Botany. He came to A&M as an uate College. assistant professor and was promoted to associate professor in 1951 and was made professor in served as a member of the Com-1954, and in 1958 became profesmittee on Graduate Instruction, sor and head of the Department School of Agriculture; member of born in Montana and was educaGrade (Line). He saw active serv-

Since coming to A&M, Hall has search.

project leader for the Texas Agri- degree from the State University active in Memorial Student Center and Pathology, was named Dean of the Graduate School June 30.

Hall came to A&M in 1949 from

He succeeds Dr. J. B. Page as graduate school dean. The position of dean of the college, which was collaborator with the Cotton and work at the University of Chicago in 1942. However, he received his of History and Government July of History and Government July and with the Southern Hillipration of Iowa in 1941, and did graduate activities, resigned his associate collaborator with the Cotton and in 1942. However, he received his of History and Government July and with the Southern Hillipration of Iowa in 1944, and did graduate activities, resigned his associate professorship in the Department in 1942. However, he received his of History and Government July and the professorship in the Department in 1942. However, he received his of History and Government July and the professorship in the Department in 1945 and the professorship in the Department in 1945. the University of Kentucky, where he was assistant professor and ache was assistant professor and acting head of the Department of University as dean of the Grad- partment of Agriculture, and in and 1948 respectively, with hon- A native of Champaign, ice in the Atlantic, European-Afri-

and a three-year Atomic Energy years. Commission research contract.

plant physiology or plant biochemistry and consultant to the Divis-children, Janice, 15; and Randy, versity of Illinois.

WELCOME -

AGGIES -

TO-

YOUNGBLOOD'S

GOOD FOOD AT MODERATE PRICES

ENTIRELY REMODELED

FOR YOUR COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE

Rock Building Hiway 6

PHONE TA 2-4557

Midway Between Bryan and College

SHOES ARE IMPORTANT AT AGGIELAND BUT THEY NEED NOT BE EXPENSIVE

Same Shoe Same Price No Increase In Price In 4 Yrs. Made to Sell For $12.95 to $13.95 LOU'S PRICE only $10.95

US/PRO KEDS The Shoes Of Champions Other Styles

$5.95 From $3.95 Up

After Five Yrs. Of Selling Yorktown Shoes Lou Will Give This Double Guarantee . . .

> You Wear The Sole Out Before Christmas Lou Will Give You A New Pair FREE.

You Wear The Sole Out Before Easter Lou Will Half Sole Them FREE.

You Can Find A Better Shoe With A Better Guarantee, Buy It.

OUPOT'S NORTH GATE

Frank A. Bowman -- Humble Service

Humble Products - North Gate

THE BATTALION Woods Quits History Post For Tech Job

Woods was a round table chaircan and Pacific Theaters of Ac- man for Student Conference on tion and received theater ribbons National Affairs (SCONA) in with six battle stars, the Purple 1958 and 1959. He was a member Council for two years and has Hall has a five-year grant with been an adviser to the MSC Great the National Institutes of Health Issues Committee for the past four

He is author or co-author of 75 the YMCA advisory board and was scientific papers, reviews and laboratory manuals in the field of Band in 1959-60. He had also ion of Experiment Stations, USDA.

He received his B.A. degree from the University of Illinois in 1938 The Halls live at 1204 Winding and his M.A. in 1940 and his Ph.D. Rd., College Station, and have two in 1941, both also from the Uni-erican Historical Assn., the American Political Science Assn., the Southwestern Social Science Assn. and the A&M chapter of Phi Kap-

High Awards

In 1958 and in 1960 Woods reeived the MSC Distinguished Service Award and the Distinguished teacher Award from the Arts and Sciences Council in 1955.

Woods is a lieutenant colonel in the U. S. Army Reserve, 4250 Corps Artillery Headquarters, and taught at the 4th Army Military Intelligence School at Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio for two weeks this summer.

Woods is married and has two children, a boy 8 and a girl 13, and he and his family live at 718 Edgewood in Bryan.

He will assume his new duties as associate professor at Texas Tech Sept. 1.

Center Loses Two Staffers

ent Center staff members reigned during July.

They were John M. Geiger, manager of the Bowling and Games Department, and Mrs. Rosalie Johnson, student program adviser. Geiger, whose resignation was and renovated Student Union Building at the University of

A&M bowling games area after his graduation from A&M in 1952. His ometown is Branford, Fla.

Mrs. Johnson, wife of Battalion Editor Johnny Johnson, joined the MSC staff in 1957 after graduating from Southern Methodist University with a degree in jour-

She worked with the entire MSC ogram, including the MSC Coun-At SMU, she was president of Stark said no replacements have the Outstanding Teacher doing re- with the U. S. Navy, and was dis- ernment in 1946 after his release board directed its staff to study a shipping circles.

Dr. William Turner, music coordinator of the MSC, had announced his resignation earlier to accept a position at Stephen F. Austin College.

Workshop Beauty Winners

Miss Sharon Fleming of Pasadena High School, left, and Miss Kay Holcomb of Paris High School were named most beautiful girls at the second annual High School Publications Workshop held here July 24-29 by the Department of Journalism. Miss Fleming was most beautiful girl for the yearbook section and Miss Fleming was most beautiful girl for the yearbook section and Miss Fleming was most beautiful girl for the yearbook section and Miss Fleming was most beautiful girl for the yearbook section and Miss Fleming was most beautiful girl government. ful girl in the newspaper section of the workshop. Baseball Coach Tom Chandler, Aggieland Studio's Gene Sutphen to make a budget recommendation and A&M Photo Shop's Bob Butler were judges for the con-

MERCHANT MARINE ACADEMY

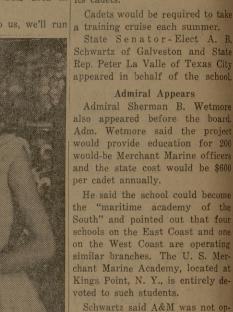

"If You Give It to Us, We'll Run It," Rudder

AUSTIN-The Legislativecampus and at Galveston.

Budget Board queried Chancellor Both Harrington and Rudder said If A&M gets the branch, stu M. T. Harrington and Presidentit was a matter for the Legislature dents would take freshman wor Earl Rudder in July on the pro-to decide. Rudder said A&M was posed establishment of a branch of "not carrying the torch" for the the U. S. Merchant Marine Acad-marine industry, but he pointed out where a wing of one of the building the said and the sa emy at College Station and the that the only marine schools now ings of the Department of Ocean Department of Oceanography and in existence are on the east and ography and Meteorology facilities 1955 was recipient of the first ors.

Woods joined the faculty of the Faculty Achievement Award for Department of History and Gov
The Outstanding Teacher diper re
Woods joined the faculty of the Department of History and Gov
The Outstanding Teacher diper re
Woods joined the faculty of the Department of History and Gov
The Outstanding Teacher diper re
Woods joined the faculty of the Department of History and Gov
The Outstanding Teacher diper re
Woods joined the faculty of the July the importance of the Gulf area in its cadets.

charged to inactive reserve with from active duty with the U. S. proposal for a branch of the acad- "If you give it to us, we'll run a training cruise each summer.

thing new in view of the state's present financial situation. The Galveston senator-elect said posed to the idea although the state's college presidents had already agreed not to bring up any

Admiral Appears

staff to study the proposal and in time for the January session of the Legislature.

Find it Fast in the YELLOW PAGES

The Southwestern States Telephone Company

Save 331/3% To 50% At Lou's