Civilian Dress Proposals Given Top Faculty Backing

(Editor's note: The following excerpts were taken from a letter signed by Dean of Students James P. Hannigan and addressed to Student Senate President Roland Dommert. The letter concerned the work of the Civilian Dress Committee of the Student Senate.)

"The College Executive Committee received and discussed the letter from the Student Senate on the subject of civilian dress on the campus at a meeting Nov. 21. The Executive Committee desires to commend the work of the Senate and of the students who composed the Civilian Dress Committee for their carefully considered guide governing civilian dress on the campus.

"The Executive Committee voted unanimously to give its full backing to these representatives of the student body in their effort to insure that undergraduate students on the campus present a neat appearance and wear appropriate clothing at all times.

Student Report Approved

"The report of the Civilian Dress Committee was accepted as an approved interpretation by the student body of the existing 1960 College Regulations which require that students wear suitable clothing for the activity in which they are engaged and that for class and regular campus wear the clothing be neat and clean and complete.

"The Civilian Dress Committee report will be used as a guide by enforcement agencies of the campus. These agencies will take into consideration exceptions which may be required for medical reasons or because of different customs in the case of foreign students.

Prison Sentences Upset

NEW YORK—A federal appeals court Monday upset the prison sentences of 20 delegates to the 1957 underworld convention at Apalachin, N. Y. The government, which had boasted of the convictions, was soundly criticized for its handling of the case from start to finish.

The three-man U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, unanimously dismissing the convictions, called the government's case "a bootstrap operation," based on "crash methods."

The opinion, in effect, accused the government of setting up a series of unproven assumptions, and then belaboring the defendants because they refused to go along with them. The prosecution never should have been started at all, the opinion held.

Catholics Take Step Against Castro

HAVANA—The Roman Catholic Church has taken another long step in its battle with Fidel Castro with distribution of a critical article by Auxiliary Bishop Eduardo Boza Masvidal of Havana.

The bishop declared all Catholics would have supported Castro's social revolution "had it been based on just measures without destroying the legitimate rights of anyone."

The article, bristling with condemnation of Castro policies, was distributed in Havana churches a few hours before the prime minister accused the Catholic clergy in Cuba of preaching counterrevolutionary sermons for pay.

Chest Drive Nears $14,000

Total Remains Short Of Goal

The United Chest drive reached the $13,713 mark last night, drive treasurer M. V. Krenitsky has reported. He emphasized the figure is still incomplete with more collections not yet added in.

This amount is still $1,436.01 shy of the original goal. Effort chairman Dr. Dale F. Leipper said he thought the goal could be reached. He said the drive would continue to pick-up contributions until the goal was attained.

December paychecks will be coming out soon and that will give those who have not yet contributed a chance to do so, he pointed out.

The drive which was to officially end Nov. 15, has been continued because of failure to meet the $15,150 goal.

Leipper said that workers would continue their canvassing until after Dec. 10.

Part of the uncollected amount is traceable to one college department which has over 200 members who have not given to the fund.

The campaign has been divided up into three sections. They are: A&M Campus, John C. Calhoun; Community and Commercial Groups, H. E. Burgess, and Federal Employees, I. H. Lloyd.

The team captains designated by the group leaders are: A&M Campus, John E. Denison, R. H. Davis, R. L. Hunt, Michael Krenitsky and Wayne Stark; Community and Commercial, Ran Boswell, Don Dale, Mrs. John Q. Hays, Tom E. Prater, John H. Pruitt, Mrs. Charles Richardson, W. T. Riedel and T. E. Whiteley; and Federal Employees, Homer A. Adams, Jack Bradshaw, O. B. Briggs, J. M. Hendricks and Leonard J. Watson.

Some of the area organizations that receive United Chest funds are the Brazos County Hospital Fund, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the American Red Cross, the Texas Rehabilitation Center and the Bryan Committee on Alcoholism.

Five Proposals

The five proposals submitted to the Executive Committee by the Civilian Dress Committee provided that "T" shirts, including practice jerseys, will not be worn on the campus by a student unless he is participating in an athletic activity.

"Shower shoes will not be worn outside of the dormitory.

"Tattered trousers will not be worn on the campus.

"Socks will be worn with shoes of all kinds at all times.

"Students will be required to have a neat appearance on the campus at all times."

Members of the Civilian Dress Committee are Mike Carlo, chairman; Lee Griggs, Randy Sanders, Hank Farrow, Bill Flynt, and Harry Goss.

