

Bowling League Grants Options In Dallas Meeting

DALLAS (AP)—The National Professional Bowling League closed out a three-day meeting Thursday night by granting 30-day options to interests seeking franchises for San Diego, Calif., Tucson or Phoenix, Ariz., and Fresno, Calif.

This meant league officials could leave Dallas knowing they have 10 franchises ready to open in 1961, and six others appear ready to exercise options.

Cities owning franchises are Los Angeles, Chicago, Fort Worth, Houston, Omaha, San Antonio, Detroit, Miami, Atlanta and Dallas.

Prior to the final session, the league awarded options to Denver, Minneapolis-St. Paul and Birmingham, Ala.

Under the present setup, League Chairman Leonard Homel, owner of the Los Angeles franchise, said the league now has the 16 teams it desires for operating if all options are exercised.

Club owners looked forward to July 18-20 when the league will stage its first player-draft in Omaha.

By AL VELA
Battalion Staff Writer

The Aggie Fish will meet the Baylor Cubs Saturday afternoon at 2 in Waco and will be looking for their ninth win of the season.

In their last meeting the Fish combined the pitching of Jerry Warren and Ed Singley and 14 hits for a 9-2 victory over the Cubs.

Left fielder Bill Musemeche will be the leading hitter going into the game Saturday with a whopping .475 per cent in 40 times at bat. He will be followed by second baseman Jerry Carter, who boasts a .424 per cent in 33 trips to the plate.

Musemeche has collected 19 singles, seven doubles and two home runs. One of the home runs was collected in their last game against Allen Academy.

Leading the field in the run-batted-in department is shortstop Terry Cobb, who, with two home runs and a double to his credit has a total of 11 for the season. Following closely with eight RBI's to their credit are Ray Hall and Musemeche, with Bill Puckett running a close third with seven RBI's.

The Fish will go into their game with a very respectable .291 batting average, compared to their opponents' .190 per cent. They have left 70 men on base as compared

Consolidated Tigers Fighting For First

By RUSSELL BROWN
CHS Correspondent

The A&M Consolidated Tigers fight to keep in the District 21-AA baseball race this afternoon when they play host to the Navasota Rattlers in a make-up of a rained-out contest.

The Tigers' original schedule called for the Bengals to travel to Bellville, but conflicts at Bellville and the need to make up the Rattler tilt brought about the trade in games. The Tigers will meet the Brahmas Tuesday.

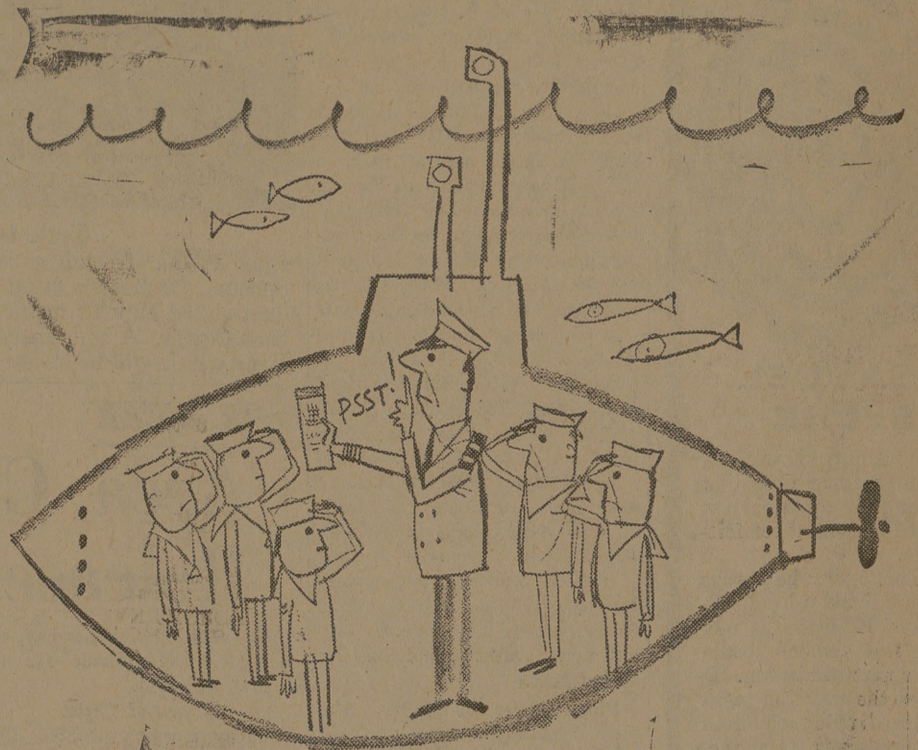

Bellville's Big Red sits atop of the 21-AA ladder with a record of 4-1 with a lone tilt remaining, while the Tigers are snapping at their heels with a 3-1 count and two games left. Cy-Fair and Navasota have been eliminated from competition as the Bobcats are 2-3 and the Rattlers 0-4. Humble does not field a baseball nine.

The Tigers also hope to up their record to the .500 mark again, as the Maroon and White has a 7-8 season record, but had been taking the one-run decisions of late until the 7-6 loss to Cy-Fair.

Coach Jones will go with right-hander Vic Clark (7-5) on the mound. Clark is seeking his sixth victory in seven tries, having worked 71 innings for an ERA of 3.35 and 124 strikeouts. Behind the plate will be Condy Pugh (.333) or Bob Laurensen (.125). Pugh caught his first high school tilt last Tuesday. Ben Jackson (.395) will be at first, Russell Welch (.182) will be at second, with Kelly Parker (.174) and Mike Denison (.148) rounding out the infield.

Bill Haley will start in left, sporting a .260 average, while Frank Hagler (.130) and P. D. Gandy (.270) fill the remaining outfield posts.
