

Memorable Moments In Texas A&M's Colorful Grid History

Milstead Stopped

Charley Milstead (11) is halted by the Texas forward wall early in the first quarter of last year's game. Milstead fumbled on the 4th down try and the Longhorns took over.

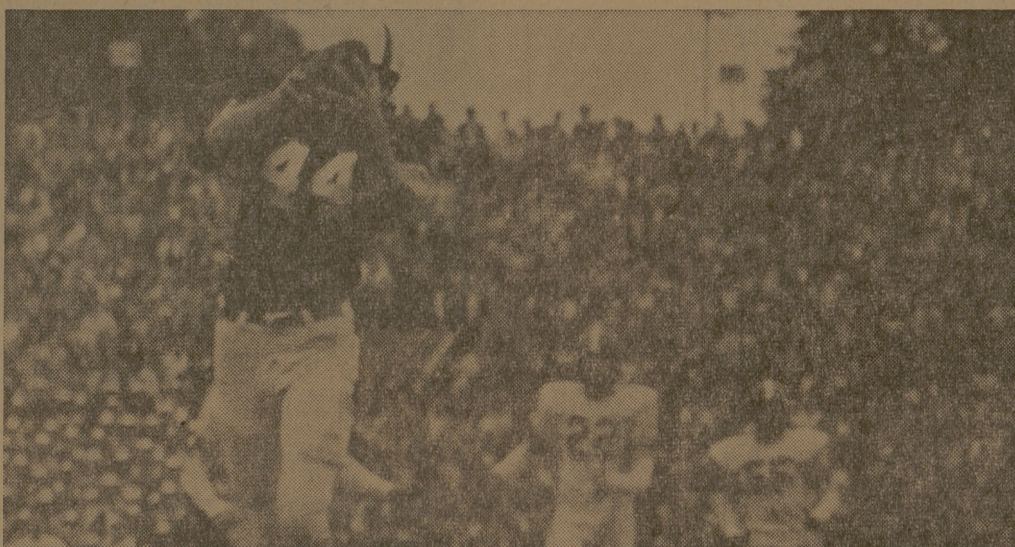

Steers Stop Sims

Randy Sims (40) is stopped after a short gain by the Texas forward wall last year. Sims got his revenge, however, by booting a prodigious 51-yard field goal 10 seconds before the half to give the Ags a 10-0 lead.

Leaping John Tracey

John Tracey (80) leaps high to grab one of many passes from Charley Milstead that halted the Rice Owls' Cotton Bowl express in 1958. The Ags rose to heights by dumping the soaring Owls, 28-21, to avenge the 7-6 upset of 1957 and award Jim Myers with Coach of the Week honors for the performance.

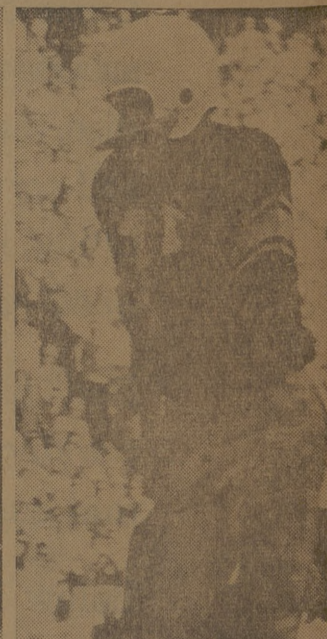

Crow Again!

John Crow (44), A&M's all-everything, grabs a pass on the Texas 13-yard line on a fourth down try. The yardage was not sufficient for the 1st down and the Longhorns went on to top the Ags, 20-6, in 1955.

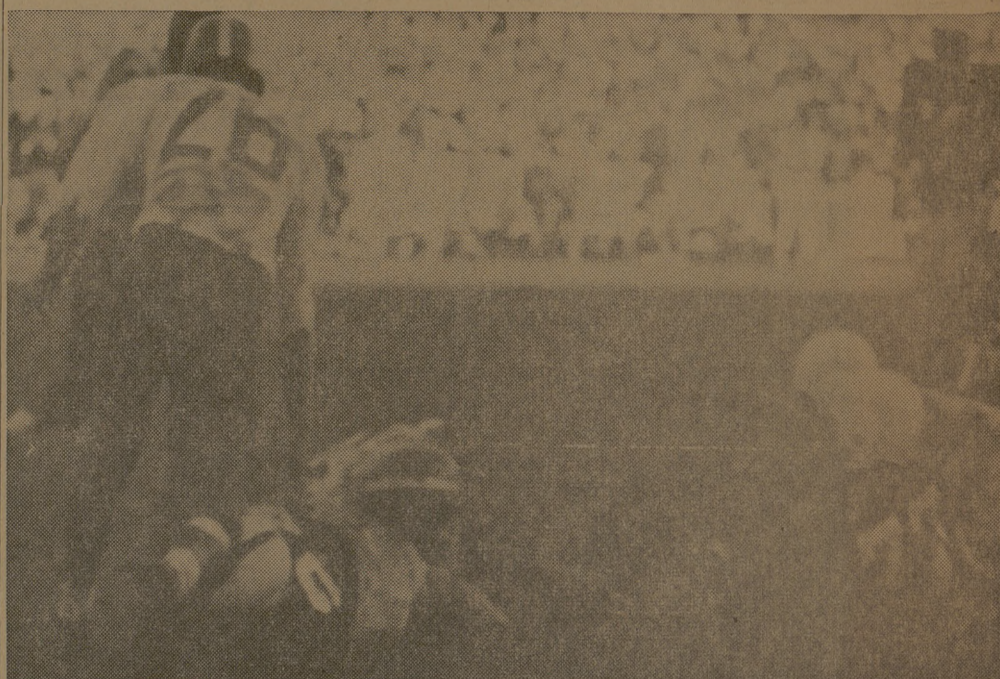

Taylor Against Baylor

Loyd Taylor rolls to the Baylor 2-yard line with a pass to set up a Cadet touchdown as the Ags roared past the highly touted Bears, 19-7, in 1955. The win was the fifth straight for the Ags at the time.

Taylor On The Move

Loyd Taylor (45) begins a 54-yard jaunt to the Rice 3-yard line in their 1955 clash. The run keyed the Cadets to three TDs in the last four minutes as they tripped the Owls, 20-12.

Clinching Counter

Don Watson (24) edges the ball into the end zone for the final touchdown against the Rice Owls in 1955. The Cadets roared back for three TDs in the final four minutes to upend the Owls, 20-12.
