Kansas Batters Football 'Learnin' On Saturdays

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
Kansas seems to be bettering its football education the hard way—on Saturday afternoon when it has to stop some of the best offensive combinations on the college gridiron. And the lesson for this Saturday is Iowa State, and terrible twosome of tailback Dave Hoppmann and fullback Tom Watkins.

The Jayhawks had all the right answers for tough Texas Christian 21-7, and more than enough in a 41-0 rout of Kansas State.

Last week, they barely lost to Syracuse, now the nation's No. 1 team, 14-7 and will need at least as many right answers to do the job Saturday against the Cyclones.

Hoppmann leads the nation's rushers with 431 yards. Watkins was No. 2 in 1959 among the rushers, and the Cyclones' opponents so far have been keying their defenses to stop him.

Both Maryland and Illinois got key players off the injury list. 'The Terps' quarterback Dick Novak, was pronounced fit after a hand injury while halfback Joe Krakowski shook off injuries from last week and will play against Ohio State.

Latest Flu Victim

George Hogan of Longview was the only ailing Aggie footballer yesterday as he showed symptoms of the flu. Earlier in the week backs Jim Murphy and Babe Craig were hospitalized with a light case of the flu, but returned to action yesterday.

Nikita Upsets Ike's World Series Trip

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
PITTSBURGH — The Soviet Union's Premier Khrushchev is not content with busting up summit conferences — now he's sticking his plump finger in our World Series.

Indirectly, at least. President Eisenhower, a keen baseball fan, had fully intended taking in at least a couple of World Series games — one here and one in New York—but had to cancel because of Khrushchev's pyrotechnics in the United Nations.

"The President was all ready to come but decided the situation in the U.N. was so tender he couldn't take the time off," said Commissioner Ford Frick today. The commissioner said he had received no requests from the barnstorming presidential candidates — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy — for series seats.

"I know the vice president is an avid fan and Jack Kennedy may be one also," Frick said, "but both probably are staying away for fear of being accused of using the series as a publicity prop."

"I'm just as happy about it. I don't like to see baseball get entangled with politics of any kind."

The baseball boss' seat at Forbes Field — on the first row just to the left of the Pittsburgh dugout — is quite different from the one he occupied in the last World Series between the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates 33 years ago.

In 1927, he was a sports writer for the old New York Journal and it was his job to report the Yankees' four-game sweep.

"I think the Pirates were over-awed by the batting power of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and the other Yanks," said Frick. Pie Traynor, a member of the old Pirate team, disagreed. He said the Pirates were burned out by the close pennant race.

Wogs Beat Fish, 12-0

Punts and penalties kept the Aggie Fish in the hole last night at Fort Worth as they went down to the Texas Christian Wogs, 12-0.

The Wogs were slow to score in the first half as Terrel Taylor hit Jakey Younger with a pass that covered 16 yards to paydirt with only a minute and three seconds left in the first half.

Later in the same quarter with less than a minute to play the Fish quarterback, Jim Linnstaedter, connected with Phil Peter with a 35-yard pass to the TCU 19 and one play later Linnstaedter carried to the 14, but time ran out and the half ended.

In the third quarter the Wogs engineered a 58-yard drive spurred by Tommy Crutcher. Gerry Thomas went over for the counter from one yard out.

The Aggies also had a drive going in the third quarter that started on their own 21-yard line. George Hargett climaxed the drive with a 17-yard scamper to the Wog 31, but a clipping penalty took back most of the yardage.

During the following series of downs the Wogs' defense held and the Fish were sustained.

Crutcher was the leading ground gainer for the night with 122 yards on 22 carries.

For the Aggies fullback Jerry Rogers picked up 56 yards in 14 carries and Hargett carried five times for 49 yards.

Rogers also shined in his defensive game along with end Kenneth Bode.
