

90 Chapters To Compete In FFA Here

Approximately 600 Future Farmers of America students from 90 chapters will compete in the annual Area 3 FFA Judging Contest here April 9.

Dr. J. R. Jackson, associate professor in the Department of Agricultural Education and program chairman, said judging teams will compete in six events. These include livestock, dairy cattle, poultry, meats, dairy products and lamb judging.

Judging starts at 8 a.m. and results will be announced at 2 p.m. in Guion Hall. A&M sponsors the contests each year.

Jackson said the winners of Area 3 will compete in the state championship contest April 30. Lester Buford of Houston is supervisor of Area 3, which covers 21 counties in the Houston area.
