

Ags Win SWC Golf Title

With a little help from Arkansas the Aggie golf team won its first Southwest Conference golf championship since 1948 Saturday as they scored a 5-1 victory over the Rice Owls and the Hogs tied with Baylor, 3-3.

The 1960 championship is only the third time in the history of the school that A&M has come out on top. Besides winning in 1948 the Aggies were first in 1927. A&M completed its round-robin team match play with 28 1/2 winning points and 13 1/2 losses.

Both golf and track scores will be compiled in the final tabulation for Corps Championship, the winner receiving the intramural flag Final Review.

By JOE CALICOATTE

The Cadet baseball team will close out their home season this weekend as they meet the Baylor Bears Friday and Saturday.

At this stage of the game last year the Cadets were right in the midst of winning the Southwest Conference, but this year, mainly because of their pitching staff losses as well as various other difficulties, have only won a lone game in conference play.

However, a losing team deserves as much support as a winning one and they could use some extra backing in the last home games this weekend. It will probably be the last chance to see the team in action this year and the students at A&M should be in the bleachers at Kyle Field this weekend to spur the battle weary Aggies along.

Sure, the Kyle Field bleachers are pretty ragged and sometimes uncomfortable, but the players feel more uncomfortable when they are out on the field playing for a hand full of spectators.

This time last year when the Cadets were in the running for the conference championship it was common to see the stands full as the spectator counts ran into the five figure numbers.

The games usually last until 5 or 6 p. m. and there is time to see a couple of innings before chow time.

Richard Inman, Belton High School's ace athlete, has brought some more track honors for his team.

Inman had already won the state schoolboy shot put honors in the meet last week and went on to set a Texas record at the San Antonio Invitational last weekend. He threw the sphere 60-1 1/2 which bettered the record of Darrow Hooper, former A&M star.

Inman was an All-State and All-American end on the Belton football team last year and showed intentions of coming to A&M, but decided yesterday to attend Baylor, according to the Waco Herald Tribune.

Double Threat

It would be hard on the batters to face both of these pitchers at the same time, but there are rules against it. Don Costlow, on the left, and Gary Priddy have done a lot of regular pitching for the Farmers this year as well as relief work in several games. They are getting ready for the last home games Friday and Saturday with Baylor.

Weather Halts Consolidated; Cy-Fair Visits Here Today

By RUSSELL BROWN
CHS Correspondent

The A&M Consolidated Tigers and the Navasota Rattlers were forced to postpone their scheduled Friday tilt on Tiger Field because of rain. The contest, an important 21-AA fracas, will be played after the Tigers and Rattlers complete their regular season schedule if the game has a bearing on the league title.

The Tigers hope to get back on the baseball warpath this afternoon on the same muddy Tiger Field against the Cy-Fair Bobcats, but things look doubtful as to Tiger Field's playing condition.

Steers Take Two For SWC Lead

Associated Press

The Texas Longhorns all but sewed up the Southwest Conference baseball championship Saturday by sweeping a doubleheader from Texas Christian.

The Steers pounded the hapless Frogs, 17-1 and 13-2, while second-place Rice was splitting a twin bill with Baylor. Rice took the opener, 1-0, but faded in the finale and fell, 4-3.

Texas now holds a 2 1/2-game lead over the Owls, and leads third-place Southern Methodist by three. The Longhorns are 9-2, Rice is 6-4 and SMU is 5-4.
