

Freshmen Rally Over Ramblers, 9-3 To Record Eighth Victory of Season

A late inning hitting spree by the Aggie Fish, carried them past the Allen Academy Ramblers 9-3, on Kyle Field Thursday afternoon. The Ramblers jumped to a 1-0 lead in the fourth on a double by Loyd Sheffield and a single by Leburn Hermann. They added another run in the top of the sixth on Jessie Johnson's homer over the left field fence. Then the bottom fell out for Allen as Thurman Parrish, after holding the Fish to only two hits the first five innings, began to tire. Roy Hall doubled, Bill Musemeche singled, and a walk was issued to Oliver Aldrich. W. C. Brewster replaced Parrish on the mound and was greeted by two more singles before he could retire the Aggies.

The Fish came back in the seventh by scoring three more runs on a walk, a single and Musemeche's home run over the center field fence. Roy Hall's homer in the bottom of the eighth accounted for the other two runs.

Both Musemeche and Hall went 3-5 at the plate and each had a homer and a double. Musemeche started the game with a .457 batting average.

Jerry Warren struck out nine and received credit for his fifth win this season compared to no defeats.

Winner Takes It Marvin H. Butler, faculty advisor for the Memorial Student Center Bowling Committee, looks over some of the awards that will be given away in the 10th Annual Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament to be held on Saturday and Sunday.

Annual Bowling Tournament Scheduled During Weekend

The 10th annual A&M Intercollegiate Invitational Bowling Tournament will take place at the Memorial Student Center April 23 and 24.

The tournament will start at 8 a.m., Saturday and will end at 5 p.m. Sunday.

Twenty-four teams, representing 18 colleges, will compete for team champion, all events, doubles and singles awards. High series and high game awards will also be presented.

Ags 1959 Champs

The defending 1959 champion Texas Aggies will be hosts to SMU, Baylor, Texas Tech, Oklahoma State, San Antonio College, Blinn College, Lamar Tech, Northeastern Louisiana State, Rice Institute, Victoria College, Arlington State, University of Dallas, University of Texas, Southwestern Texas State, West Texas State, Lee College, Stephen F. Austin and Delmar College.

The tournament is sponsored by the Bowling Committee of the Memorial Student Center. John Poina, '62, of Houston, is the chairman of this committee and Francis Nivers, '61, of Waco, is the tournament director.

Last September, the Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference was created through the efforts of the A&M Bowling Committee as a fore-runner of such an NCAA-sanctioned conference.

Expansion in Sight

Six colleges participate in this conference. Participation may be enlarged to eight for the 1960-61 year, Počina says. The conference has met five times this year, with each college being the host once in a three 3-game series match.

On May 7, the final meet will take place at the Hart Bowl in Dallas, starting at 9 a.m. SMU will be host at this meet, which will terminate with the presentation of trophies to the winning team and individual bowlers.

The Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference has received the sanction of the American Bowling Congress.

In addition to its participation in the TIBC, A&M has bowled against Rice Institute, Blinn College and Lamar Tech in home-and-home matches.

12 Aggie Lettermen

Twelve Aggies have lettered this year. The lettermen are Larry Dantzer and Gerald Bullington, Dallas; Frank Pearce and Eddy Autry, Corpus Christi; John Počina and Jerry Reynolds, Houston; Larry Peabody and Robert S. Harris, San Antonio; Al Rainosek, El Campo; Parks Mahaney, Ft. Worth; Milt Rasmussen, College Station and David Adams, LaPorte.

Farmers Host Horned Frogs

The Texas Christian Horned Frogs arrived in College Station today for two game series with the Cadets that will put both teams well on the road to ending the season.

In the first meeting of the two teams at Fort Worth the Frogs edged the Ags, 5-4, in a 10 inning affair.

So far the Frogs have the edge on the Aggies in conference play as they have managed two wins compared to the Cadets lone victory against SMU in the opener.

The Aggies have had a short rest from conference competition as they traveled to San Antonio over the Easter Holidays for two games with Brooke Medics and a game with St. Mary's. They split with the Medics and fell to St. Mary's, 4-3.

Ags Raise Averages

The Cadets have raised their batting averages in the last few conference outings. John Burton and David Pitcock are leading the batting with .400 marks.

Johnny Hudson, Henry Batten and Don Davis, who was injured in the first conference game, each are hitting .333 in league play.

Byron Barber is the only regular who is hitting .300 for the season. All the others are below him and three are hitting less than .200.

Three pitchers have carried most of the load for the Cadets. Olen Jordan has recorded the only conference win, but has two losses charged to him. Both Don Costlow and David Pitcock have lost two games.

In other activity around the conference Texas downed Brooke Medics, 5-3, in a practice game to boast their winning streak to 10.

All teams in the conference are slated for action this weekend. Texas, with a 6-1 loop record plays Rice, 4-2, in Houston. SMU who is 4-3 in conference play goes to Waco for a tilt with the Baylor Bears who stand 3-3.

First Soccer Meet Slated

A&M's first intercollegiate Soccer Tournament will be held Sunday, two blocks south of G. Rollie White Coliseum at 1 p.m., as part of the Pan American festivities scheduled for next week.

The soccer team, which has advanced to the finals in the Houston City Cup Soccer Tournament, will host Baylor University, University of Houston and Lamar Tech in Sunday's tournament.

The Ags' toughest competitors will be the Houston Cougars, who are the defending state champions.

A barbecue for the participating players, at which the winning team will be presented a trophy, will be held at 6 p.m. in Hensel Park. This event is for players and invited guests only.

This is a good opportunity for A&M students to watch first rate soccer playing.

Tigers Slated for District Action in Navasota Today

By RUSSELL BROWN CHS Correspondent

The Navasota Rattlers entertain the A&M Consolidated Tigers on Rattler Field at 4 p.m. today in an important District 21-AA contest.

Coach Edsel Jones' Tigers are seeking their fourth straight District crown and already have one win under their belts, a 4-2 decision over Bellville. Navasota will be trying to escape their perennial cellar-dwelling spot in 21-AA this year after slumping to the bottom in almost every sport over the past few seasons.

Coach Jones will go with Vic Clark or Johnny Williams on the mound with Bob Laurensen behind the plate. Ben Jackson will be at first, Russell Welch at second, Kelly Parker at short and Mike Denison at third. P. D. Gandy, Bill Haley and Williams or Clark will complete the outfield.
