

Fish, Varsity Entered In Annual TU Relays

A 27-man track and field delegation will represent A&M at the Texas Relays in Austin Friday and Saturday.

Coach Charles Thomas will enter 13 varsity and 14 freshmen in the annual classic this weekend. The varsity will compete in seven events while the Fish will enter the same number.

Best chances for high finishes will be Henry Bonorden of Port Lavaca in the shot put, Owen Hill of Dallas in the discus, Newton Lamb of Houston in the javelin, all varsity performers and the freshmen sprinters who will enter 440 relay. This latter group is composed of Curt Roberts of Carlsbad, N. M., Ed Williams of Jena, La., Frank Kent of Houston and George Tedford of Shreveport.

Bonorden has been the big surprise for Thomas this spring as he consistently has topped 54 feet and shows promise of hitting 55 feet before the year is out.

After taking time out for the Texas Relays this week the Aggies resume their triangular track and field competition at Dallas April 8 and 9 against Rice and SMU.

The Aggies finished second behind Baylor and ahead of the Owls in a 3-way meet here last Friday. The Aggies have finished second in three meets this spring and third another time.

SPORT SLANT S

By JOE CALICOATTE

Since yesterday's column dealt with some of the Aggies' past greats, it is only fair to recognize the potentiality of the present and what is to come in athletics at A&M.

Freshmen teams have been promising this year at A&M. Although they only won one game last fall, the Fish football team turned up with some of the most prime varsity prospects in spring drills. Also Coach Jim Myers said that the spring practice was the best he had witnessed while he has been here.

The Frosh basketball team racked up one of the best records in several years last season as they only lost two games. They were blessed with the necessary speed and height that has been scarce on the Aggie hardwoods. Although the varsity would be in fair shape with last year's leftovers, they will probably welcome the sight of next year's sophomores.

Right now we're in the thick of track and baseball and it's hard to tell what will happen, however, looking to the future will find that the freshman track team has an above average amount of talent and the frosh baseballers are setting a stiff pace with their 3-0 record.

Tigers Sweep Net Crown

Paced by a clean sweep in the senior division, the A&M Consolidated netters of Coach Horace Schaffer capped their fourth consecutive 21-AA crown, and their second straight clean sweep in the District meet at Blinn College in Brenham Tuesday.

Jody Rush took the boys singles with a 6-0, 6-0 win over Navasota and 6-3, 6-2 decisions over Bellville. Joe Olian and Bob Adams took the doubles by defeating Bellville 6-4, -1 and Cy-Fair 6-1, 6-1.

In girls play, Pam Sperry took out Navasota 6-1, 6-0 and Cy-Fair 6-0, 6-2 while Anne Rudder and Lynda Chalk were downing Bellville 6-2, 4-6, 6-4 and Cy-Fair 6-0, 4-6, 6-2 in doubles play.

The Junior Division found Billy Bostick falling to Navasota 0-6,

7-5, 2-6. Joe Joyer and Jim Mills won their rounds 6-1, 6-1 over Navasota and 6-0, 6-0 over Bellville. Margaret Thames was defeated by Navasota 0-6, 2-6 while Judy Morgan and Eleanor Worley dropped an 0-6, 5-7 decision to Navasota.

The Tigers' 71 point day led the 21-AA parade, with Cy-Fair capturing 30 points, Bellville 18, Navasota 13 and Humble 0. In elementary competition Mike Lionheart and Bob Jones-Lawrence Stelly won by default while Claire Elkins beat Bellville 6-2, 6-3.

Thursday the Bengals meet Conroe on the Tiger courts beginning at 3:30 p.m. before journeying to the Lufkin Invitational this weekend.
