

Practice Makes Perfect

The Cadet golf team won the conference with the putter in this shot. The rest of championship, but it still takes plenty of practice if they hope to win the SWC match in Fort Worth. Johnny Johnson is the man

A&M Plays Host To Baylor In Pair Of Weekend Contests

A&M's baseball team entertains the Baylor Bears in a pair of games on Kyle Field this weekend that will round out the home season for the Cadets.

In the first meeting of the two teams this year, the Ags were downed by the Bruins, 7-5.

Bears Improved
Tuesday the Bears knocked Rice from an undisputed second place as they won, 5-4, in 13 innings.

While the Bears have been finishing strong the Ags have won only one conference game and that was against Southern Methodist in the conference opener.

Olen Jordan, who got credit for the Cadet's lone win, is tabbed for starting duties in Friday's game.

Besides Jordan's win he has also collected three losses for the season.

Either Don Costlow, David Pitcock or Dick Hickerson will draw round duties for the Saturday game. Costlow and Pitcock both have two losses charged to them. Hickerson, a converted first sacker, has been doing a considerable amount of relief for the Aggies and boast the best ERA with a 1.48 and has no losses charged to him.

Ag Hitting Weak

Only two regulars are hitting over the .300 mark in conference play for the Cadets. Byron Barber has a .344 in nine games and in six games David Pitcock has a

.429. As a team the Farmers are averaging only .216 in the hitting department.

Last Home Game for Seniors
Four seniors will be playing their last home game for the Cadets this weekend. They are Don Chase of Houston, Bill Houchin of Shreveport, La., Dink Patterson of Dallas and J. B. Carroll of College Station.

Friday's game starts at 3 p.m. and Saturday's game begins at 2 p.m.

New Hampshire enjoyed its last winning football campaign in 1954 when the team lost only one of eight games.

Dallas Fans Get Game Each Week

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dallas football fans won't have to leave town to see at least one game each week except in one instance next fall.

The Cotton Bowl turf never before will have taken such a beating. Over a period of five months 22 games will be played there. The State Fair of Texas, which gets 15 per cent rental, should make enough to retire about every bond.

New Leagues

The reason for so much football is the formation of the American Football League and the moving in of a club in the National Football League.

The Dallas Texans are the AFL entry. The Dallas Cowboys represent the NFL.

The first game on the schedule is Aug. 5 when the all-stars of the Texas Coaching School have at it in the big saucer. Aug. 19 the Cowboys play the Baltimore Colts in an exhibition and Sept. 2 the Texans engage the Houston Oilers of the AFL. There is a three week skip until the next game—Dallas Cowboys vs. Pittsburgh Steelers Sept. 24. From then on, except for one week in October, there will be at least one game each week.

There are three Friday games, seven Saturday and 11 for Sunday. And there's also one on Monday—the Cotton Bowl classic, which this time will be on a Monday because Jan 1 falls on Sunday.

Six College Games Slated

Six college games are sandwiched in between the numerous professional contests. The Texas-Oklahoma game is Oct. 8, Southern Methodist and Rice play Oct. 15, Southern Methodist and Texas A&M Nov. 5, Southern Methodist and Baylor Nov. 19 and Southern Methodist and Texas Christian Nov. 26. The Jan. 2 Cotton Bowl game will, of course, be between two colleges but nobody has any idea what colleges they will be and won't know until late November.

Intramurals

A mistake was made last week in reporting Class A softball semifinals. Co. A-1 defeated Co. F-1 in the semi-finals and went on to defeat Co. G-2 in the finals by a 3-2 championship win. Billy Gressett was the winning pitcher and Frank Fitzgerald took the loss for G-2.

In intramural golf, the White Band and Sq. 10, and Co. F-1 and Sq. 12 reached the semi-finals.

Pictures of intramural championship teams will be made in DeWare Field House at 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Junior Class Captures First In Consolidated Sports Day

By RUSSELL BROWN
CHS Correspondent

With a surge to place first, second and fourth in the final event, A&M Consolidated's junior class capped the annual Sports Day Friday in connection with the annual spring elections.

On top by a meager 1/2 point with boys' sit-ups and the mile bicycle race remaining, the Class of '61 outpointed the fish in the sit-ups and then sat back and watched Bob Adams, John Pedigo and George Outlaw capture places in the open event to garner the top spot.

The freshmen had a wide margin over their opponents in first places, but the placing power of the juniors gave them the victory. The sophomores were able to get only one first place in the 34-event field as the sophs brought up the rear. The juniors had 116 2/5 points to the freshmen's 106 7/10 while the seniors took third with 95 1/2 and the sophs managed only 45 1/2 tallies.

The seniors, paced by District 21-AA track man Dee Smith, jumped off to a quick margin in the high jump and broad jump. Boys' push-ups and bottle sucking nudged the juniors into the lead they never lost.

The seniors picked up the biggest sweep of the day with a nine point total in the mile run, though minus State Miler Bruce Thompson who is slated to run Friday in Austin. The juniors took a nine-point play in the bicycle race, with the freshmen doing likewise in girls' softball throw.

Besides the usual track and field events, three- and four-legged races, sack races, a girls' ping-pong throw, wheelbarrow and backward races, boy-girl medley relays and bottle sucking events were offered. Points were awarded on a 5-3-2-1 basis, with Coaches Ed Logan and Art Bright running the show.

The win meant that the Juniors' Sports Day queen nominee, Wagona Garrett, will be crowned at the Sports Dance to be held Friday. Miss Garrett will reign until Sports Day next year.

Fish Golf Team To Compete In Tri-Meet With Rice, Texas

The freshman golf team will match strokes against the Rice and Texas freshman golf teams Saturday morning at 11 on the A&M Golf Course, according to Coach Henry Ransom.

The Fish have entered two tournaments this year, taking first place in Meadowbrook Invitational Tournament in Fort Worth and third place in the Medal Play Houston Invitational Tournament.

Both the Owlets and the Short-horns will bring five-men teams to compete at the A&M Golf Course Saturday morning. The team representing the Aggies will be made up of Eugene Byrd, Jerry Adams, Harry Hoskins, Jr., Ralph Johnson and Jerry Frank. Playing a ladder-tournament among themselves, the Fish team presently shows Hoskins in first place, Johnston in second, Byrd occupying third place, Adams in the fourth-place slot and Frank in the number five spot.

The varsity team, who has recently won the Southwest Conference championship, will be appearing on television Saturday at 5:30 p.m. over Channel 6, on the Dove King Show, according to Coach Ransom. Those appearing on the show will be Billy Martindale, John Lively, Al Jones, Johnny Johnston, Dickie Duple and Coach Ransom.
