

Houston Ranks Among Top Boxing Centers

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

An exciting young fighter named Paul Jorgenson made Houston in- to one of the top boxing centers of the country.

The Port Arthur youth showed enough ability that he landed in the rankings almost immediately and he put on a good show. So the people became interested and the Texas Boxing Enterprise was on the road to the big money.

Texas Boxing Enterprise

It was in 1955 that Ralph Smith, now the promoter at Dallas, started Texas Boxing Enterprise. It grew by leaps and bounds and attracted a skillful manager of fighters like Lou Viscusi to Houston. Viscusi developed Roy Harris and Cleveland Williams and he took Joe Brown, the lightweight champion, under his wing.

In 1957 a fight between Harris and Willie Pastrano drew $45,962.50 and Texas Boxing Enterprise was on its way.

It's amazing what fights have drawn in Houston in the past three years. Eight of the shows grossed $413,876. The all-time high for Texas boxing came recently when Sonny Liston met Roy Harris and $70,200 went into the treasury.

Giant View TV closed circuit got interested and has presented two shows. The last one reached 10 cities other than Houston. Some of the places didn't draw too well but it was only because the people hadn't become acquainted with it. They're planning another on June 7 and the advertising from the last one should make this one pay off handsomely.

The way they operate it is like this: a fight is staged at Houston that's piped onto a screen in the other town's auditorium. It is the main event of the boxing show there. Local bouts are staged as semi-final events.

Joe Brown, the little Baton Rouge Negro, has been one of the reasons for the success of boxing in Houston. He couldn't fight in his native state because of the law forbidding interracial sports but he could fight in Texas and he sure did. First he met Ralph Dupas and the house was $68,740—the Texas record to that time. Then he fought Kenny Lane and the record was broken when the draw was $69,203.50. Both of these title fights were in 1958.

In 1959 Brown battled Johnny Busso and $61,175 went into the till. Next he took on Dave Char- ley of England. This fight drew only $37,000 because it's difficult to build up a fight when a foreigner is in it, especially one that the people know little about.

This year to date there have been two fights. First—and it marked the advent of closed TV—Cleveland Williams got himself knocked out by Liston but $43,558.50 flowed in. Then Harris put himself up as a punching bag for Liston and the new record gate showed up.

That same night they took care of an overflow crowd in Houston by putting a closed TV show at another auditorium.

Back in 1955 when Jorgenson was getting Houston into boxing's big time, he fought a couple of bouts that drew $13,963 and $10,099.25 respectively. At the time those were considered big stuff because fighting in Texas never had done too well. Even two previous world's championship fights—one at Dallas and one at Fort Worth—hadn't paid a profit.

Golembiewski Cops First Tenpin Crown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

TOLEDO, Ohio—Billy Golembiewski, tired of finishing second, has won his first major tenpin title—The American Bowling Congress Masters Championship.

The slim youngster who left Grand Rapids, Mich., four years ago for bigtime bowling in Detroit, lost this same crown a year ago in the last game.

Golembiewski, 30, was ahead after three games in the crucial match with Ray Bluth of St. Louis last year. He stumbled to 175 in the last line, while Bluth rolled 213, winning the title by an 827-817 margin.

Billy ran second in the most grueling match contest of all last December, when deadly Don Carter of St. Louis snatched the World's Invitational Championship away from him in the final round.

Billy was at his sharpshooting best Wednesday night, when he met blustery old-pro Steve Nagy for the 1960 Masters trophy. Golembiewski blasted 181-224-210-259-874 against 755 for the 47-year-old captain of the St. Louis Falstaffs team.

Golembiewski earned $2,280, Nagy picked up $1,900.

INTRAMURALS

The intramural department sponsored a softball team which journeyed to Austin last Saturday and competed in a tournament against Sam Houston State, Baylor and Texas.

The Aggies won their game against Texas by a 2-1 score in a contest that went 13 innings but lost to Sam Houston by a 3-1 score, and to Baylor 5-3.

Darrell Rosnow, who had previously pitched seven innings against Sam Houston, went the complete distance for the win against Texas.

In intramural golf the two final spots were decided as Sq. 10 defeated the White Band and Sq. 12 won over Co. F-1. Sq. 10 and Sq. 12 will play for the championship this week.

G-2 in the fifth place spot, Sq. 10 in sixth place, Sq. 3 in seventh place, Co. F-1 occupying the eighth place berth, Co. E-2 in ninth place, and Sq. 6 in spot number ten.

Intramural track will start Monday at 5 p.m. and everyone is reminded to be on time.
