Freshman Open House in MSC

Each year during New Student Week, the Memorial Student Center sponsors an open house for incoming freshman. At the open house freshmen are given a tour of the MSC and all facilities of the building, its services and the purposes and activities of the student committees are explained to the freshmen. College Station and Bryan girls serve as hostesses at the affair.

leagues begin Oct. 17, and in late April will stage its 11th annual Southwest Intercollegiate Bowling Contest, the tenth version of which saw participation last spring by 16 teams from eight colleges. Parks Mahaney, '61, is 1960-61 chairman of the Bowling Committee.

SCONA

Tom Reid, '61, is chairman of the committee which brings students from colleges and universities in the United States, Canada and Mexico to the A&M campus each year to attend the conference commonly called SCONA. The 1960 conference is scheduled for Dec. 7-10.

Town Hall

The Town Hall series, this year under the student chairmanship of Ronald Frazier, '61, has placed on the 1960-61 calendar the following presentations: Herb Shriner and "Pops Americana"—Oct. 20; the Ray Coniff Orchestra—Nov. 17; the American Ballet Theatre—March 2; and the United States Air Force Band and Singing Sergeants—April 10.

Activities designed mainly for the student who wishes to broaden the scope of his college life through active participation in areas beyond study and military endeavors are also available in the MSC program.

Freshman Open House

Mark Dierlam, '61, heads a committee which begins the college year with an open house for new students, planned to give the new students a chance to meet personally the president and other officials of the college and to understand further the MSC activities program.

the MSC program for methods of improving the service offered through its activity committees and makes recommendations to various groups during the year for improvement.

The Dance Committee, headed this year by Gates Whiteley, '62, sponsors all dances given on the campus, as well as weekly dance classes for Aggies who want to learn to dance or who feel their present style needs polishing.

Registration for Fall term dance classes will begin at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 27. Manning Smith, nationally recognized dance instructor, will instruct both a basic and an intermediate class each week for a minimum of ten weeks.

Campus dances for the Fall include two All-College Dances on Sept. 24 and Oct. 15; Cafe Rue Pinale, the Aggie version of a French nightclub, held in the Lower Level of the MSC, Sept. 23 and Oct. 14 and 28; "Midnight in New Orleans", featuring four bands, elaborate decorations and occupancy of the entire second floor of the MSC, Oct. 29; and the traditional dance following the famous A&M Bonfire built before the University of Texas football game, Nov. 22.

National Flying Meet

The Flying Meet, of which Jim Wilbers, '60, is acting chairman, are the 1961 hosts to the annual flying meet of the National Intercollegiate Flying Assn., set for April 27-30. More than 100 planes, flown by students from colleges and universities across the nation, are expected to participate in the meet at Easterwood Field, the College airport.

The Kadets are A&M students, all interested in flying, who meet regularly to discuss flying and who have several flying meets with nearby colleges during the year.

Other Committees

Other MSC committees and their 1960-61 chairmen are Bridge, John McMullen, '61; Browning Library, David Adams, '62; Camera Club, Bill Sprayberry, graduate student; Creative Arts, John Hampton, '61; Personnel, Kenneth Fadal, '61; Public Relations, Paul Heye, '62; and Radio, Lloyd Stafford, '62.
