The lecturer, Dr. Edward S. Amis, is professor of chemistry at the University of Arkansas. The lecture is open to the public.

Overseas Project Film To Be Shown Tuesday in MSC

A film featuring one of the A&M College System's model overseas operations, will be presented for the public at the Memorial Student Center beginning at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

A presentation of the U. S. Operations Mission (a part of the U. S. State Department), the film details development of the Government College of Commerce, Chittagong, East Pakistan, from a small, run-down institution into a first class commercial college.

Coffey began his work with the commercial school in 1956, has done four years service in East Pakistan, and the government of that country has recently requested his return for an additional two years.

The film showing at the MSC will be in conjunction with the visit on the campus, Tuesday through Thursday, of Dr. Loyd E. Grimes, chief education advisor for the U. S. Operations Mission, Karachi, West Pakistan.

Grimes will be on the campus for three days to discuss overseas programs of the A&M College System in cooperation with the International Cooperation Administration and the government of Pakistan.

PIANISTS HIGHLIGHT MSC PROGRAM

ing music and accompanying vocal and instrumental programs since. She is the mother of three children—Mike, an A&M student; Beatrice, a University of Texas student; and Mark, a senior at A&M Consolidated High School.

Mrs. Medlen began her musical career through study at Baylor University and finished in piano at the Central Texas Conservatory in Waco. She has taught music in Ouachita College in Arkadelphia, Ark., and Clifton Junior College at Clifton. She has two children, Bobby and Suzanne, both in A&M Consolidated High School.

The two artists will play a program of classical and semi-classical music, highlighted by Mozart's "Fantasy for a Musical Clock," Suite No. 2 from Rachmaninoff's "Romance" and Gluck's "Dance from Alcesta."

There is no admission charge for the presentation.

An old film classic, "Baron of Arizona", starring Vincent Price in the story of a man who nearly succeeded in convincing the world that the state of Arizona was his property, and "The Little Red Car", a film depicting a tour of France in a small car, are the features to be shown free Sunday at 2 p. m. in Rooms 2A-B-C, Accompanying "Baron of Arizona", will also be a selected short film.

27 Deaths Forecast For July 4 Weekend

Special to The Battalion
Austin—An alert went out to Texas motorists today as the Texas Department of Public Safety predicted 27 motorcyclists will occur on streets and highways of this state during the three-day July 4 weekend.

The period covered by the prediction, during which time the Texas DPS will conduct its Operation Deathwatch, extends from 12:01 a. m. Saturday, July 2, through 11:59 p. m. Monday, July 4. The DPS Statistical section keeps the official state records of the holiday death count on the calendar day basis, in contrast to wire service counts using fractional parts of days, and different holiday periods.

The DPS prediction released by Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director, emphasized that 4,000 cars will be damaged requiring garage repairs—some a total loss—during the three-day period. The report said that 1,500 persons will receive bodily injury with some persons being crippled for life.

"These are some of the factors on the grim side of the holiday," Col. Garrison said, "but it is necessary to relate them in order to explain the seriousness of the holiday traffic situation to Texas motorists."

"The Fourth of July is a holiday in which Texans go out of doors and do lots of driving. I wish everyone a good time during the July Fourth weekend. At the same time I would like to advise them to be careful," Col. Garrison said.

"Let someone else drive if you drink, watch your food and keep it refrigerated, and don't mar your holiday with personal injury, death, or damage to your automobile. We will have on the highways to help you every available patrolman. You can make their job easier by planning safety into your holiday activities," said Col. Garrison.
