

Sophomores Figure Big In '60 Baseball Team Hopes

A&M went from the top to the bottom in one year in Southwest Conference baseball competition and will lean heavily upon sophomores in 1961.

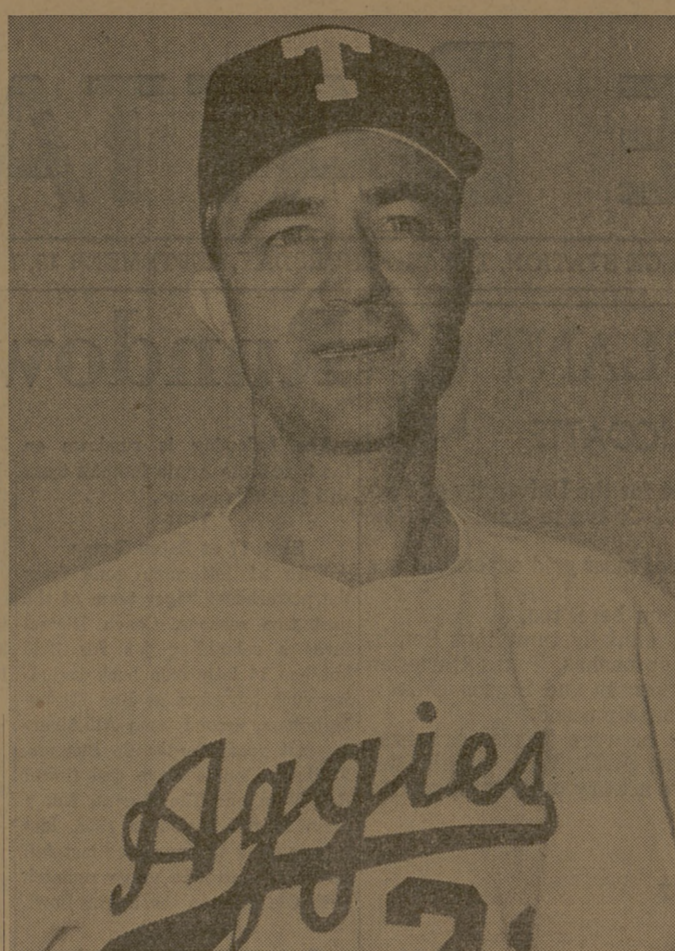

Winner of the conference title in 1959, Coach Tom Chandler's Aggies fell to the bottom last spring with a 5-17 mark, one of the lowest in recent years.

The Aggies' lone SWC victory last season was a 16-6 verdict over SMU. The 1-11 conference record left A&M in last place.

Chandler sees brighter things ahead for his varsity, though, since his frosh team won 10 of 11 games and include a perfect-pitched game against the Baylor Cubs by Ed Singley, stylish right-hander from Oklahoma City. Singley, his twin brother Jack, a third baseman, Catcher Bill Puckett; Shortstop Terry Cobb and Outfielder Ray Hall were the stars of the 1960 Fish team that won all its games except splitting a pair with the Texas Yearlings.

Chandler loses by graduation Captain J. B. Carroll, Catcher Don Chase, Outfielder Bill Houchin and Infielder Dink Patterson. Returning lettermen include Byron Barber, John Burton, Don Costlow, Clifford Davis, Dick Hickerson, Johnny Hudson, Olen Jordan and Randy Wortham.

Tennis Team Up Under New Coach

Under the guidance of Omar Smith, first-year tennis coach at A&M, the Aggies drove to a fifth-place finish in the Southwest Conference last spring and should be stronger next year.

Two members were lost through graduation—Captain Bob Jones of Garland and Frank Blazek of Elizabeth, N. J.

Returning will be Richard Halter of Baytown, Tommy Morris of Waco and David Knox of Greenville. Halter will be a senior this season while the other two will be juniors.

Members of last year's frosh team include Larry Cannon of Corpus Christi, Jerry Cox of Palo Alto, Calif., Bill Miller of Coronado, Calif., and Mike Young of Beeville.

'59-'60 Cagers Set Records, But '60-'61 Looks Brighter

Basketball at A&M under Coach Bob Rogers has been booming the past three years and the 1960-61 quad should continue the recent trend.

In the three seasons Rogers has been at Aggieland the Cadet cagers have risen from the cellar to become Southwest Conference contenders. Although the Aggies of last season had a late slump, losing three of four games, the '59-60 record posted by Rogers' charges was the best in decades.

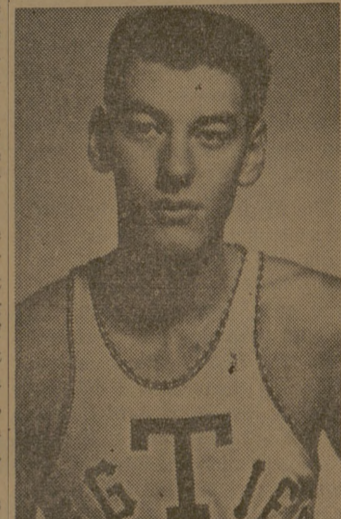

In addition to many upset wins in loop competition the past three years, A&M won two pre-season tournaments in the conference fringes at Houston and retired the last two trophies since the conference fathers voted to discontinue the annual pre-season tourney that began in 1951. Those wins in 1958-59 and 1959-60 were the only two tournaments won by the Aggies.

producer and if he continues his fast pace will easily become A&M's first 1,000-pointer for a career. Broussard, 6-5 ace who does everything well, put his name in the A&M record book four times last season and before he plays out his eligibility in two more seasons should own all or most of the Cadet records.

Replacing the annual SWC pre-season tournament are two double-headers at Houston and Lubbock. The Aggies will switch opponents in these two affairs with the University of Houston and Texas Tech.
