

Cadets, Raiders Meet Here Today

Aggie baseballers take on Texas Tech today in Kyle Field at 3 p.m., hoping to even their score in the win-loss column.

After Tuesday's loss to Houston, the Cadets stand 3-4 for the season, however, one of their victories was over SMU to give them one win in conference play.

Tech's record is perfect, but they have only played two games this year. They have beaten West Texas State 18-8 and 17-11.

The Ags are in top shape physically with the exception of Don Davis, shortstop, who injured his knee in the conference opener with SMU.

Don Costlow, David Pitcock and Olen Jordan will probably make up the mound staff for the Aggies.

Charles Flanagan is slated to start on the mound for the Red Raiders. Del Ray Mounts, who gained recognition on the basketball court earlier this year, is also a top pitcher and boasted a 4-0 record as a freshman last year.

The Ags have been packing a little more punch at the plate in the last two games and have brought their team batting average to .250. Henry Batten is at the top of the list with his .500 followed by Dink Patterson's .400.

Most of the starters have pulled above the .200 mark which is a marked improvement over last week's count. J. B. Carroll is still having his problems at the plate, but will get a chance to come up in today's game.

Talking It Over

Freshman pitcher, Ed Singley, and Bill Puckett, catcher, talk over the situation in yesterday's practice session. They could be talking about baseball or what's going on at home since they are both from Oklahoma City. Ed also has a brother, Jack, who is the Frosh's third sacker.

Farmers Entered In Swimming Meet

The Aggies will take to the water for the last meet of the year tomorrow as they travel to SMU for the NCAA swimming meet.

The Ags are entered in the medley relay race as well as several individual events.

John Harrington, Orlando Cossani, Dieter Ufer and Ronald Reitz will compose the relay team.

Charles Teas is entered in diving and Oscar Cordon is competing in the breast stroke.

Harrington will enter the individual backstroke; Cossani and Ufer will try the individual breast stroke; and Reitz is in the free style.

The Aggies finished third in conference play this year behind SMU and Texas.

Coach Art Adamson said he was well pleased with the swimmers' efforts this year and they showed a lot of desire. Adamson hadn't expected to take more than third at the conference meet, but he said the points scored were much higher than he expected.

The Dallas meet will feature colleges from all over the nation with California, Yale, Indiana and Michigan University being the top contenders for the winning honors.

Adamson cited Harrington as the Cadets' top contender to place. Harrington is an All-American and was the eighth man in a group of six qualifiers last year.

This year's crop of freshmen were productive as individuals, but the loss of two members at mid-term hurt their chances.

Tennis Teams To Enter Rice Tourney

Six varsity and two freshman tennis players at A&M will compete in the Rice Invitational Tennis tournament at Houston this weekend.

Coach Omar Smith announced he will enter the following men on the varsity: Frank Blazek of Elizabeth, N. J., Jerry Foster of Baytown, Richard Halter of Baytown, Bob Jones of Garland, David Knox of Greenville and Tommy Morris of Waco.

Freshman entries are Jerry Cox of Palo Alto, Calif. and Bill Miller of Coronado, Calif.

A&M hosts Trinity here Tuesday, March 29.
