

The Exchange Store Christmas

SALE STARTS AT 8:00 A.M. MONDAY DECEMBER 5 ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED TO SELL FROM $2.00 TO $15.00

NOW

AND HIGHER

$1.00 Each

- 1. CHRISTMAS CAROLS, by H. van Loon and G. Castagneta. Words and music for Silent Night, Come All Ye Faithful, God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen—and all the others! In singable, simple piano arrangements, and charmingly illustrated. Pub. at $2.50. Sale $1.
- 2. MATHEMATICAL TABLES AND FORMULAE, by F. J. Cannon. The standard mathematical symbols, interest tables, weights and measures, logic and analogies, progressions, conversion tables, laws of physics, formulae in algebra and calculus, etc. Pub. at $2.75. Sale $1.
- 3. FROM A WRITER'S NOTEBOOK, by Van Wyck Brooks. The greatest living American literary historian gets down a marvelous, provocative series of ideas and observations drawn from a rich lifetime of reading, writing and living. The "Flowering" of Van Wyck Brooks. Pub. at $3.00. Sale $1.
- 4. FROM THE HORSE'S MOUTH, Rich, intimate anthology of letters, diary extracts and speeches of 22 historic figures including Catherine the Great, Napoleon, Lincoln, Shakespeare. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.
- 5. NOT AS A STRANGER, by Morris Thompson. Rich, powerful, poignant novel about the making of a doctor and his realization that no man, however dedicated his mission, can stand alone in life. One of the finest and most engaging medical novels ever published, by the author of "The Cry and the Convent." 948 pp. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.
- 6. THE AMERICAN OASIS, by E. Higbee. The first complete account of the way farmers have treated this land of ours from Colonial times to the present. Illus. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.
- 7. PRACTICAL ANALYTICAL GEOMETRY WITH APPLICATIONS TO AIRCRAFT, by R. A. Lining. A practical approach with industrial applications, incorporating basic formulas from algebra and trigonometry. Many examples, illustrations, tables. Pub. at $6.75. Sale $1.
- 8. DON JUAN, by J. Toman. A sweeping historical novel by Don Miguel de Manana, a busy adventurer of 17th century Spain. Pub. at $4.95. Sale $1.
- 9. WILLIAM JAMES, by L. Morris. An important discussion of the way that great philosopher utilized findings from the related disciplines of psychology, biology and the physical sciences and combined them into his "philosophical pragmatism." Pub. at $2.50. Sale $1.
- 10. EDWIN BOOTH—PRINCE OF PLAYERS, by E. Ruggles. Best-selling biography of the greatest actor of the American stage. Magically recreates the 19th century theatre world and such fantastic personalities as fellow actors Irving and Barrett, his infamous brother John Wilkes, many more. Illus. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.
- 11. OSWALD SPENGLER: A CRITICAL ESTIMATE, by H. S. Hughes. Major historian, prophet and symptom of his time—examines the often-quoted "Decline of the West," his successors like Toynbee and Sorokin, and his relationship to National Socialism. Pub. at $2.00. Sale $1.
- 12. PRACTICAL PROSE STUDIES, by R. O. Rowen. Down-to-earth approach to good prose writing, using as examples fine works by Edmund Wilson, Margaret Mead, Truman Capote, others. Pub. at $3.75. Sale $1.
- 13. AMERICAN ART AND RUSSELL SMITH, by V. E. Lewis. 62 collotypes of Smith's sketches, water colors and oils, plus fascinating information on 19th-century American art, such personalities as Edwin Booth and Fanny Kemble. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.
- 14. BUDDHISM AND ZEN, by Edmund Spenser. A glossary, and notes on the ancient philosophy-religion that is sweeping the Western world. Ed. and trans. by N. Senzaki and R. S. McCandless. Pub. at $3.75. Sale $1.
- 15. THE WORK OF ART, by S. C. Pepper. A lucid analysis of basic problems in creative life. Pub. at $3.00. Sale $1.
- 16. THE HALF-NAKED KNIGHT, by Andre Francois. Over 200 cartoons and drawings blending outrageous wit and outrageous Gallic comment on the muddled world in which we live. 7 1/2" x 10". Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.
- 17. THE FIGHT OF THE SMALL WORLD, by A. Elliott & P. Elstob. One of the wildest adventures of recent times—the thrill-tale of three men and a woman who made front-page headlines with their "impossible" journey across 2700 miles of open Atlantic by free balloon and boat. Photos. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.
- 18. CHARLES DARWIN—THE NATURAL AS CULTURAL FORCE, by P. B. Sears. How Darwin's ideas and example as a scientist profoundly influenced many fields of knowledge in his own day and ours. Pub. at $2.50. Sale $1.
- 19. FAVORITE AMERICAN SONGS, by M. B. Boni and N. Lloyd. Words and music to stir up singing memories—ballads, hymns and rounds—from our recent past back to Colonial times. Colorful illustrations, 46 songs arranged for piano. Soft cover, 8 x 11 1/2". Special $1.
- 20. THE URANIUM PROSPECTOR'S GUIDE, by J. Ballard & Q. E. Conklin. Basic non-technical information. Discusses how to use maps, testing, sampling claim staking, mining law, marketing, cost accounting, use of Geiger counters and other detection instruments. Illus. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.
- 21. HORMONES IN HEALTH AND DISEASE, ed. by R. L. Craig, MD. Clinical reports and academic research on endocrinology, clarifying the effect of hormones on the emotions, relationship to people, use of ACTH and cortisone, etc. Illus. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.
- 22. THE LOGICAL PROBLEM OF INDUCTION, by G. H. von Wright. Discussion of the so-called Problem of Hume. Invaluable for the student of Broad, Heisenbach, Wittgenstein, Russell and contemporary philosophy in general. Pub. at $4.00. Sale $1.
- 23. THE LOTUS EATERS, by Gerald Green. Author of "The Last Angry Man." A big, teeming novel which dissects a bizarre cast of characters in a gothic Florida resort. Pub. at $4.95. Sale $1.

