

Rice, Arkansas Top Game Concerning Championship

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer
Rice and Arkansas clash at Little Rock Saturday in the most significant game of the Southwest Conference football race to date.

An Arkansas victory would virtually insure a big jam and a possible multiple tie for the title. It's a must for the Razorbacks, who are tied for second place with Baylor and if they lost another game would retain only an outside chance of even sharing the championship.

Rice, which is unbeaten in conference play, would still be in the fight for the title even though it lost but chances of an undisputed championship would be about nil.

As Rice and Arkansas clash before a sellout 41,000, Baylor will be waging a fight to stay in the running. The Golden Bears host Texas, a deep, dark enemy that's angry over two unexpected reversals.

Baylor took its first defeat of the season last week when it fell before Texas Christian. Another licking would mean virtual finish for the Bear hopes.

A&M and Southern Methodist, a couple of the eliminated teams, battle at Dallas. Staying out of the cellar is the primary hope of each.

Texas Tech, the other team that's definitely out of the race, entertains Tulane at Lubbock.

Texas Christian, still in contention, is getting ready for Texas, a team they'd rather beat than anybody.

Rice, Baylor and A&M are favored to win but the margin is paper thin. Rice is a three-point choice over Arkansas, Baylor a two-point selection over Texas and A&M 5 1/2 points over Southern Methodist.

Texas Tech is an underdog in the game with Tulane, with the New Orleans visitors picked to win by five points.

Rice is riding high and has made the national rankings at last—resting in tenth place—but the Owls never faced a rougher road. Arkansas, playing in its own bailiwick, is doubly tough and the Razorbacks are a strong football team anyway. They beat Texas on its home field. Rice whipped Texas at home and the margin in each game was slim.

Baylor, on the basis of comparative scores, boasts an edge over Texas. The Bears beat Arkansas 28-14 and Arkansas whipped Texas by a point. Both won over Texas Tech although Texas did it easier. Texas though wasn't playing in rain and mud.

Baylor hasn't beaten Texas since 1956 and will be the hungriest team.

Southern Methodist took a 28-7 hammering from Texas Tech, a team A&M tied 14-14. SMU first showed symptoms of moving out of the doldrums in the second half against Texas last week. The Methodists are bound to be fired up with the idea that this is their only chance to win one this season. It could be quite a ball game.

There is little comparison between Texas Tech and Tulane except that both lost to Rice. Tulane, however, gave the Owls a terrific struggle before succumbing 10-7. Tech was whipped to a frazzle as Rice hammered the Red Raiders 30-6. But neither team has an impressive season record. Tulane is 2-3-1, Texas Tech 2-4-1. Tech should have a good chance of adding to the conference's inter-sectional record.

6 Perfect Records At Stake Saturday

By BEN OLAN Associated Press Sports Writer
Six major college football powers put their perfect records up for show Saturday and no matter how they roll the dice it will come up no higher than "five" when the action is completed.

That's because Iowa and Minnesota, two unbeaten-untied titans, meet head-on at Minneapolis in the big game of the day. Each is 6-0.

Missouri, Navy, Yale and Utah State also will be seeking to protect unmarred slates. New Mexico State, the seventh team with zeros in the lost and tied columns, is idle.

Iowa has knocked off the Gophers five times in succession. Yet, the top-ranked Hawkeyes are rated no better than one-point favorites to win the Big Ten battle. Third-ranked Minnesota has yielded only 31 points while Iowa's opponents have scored 49. The Hawkeyes have piled up 161 points to Minnesota's 154.

Missouri 7-0 is favored by two touchdowns over Colorado in an important Big Eight game. Colorado has won five in a row since an opening loss to Baylor. However, the second-ranked Tigers have yet to give up more than one touchdown in any game this season. They've held their opponents scoreless in three games.

Duke is expected to give Navy considerable trouble. The Blue Devils have lost only to Michigan while recording five victories. The Middies, despite their 7-0 record and the presence of powerful Joe Bellino in their lineup, are favored by only a single point.

Yale, deadlocked with Princeton for the Ivy League lead, is a two-touchdown choice to down Pennsylvania 2-4. The Elis 6-0 rolled over Dartmouth 29-0 last week. Penn has not scored in its last two games.

