

Stag Barbecue To Welcome Seniors Into Association of Former Students

The seventh annual stag barbecue honoring the class of 1960 will be held May 5 at the Grove. The barbecue is sponsored annually by the Association of Former Students for members of the senior class who will graduate in June, August or January, 1961.

Several beef steers, barbecued by Roy Snyder, will be served with all the trimmings.

The senior class will be welcomed officially as members of the Association.

Tickets for the function may be obtained as follows: Corps seniors in 1st Wing, Allen Burns; 2nd Wing, Stanley Wied; 1st Brigade, Ray Murski; 2nd Brigade, Wayne Schneider and Band, Sam Langley. Civilian seniors may obtain tickets from their dormitory presidents and apartment seniors from any of their co-presidents.

Tickets may also be picked up at the main desk in the MSC. Former Students Association offices in the MSC or the office of W. G. Breazeale, 1-H Puryear.

Argentine Navy Officer Gives Antarctic Talk

The Antarctic Continent is about 21 times the size of Texas and generally round in shape, Capt. Luis R. A. Capurro of the Argentine Navy, told attendees at the 13th annual conference for Protective Relay Engineers held recently at A&M.

The land area of Texas is 263,513 square miles, according to the Texas Almanac of 1958-59.

The Argentine Navy captain is a research scientist in the Department of Oceanography and Meteorology. He received his M.S. degree from the University of California, Scripps Institute of Oceanography, in 1949.

Capt. Capurro was the banquet speaker and he said that the Antarctic Continent is the only place in the world where the Atlantic, Pacific and Indian oceans meet. He pointed out that a continuous study is going on to determine the thickness of the ice in that region.

He showed color slides of pictures taken during the cruise of the Argentine icebreaker General San Martin in December, 1957 — March, 1958, to the Antarctic region.

Yours?
This airplane is actually a flying classroom. The course taught in it is Air Navigation, under real conditions. The students are young men who have been selected as possible future leaders of the Aerospace Team. Graduation after 32 weeks of training will win each of the students the honored silver wings of an Air Force Navigator and an Officer's Commission.

For certain young men, this training can open the way to a bright career of executive potential. Right now the Air Force is scoring impressive technological advances in the fields of navigation, guidance and tracking, electronics and radar. And here is where its highly trained and experienced Navigators will be expected to take over command positions of increasing responsibility.

To qualify for Navigator training as an Aviation Cadet, you must be between 19 and 26½—single, healthy and intelligent. And you must want to build an exciting, interesting career in the Aerospace Age. If you think you measure up, we'd like to talk to you at the nearest Air Force Recruiting Office. # ECONOMY PROVED IN MOBILGAS RUN!

CORVAIR BY CHEVROLET DRIVE IT! GET OUR DEAL!!!!

A pair of Corvairs recently recorded 27.03 and 26.21 miles per gallon in the 2,061.4-mile Mobilgas Economy Run. That's certified proof that Corvair skimps on gas costs. It saves other ways, too. Corvair is the only U. S. compact car that never needs antifreeze or costly radiator repairs. Come in and drive the compact car that outdoes them all.

Things Corvair gives you that America's other compact cars can't:
Practically flat floor . . . real foot room for the man in the middle. Fold-down rear seat gives 17.6 cu. ft. of extra storage space. Four-wheel independent suspension for a smoother, flatter ride. Rear-engine traction . . . that comes with the engine's weight bearing down on the rear wheels.
You probably realize already that the mileage figures Corvairs recorded in the Mobilgas Run are higher than the average driver can expect. But because the cars met every kind of driving condition—rugged mountain grades, long country straightaways, congested city traffic—those mileage figures prove Corvair's inherent ability to save. Operating costs take a nose dive the day you take delivery of a Corvair.
