

Two District: Picks Crockett, Consolidated, Clash Tomorrow

By RUSSELL BROWN
Battalion Sports Writer

The A&M Consolidated Tigers and the Crockett Bulldogs, each picked for the number one spot in their respective districts, clash head-on in Crockett tomorrow night at 8 p.m.

The Bulldogs will seek to keep their perfect record intact, downing Trinity (20-A), Gladewater (16-AA), Groveton (20-A), and Hearne (19-AA) in the process. The Bengals will be seeking their second win in five starts, their lone victory coming at the hands of Madisonville, Crockett's stiffest competition in 22-AA.

Coach Raymond Haas' club has sixteen lettermen, including three two-lettermen performers from last year's eleven.

A quick glance at the Blue and White's starting team finds the line averaging 171 and the backfield 166. Dave Ferguson, 155 pound quarterback; James Bowman, 170 speedster halfback; and powerful Johnny Frye, 180 fullback, will be the main offensive tools used by the Bulldogs.

On the Maroon and White side of the ledger, Coach Ed Logan will be without the services of three regulars. Senior fullback Frank Hagler's ankle has yet to respond to treatment and senior guard Mike Bloom is hobbled by a leg injury. Senior tackle Mark Luther will also be out of action. Logan was pleased with the offensive and defensive showings in the Tigers' 14-8 loss to Giddings last week, lamenting the fact that red flags hurt the Bengals. The Tigers yielded only 147 yards total offense to the Buffs, but were assessed 100 yards in penalties, compared to the Madisonville tilt a week before when the Bengals gave up 295 yards total offense and had no penalties. Logan had special praise for both of his quarterbacks, Russell Welch, who guided the team to their only marker, and Condy Pugh, the Tigers' wild card.

Logan will have to juggle his lineup to take into account the personnel losses, probably going with Bob Adams and Larry Randolph at ends, John Litzler and either Bill Lucey or Alex Quisenberry at tackles, George Outlaw and Bob White at guards, and Charles Roeber at center.

In the Tiger backfield either Welch or Pugh will be at quarter, John Pedigo and Cyril Burke, leading Tiger rusher against Giddings, at halves, and either sophomore Jim McAfee or Pugh at fullback.

Next Friday the Tigers entertain the Huntsville Hornets, winding up their 1960 non-district slate.

Norton's Amateur Status Questioned

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK—Joe Williams, sports columnist of the New York World-Telegram and Sun, said Wednesday Ray Norton's amateur eligibility had been questioned before the Olympic games. He said the California sprinter had to swear in an affidavit he had not agreed to play pro football with the San Francisco 49ers. Norton now is on the 49ers squad.

Williams said in his column Wednesday:

"Information has reached this desk which may shed light on Ray Norton's wretched performance in the recent Olympics when he finished dead last in the 100- and 200-meter sprints and then committed a foul that expunged America's victory in the 400-meter relay. . ."

Arthur Lentz, assistant executive director of the U. S. Olympic Committee, confirmed that Norton had furnished the requested affidavit.

"The 49ers were ballyhooing Norton in promotional burbs as far back as last May. . ."

"Norton professed to be mystified by, and at a total loss, to explain the 49ers' exploitation. . ."

Williams wrote that "the affidavit was sworn to before Alfred J. Forn, notary public in Pomona, Calif., Aug. 10. Norton left for Rome with the U. S. Olympians later in the month. A week or so ago news pictures showed Norton in the uniform of the 49ers. Norton's contract was officially processed in the National Football League office here Sept. 19. . . or within hours after his return from the games."

Tips on Finding Trinity Stadium

For Aggies from other parts of the state besides San Antonio, or those who don't know their way around San Antonio, some directions have been sent by the Trinity University sports publicity department.

Trinity recommends if the Austin highway is taken to San Antonio, just continue through Alamo Heights and when Hilderbrand Street is reached, opposite Earl Abel's cafe, make a turn and go directly to the stadium.

The Trinity campus is directly across from the stadium.

For those who won't be able to make the trip to Trinity, the game will be broadcast over KORA in Bryan. The broadcast time will be 7:45 for the game beginning at 8.

UCLA Tailback Called Best Of Long Line for Bruins

By The Associated Press
LOS ANGELES—Head Coach Bill Barnes calls Bill Kilmer the best of a long line of outstanding tailbacks at UCLA.

Wednesday the 187-pound senior modestly accepted the accolade of Associated Press "back of the week," and put in a bid for 1960 All-America honors.

He merited the honor off his brilliant play against Purdue last Saturday at Lafayette, Ind. The score was 27-27 and back here they say "Purdue tied Kilmer." The week before he was the big gun in the 8-7 UCLA victory over a favored Pitt.

Against Purdue, Kilmer threw three touchdown passes and scored one himself. Against Pitt, Kilmer plunged through tackle for the winning two-point conversion in the final 33 seconds.

Kilmer is a genuine triple-threat star.

Cold statistics: Kilmer has completed 19 of 34 passes for 364 yards, with only two interceptions, and has lugged the ball 65 yards net in 30 carries. And his 42.1 yards average leaves him just shy of the top 10 punters in the country.

The 21-year-old Kilmer won the "Back of the Week" poll over such prominent rivals as Dave Hoppman, Iowa; Dick Thornton, Northwestern; Ernie Davis, Syracuse; Bill McQuirt, Clemson; Ronnie Bull, Baylor; Tommy Mason, Tulane; and Ron Miller, Wisconsin.

North Carolina State lost nine football games last season but five of the losses were by five points or less.