'Mrs. A&M' To Be Named Saturday

The Aggie Wives Council is going to name Mrs. Texas A&M. She will be selected at a dance scheduled this Saturday.

The dance will feature the music of the Aggieband Combo. It will be held in the Ballroom of the MSC at 8 p.m. Tickets for the event are $2 per couple.

Mrs. Jean Vaught, chairman of the contest, said there are about 32 Aggie wives entered. Many of the entrants are being sponsored by campus groups and clubs.

The only requirement for the entrants is that each be the wife of a currently enrolled student at A&M.

Mrs. Vaught also announced the prizes in the event. She said the winner will be presented with a cup given by the Bryan-College Station Chamber of Commerce. Runners-up will be presented merchandise certificates by Beverly Braley and Lady Fair women's shops.

Farm, Ranch Credit School In Progress

Charlie Ball of Dallas, Texas editor of Farm Journal, is the panel moderator of a symposium on the subject "How Can Local Agricultural Industries Be Developed in 1961?" at the Texas Farm and Ranch Credit School for Commercial Bankers which began yesterday and ends tomorrow.

Five panelists are discussing the problem in relationship to: How to get started; what can industrial foundations do?; what about more livestock feeding?; what about local meat packing plants?; and supplying the big supermarkets.

Ball was reared on a cotton and livestock farm in Northeast Texas and played a prominent part in national 4-H Club work. He is a graduate of A&M and Iowa State College.

He served as a captain in the U. S. Army during World War II and received the Purple Heart, Bronze Star and Combat Infantry Badge. He has been an active member and has held various offices in the American Society of Agricultural Engineers.

TO UNITS, COUNCILS

Gay Reveals Xmas Plans

In a memorandum to all military units and civilian councils, J. Gordon Gay, coordinator of Religious Life and General Secretary of the YMCA, says:

"Thanksgiving is over, and before we know it, Christmas will be here. So now is the time for your organization to make plans to help some of the needy and underprivileged children of College Station and Bryan.

After consulting with several local principals and social workers, it was suggested that a more joyous and profitable Christmas would result from a unit or dormitory group taking a family and providing useful gifts, things that will be lasting, rather than taking groups of children to dinner or giving bags of candy and fruit. These children are naturally nervous when they get with a large group of strange people in a strange place.

Take A Family

"It was also suggested that your organization take a family (or two families, whichever you prefer) and go into the homes, talk to the parents and look at the conditions in which the children live. In this way you will better be able to determine what kind of gifts are really needed and from which gifts the family would get the most good.

"Some suggestions concerning the articles most needed were: shoes, most prefer tennis shoes; blue jeans, underwear, dresses-skirts-blouses, sweaters, dolls for small girls, shoe polish, toothbrush, toothpaste, shampoo, good pairs of socks (boys and girls), shirts, balls, gloves, bats, etc. for small boys, and soap.

Names Turned In

"The names of approximately 70 families have been turned in as people who are in need of assistance. We have the number of children, ages, and sex in each of the families. Your Christmas will be more profitable and enjoyable when you know that you have helped some child have a more joyous Christmas season.

This will be your project; no attempt will be made to dictate details or the kind of party or gifts you select. Be sure to send your commanding officer or first sergeant by the Chapel to obtain the necessary information prior to 5 p. m. Dec. 10. Let's give these children a Christmas they will always remember!"

Mrs. Glenda Fagan, All Faiths' Chapel, has the names and addresses for families, Gay says.

Elephant Walk Begins

The long line of seniors participating in Tuesday's elephant walk passes in front of "Sully" at the beginning of the annual campus tour. The traditional walk symbolizes the seniors' last football game, as they wander like old elephants returning home for their last days.

Eighteen Units Praised For No Freshmen Losses

President Rudder today expressed his congratulations to the eleven cadet units and seven civilian dormitories which have not lost a single freshman since school started nine weeks ago.

Pointing out the fact that recently posted grades might have a discouraging effect upon some students, Rudder said that this record was "definitely worthy of commendation."

Dean Hannigan added his congratulations to those of President Rudder. "It indicates a high level of unit esprit and a spirit of helpfulness on the part of the cadet officers and civilian leaders concerned," said Hannigan.

The cadet units which share this enviable record are: Companies H-1, F-1, G-1, D-2, F-2, G-2, I and K-2; Squadron 3, 7 and 10.

Civilian dormitories sharing the record are: Leggett, Mitchell, Puryear, Law, Hart and Bizzell Halls and the Project Houses.

The Battalion also commends these fine units and dormitories for the spirit of helpfulness they have shown this semester.