- 24. CRIME IN LONDON—CRITICAL YEARS AT THE YARD, by E. Cobb. Inside Scotland Yard during the Victorian era, when some of London's worst crimes, including Jack the Ripper's fiendish murders, were committed. Photos. Pub. at $3.75. Sale $1.
- 25. THE UNFINISHED STORY OF ALGER HISS, by F. J. Cook. The most daring and controversial treatment of the Hiss case yet published. Supports uncompromisingly the "forger by typewriter" charges and attacks the testimony of Whitaker Chambers. "A great social document"—H. H. Wilson Princeton University. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.
- 26. PAINTER OF GEORGE WASHINGTON: GILBERT STUART, by J. T. Flexner. The unvarnished story of the American portraitist who rose from poverty to fame, fortune and intimacy with the great men of his country—and died a tragic and paradoxical figure. Pub. at $3.00. Sale $1.
- 27. A JOURNEY FROM THE ARCTIC, by D. C. Brown. A vivid voyage on horseback through Swedish forests, vast silent Arctic plateaus, the treacherous waters of Finland, the treacherous marches of Norway—all the charm and mystery of the Land of the Midnight Sun. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.
- 28. NANGA PARBAT, by R. M. Herrickhoff. Adventure-history of man's heroic efforts to climb the world's second highest mountain. Photos. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.
- 29. NAZI WAR LORDS—CONSPIRACY AMONG GENERALS, by W. von Schram. A true, first-hand account of one of the most daring conspiracies of modern times—the attempt by Hitler's High Command to wrest from him the conduct of the war. Photos. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.

- 47. ALBERT EINSTEIN'S ESSAYS IN SCIENCE. The biography of the noted American physicist and theorist whose political and economic concepts remain vital today. Pub. at $1.98. Sale $1.
- 48. ENGLISH HUSBANDRY, by R. Trow-Smith. Farming from Saxon times to the present, fully detailing modern dairy practices, arable crops, mechanization, etc. Photos and engravings. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.
- 49. ELIZY QUEEN'S 13th ANNUAL SELECTION OF FAMOUS STORIES FROM HIS MYSTERY MAGAZINE. Thirteen tales of suspense, excitement and detection by Amelia Christie, Carter Dickson, Stuart Palmer, etc. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.
- 50. POETRY: PAGES AND ANOTHER THING, by Robert Paul Smith. A happy potpourri of stories, songs and games, some rhyming, some not. OGDEN NASB'S BEST—THE CHRISTMAS PARTY, RETURN TO PEYTON PLACE, by Grace Metalious. The dating sequel to the novel that ripped the lid off a small New England town. Pub. at $2.75. Sale $1.
- 51. WOMEN AND THOMAS HARROW, by John E. Marquand. Vivid novel of a successful and much married Broadway playwright. RETURN TO PEYTON PLACE, by Grace Metalious. The dating sequel to the novel that ripped the lid off a small New England town. Pub. at $2.75. Sale $1.
- 52. NAZI WAR LORDS—CONSPIRACY AMONG GENERALS, by W. von Schram. A true, first-hand account of one of the most daring conspiracies of modern times—the attempt by Hitler's High Command to wrest from him the conduct of the war. Photos. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.

