Sanction, Backing

Every year over 900 Texas A&M students participate in some minor sports activity.

These students are active members of the pistol team, the wrestling team, the badminton team, the water polo team, or any of the six other organized lesser sport teams and clubs on the Texas A&M campus.

Each year these clubs and teams travel hundreds of miles throughout the state to participate in meets with similar organizations from other colleges. And the Aggies usually make an accredited showing on these trips.

Up until now, they have received neither money nor sanction from Texas A&M.

At present, aid is obtained from the Memorial Student Center and amounts to less than $1 per student per year. The Exchange Store Advisory Board allotted $1,500 for lesser sports at its November meeting, but even this added money doesn't come close to meeting the needs of trips, equipment, uniforms and supplies.

Sanction and backing from Texas A&M is very much needed if these teams are to continue to represent the school in the manner they have in the past.

Arrest of Louisiana Judge Called For Soviet Money Effort Gets World's Deaf Ear Treatment

By The Associated Press NEW ORLEANS—The Louisiana Legislature and a Citizens Council rally Tuesday night called for the impeachment and arrest of a federal judge who ordered integration in New Orleans.

At an angry Citizens Council meeting in New Orleans, a petition was circled calling for the impeachment of U. S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright.

Want To Be 'Mrs. A&M'? Entries in the "Mrs. Texas A&M" Contest being sponsored by the Aggie Wives Council are still being accepted.

Mrs. Jean Vaught, chairman of the event, said that all wives of students currently enrolled at A&M are eligible to enter.

Any Aggie wife wishing to enter the contest should send her name and address, along with a $2 entry fee to Mrs. Vaught at 801 Fairview Ave. in College Station. Thanksgiving Day is the deadline for entries.

Mrs. Texas A&M will be named at a dance to be given by the council on Dec. 3. The dance will feature the music of the AggieLand Combo. It will start at 8 p. m. It will be held in the Ballroom of the MSC. Tickets are $2 per couple.

The council is a staunch segregationist group. A group of white mothers with children in one of the two schools integrated by four Negro first graders told the rally a march would be staged Wednesday morning on the New Orleans School Board office. The board, acting under federal order, authorized integration.

Meanwhile, in the capital at Baton Rouge, Rep. W. K. Brown told a special legislative session, Judge Wright should be jailed.

The Senate adjourned, and in a sudden surprise the House cleared out scores of spectators and the gallery—and the entire press—as is acted to adjourn the 12-day special session and start a new 30-day session after midnight.

During the day in New Orleans, teen-agers—running in packs of 100 to 200—broke the peaceful mixing of the races in public schools.

INTERPRETING Soviet Money Effort Gets World's Deaf Ear Treatment

By J. M. ROBERTS Associated Press News Analyst The Soviet Union's effort to make her money appear as good or even better than that of the United States has fallen on the world's deaf ear.

Insofar as financial circles are concerned, Soviet rubles aren't worth anything, and as a currency they are merely a curiosity outside the U. S. S. R. There is no trade in them, and no commercial attempt to evaluate them.

Countries which buy from the Soviets evaluate the goods against world prices, except in the satellites which are forced to pay Soviet prices, and pay in barter. Soviet loans to underdeveloped countries are on the same basis.

Sound Off

Editor, The Battalion: I would like to see editorial comment appear in The Battalion on the practical nature of the Bonfire.

I know that this is indeed a grand Aggie tradition and that it makes woodsmen out of all those participating. But would it be too much to suggest that if even a portion of the wood burned to ashes each year was cut into size for firewood, many needy families in our own backyard, the Bryan-College Station area, could be supplied with wood for the winter which they normally can't afford?

Incidentally, New York financial experts estimate that the U. S. S. R., in the last half decade, has been paying out between 150 and 250 million dollars worth of gold annually to meet her trade deficits outside the Iron Curtain.

Inside the Soviet Union, Monday's effort to peg the ruble as better than equal to the dollar, making one new ruble worth about 10 old ones, may have more effect. France discovered several years ago that a similar operation tended to increase respect for the franc and so enhanced its value at home.

Experts believe there is a psychological result from giving people fewer monetary units which will buy as much as 10 times more than the old unit.