A Sun Bowl invitation probably awaits the winner of the Utah State-Wyoming game. Utah State is 7-0 and Wyoming 6-1 for the season. Each has piled up five victories without a setback in Skyline Conference competition.

There should be plenty of fireworks elsewhere this weekend, starting tonight when Florida State will be at Miami, Marquette at Detroit and Richmond at George Washington.

Miami 3-2 is favored by 13 points over Florida State 3-3-1. Detroit has won its last five starts after losing its opening game to Iowa State. Marquette has dropped its last three. George Washington 2-3-1 looked good whipping Air Force 20-6 last week; Richmond 1-4-1 didn't while succumbing to Virginia Tech 20-0.

Weiss Succeeded by Hamey As Yankee General Manager

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK—Roy Hamey, 58, succeeded George Weiss, 66, as general manager of the New York Yankees Thursday as the latest step of a youth movement that previously resulted in the firing of 70-year-old Manager Casey Stengel.

Dan Topping, Yankee co-owner, said Hamey would work on a year-to-year basis at his own request. No terms were disclosed but Hamey was believed to have settled for somewhat less than Weiss' reported $100,000 salary.

Topping said Jack White, general manager at Richmond, would be with the Yanks in 1961 but did not outline his duties.

"I am not going to meddle with success," said Hamey, who spent 19 of his 36 years in baseball in the Yankee organization. "However, we intend to intensify our efforts in the procurement of raw talent. You can't keep on winning pennants by making trades. You must develop your own."

"This is a young ball club. We certainly are not going to trade away our young players. There is no secret that we could use some pitching although our staff may be better than everybody seems to think. We will be active in the field trying to get as good a pitcher as we can afford to trade for."

Although Hamey said no deals now being considered appeared certain to be made, it was known that the Yanks are trying to get Johnny Antonelli, a left-handed pitcher, from the San Francisco Giants.

Weiss will serve in an advisory capacity after Dec. 31.

Cotton Bowl Considers Seven

By The Associated Press
DALLAS—Seven schools have been contacted by the Cotton Bowl but three of them appear to be drawing most of the interest as visiting team in the Jan. 2 Dallas football classic.

Felix R. McKnight, chairman of the selection committee, said Mississippi, Tennessee, Navy, Pittsburgh, Syracuse, Duke and Alabama were the seven being eyed at this time.

But he let it be known that the Cotton Bowl is "very interested in the Nov. 12 Tennessee-Mississippi game and in Navy."

The Southwest Conference champion is host in the Cotton Bowl and right now there are still five teams still in the running—Rice, Baylor, Arkansas, Texas Christian and Texas. In the event of a two-team tie the team that beat the other in the regular season would get the Cotton Bowl bid.

FIT FOR THE AGE

It's hard for grownups to grasp what it means to be a child today!

We grew up yesterday. The planes and radios which had startled our parents were commonplace to us. Television and jets we could take in stride. But Space! Who among us expected to live in a Buck Rogers era?

Yet to our youngsters nothing seems more natural than man's invasion of the universe. Everything that went before was preparation. We are ready to blast off. And the man who will establish our first colony on Mars is probably training for his mission in a sixth grade classroom...

Was there ever a time when religious, moral and spiritual development were more essential to our youth? The Truth man will cherish on Earth, and carry with him among the stars, is being taught every Sunday in our churches. Is your child... and the home in which he is growing up... FIT FOR THE AGE?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verse
Sunday	Luke	16	8
Monday	Psalms	53	13
Tuesday	Ecclesiastes	3	11-15
Wednesday	Ecclesiastes	9	12
Thursday	Revelation	22	12-14
Friday	Hebrews	5	12-14
Saturday	Luke	9	62

Intramurals

Intramural sports continued to roll on yesterday as Sq. 17 blanked Sq. 6, 6-0; G-3 shut out Sq. 7, 10-0; and A-2 and Sq. 10 tied 6-6 in the games that took place in Class B football.

Only one game was played in Class A basketball as I-2 won over A-1, 24-16.

In Class A handball, G-1 edged Sq. 3, 2-1; and B-2 blanked H-1, 3-0.

E-2 edged Sq. 8, 2-1; and F-2 beat A-1, 2-1 in the only two games scheduled in Class B horseshoes.
