four grid workouts this week with the 17th practice date set for Thursday evening. The squad will not work Friday in preparation for the final game Saturday.

Coach Myers will divide his squad as equally "as we know how" and predicts a real "interesting and closely-fought game."

Myers also has divided his staff for the final game on Kyle field. Willie Zapalac, aided by Tom Ellis and Bobby Drake Keith, will head the Maroons while Elmer Smith, assisted by Matt Lair, Travis Hughes and Billy Wade, will be in charge of the White squad.

Jerry Hopkins, sophomore center from Mart, suffered a knee injury in practice last week and will miss the remainder of the spring drills.

Another position change was made last week as Bob Caskey of Gonzales was switched from left halfback to right half and was one of the outstanding backs in a scrimmage session Saturday afternoon.

Other players who have been showing up well include Fullbacks LeeRoy Caffey of Thorndale, Sam Byers of Marlin and Bob Lindley of Del Rio; Ronnie Ledbetter, right half from Dalhart; Tackle Wayne Freiling of San Antonio; Guard Wayne Labar of Harlingen and End Russell Hill of Dallas.

Swimmers Prepare For Lubbock Meet

A 13-man Aggie swimming team will enter the Southwest Conference championships at Lubbock this weekend, according to Coach Art Adomson.

The Aggies will be headed by all-American backstroke John Harrington of College Station.

Others include Oscar Cordon, breaststroke, Guatemala; Orlando Cossani, breaststroke, Uruguay; James CoVan, butterfly, Bryan; Bill Crenshaw, backstroke, Westlake; Hondo Hernandez, breaststroke, Waco; John McKinney, freestyle, Houston; Ronnie Reitz, freestyle, Pittsburg, Texas; James Roberts, freestyle, Refugio; Charles Teas, diver, Houston; Bob Timme, breaststroke, Victoria; Dieter Ufer, breaststroke, Houston and Dave Woodward, butterfly, Houston.

A&M has beaten Rice and Texas Tech this winter and lost to SMU and Texas. Last year the Aggies finished third behind SMU and

Broussard, Lawrence Make All-Conference Cage Squad

Carroll Broussard, Aggie cage ace, has been named to the All-Southwest Conference team.

Broussard is one of the few sophomores ever to make the team and only missed being unanimous by one vote. He was also chosen to the honorable mention All-American team.

Teammate Wayne Lawrence was also chosen for the second team. This was Lawrence's second time on the honor team as he drew a first birth last year.

Other members of the first team were Jay Arnette of Texas, Max Williams of SMU, Carroll Dawson of Baylor, Clyde Rhoden of Arkansas and Steve Strange of SMU. Rhoden and Strange tied for fifth place.

Records Fell
The Aggie basketball team, matching the most wins in school history, broke 11 records and tied another as the squad finished with a 19-5 season mark.

Coach Bob Rogers' Cadets, tying SMU for second in the Southwest conference with a 10-4 mark, recorded the most wins for an A&M team since the 1920 team hung up a 19-0 record. The losses were the fewest for an Aggie team since the 1939 squad had a 17-5 record.

Broussard established three new marks, tied another and became the school's first 400-point scorer with his 440 points that gave him a 17.9 points per game average.

Broussard's new marks include most points in a season, most points in conference games for a season (244) and most field goals in one season (152). He tied an existing record of 11 field goals in one conference game.

As a team the Aggies established eight new marks for points scored in one season, conference season, single game, conference game and for field goals in season, conference and conference game.

Broussard almost certainly will

Successful Fish

Coach Shelby Metcalf's Aggie freshman basketball team finished its season at Baylor last week with a 10-2 record—one of the finest in school annals.

The Aggies split with Kilgore Junior College and the TCU Wogs and won two games each from Tyler JC, and frosh teams from Baylor, Rice, and Texas.

Lewis Qualls, 7-0 center from Houston, led the Fish in scoring with 147 points and a 12.3 average while Jerry Windham, 6-7 forward from Hamilton, was second in scoring with an 11.9 average and led in rebounds with 110.

Jimmy Cobb of Buna was third in scoring with a 10.3 mark followed by Chairlie Minor of Pampa with 9.7.

Minor, 5-11 play-maker and a leader who will play lots of ball for the varsity next season, was injured much of the year with a bad knee. He played in but seven of the 12 games.

Rogers will count heavily next year on Minor, Qualls and Windham. These three are the leading Fish candidates for the varsity next year and will join such current varsity players as Carroll Broussard of Port Arthur, Don and Pat Stanley of Buna and Wayne Annett of Chicago.