$1.49 Each

- 53. MODERN SCIENCE AND THE NATURE OF LIFE, by W. S. Beck. An exciting book about the life process, carrying the reader to the ultimate frontier—the attempt to create living matter in the laboratory. Illus. Pub. at $5.75. Sale $1.49.
- 54. WATER DE LA MARE: A Selection from his Writings. An anthology chosen from the books, poems, essays and criticism of one of the finest English writers of the century. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.49.
- 55. TAIN'S NOTES ON ENGLAND—A GALLIC VIEW OF VICTORIAN MORALITY, by Hippolyte Taine. The whole panorama of 19th Century British life is illuminated in these commentaries which constitute both important social history and an enthralling expose. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $1.49.
- 56. JOURNALS THROUGH PALESTINE—PUT OFF THY SHOES, by E. Hamilton. A vivid journey through Israel and Jordan, contrasting yesterday's holy places and today's world of kibbutzim, Arab refugees and tourism. Magically evokes the landscape and atmosphere of Old Jerusalem, ultra-modern Tel Aviv, sacred Bethlehem and bustling Haifa. Photos. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.49.
- 57. THE NEW PSYCHOLOGY—MYSTERIOUS MARRIAGE, by E. G. Howe. Stimulating presentation of an English school of psychology based on the fundamental conflict of individual freedom vs. compulsion. Pub. at $4.25. Sale $1.49.
- 58. THE CONFLICTS OF RELIGIONS, by P. H. Ashby. Shows clearly what the common beliefs and objectives of the world's major religions are, and how they can be pooled to eliminate fear and misunderstanding. Photos. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.49.
- 59. JOHN STEINBECK'S THE WAYWARD BUS, a candid story of very human beings—as only Steinbeck can tell. What happens during an unusual bus trip as they unfold their tragedies and dreams makes for a touching, revealing and hilarious journey. Pub. at $1.98. Sale $1.49.
- 60. MUSIC OF THE AMERICAS, NORTH AND SOUTH, by F. H. And. Music and musicians of the Western Hemisphere, from tribal chants to latest techniques, classics to jazz. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.49.
- 61. THE MEXICAN VENTURE, by T. C. Call. The gamut of events which have shaped modern Mexico out of the colorful nation's bloody and confused beginnings. Photos. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.49.
- 62. SENSE OF HUMOR, by Stephen Potter. A masterly humorous analysis and illustration of the essence and variety of British humor, with over 100 examples ranging from Chaucer's bawdiness to Peter Ustinov's drolleries. Pub. at $4.00. Sale $1.49.
- 63. THREE DIMENSIONS OF PUBLIC MORALITY, by H. W. Schneider. A study of the essential interdependence of Liberty, Fraternity, Equality. Pub. at $3.00. Sale $1.49.
- 64. AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL CUSTOM, by B. C. Rodick. The influence of traditional and Anglo-American forces on the U. S. Constitution. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.49.
- 65. THE TROPICS—WHERE WINTER NEVER COMES, by M. Bates. This fascinating study of the hot countries from Mexico to Africa shows the varieties of tropical man and his culture, and how this concerns us today. Illus. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.49.
- 66. LABOR ECONOMICS AND PROBLEMS AT MID-CENTURY, by S. Sufrin and R. Sedgewick. Stresses the relationship of labor problems to the legal and social institutions of the United States. The authors are professors at Syracuse University's famed Maxwell Research Center. Illus. Pub. at $5.75. Sale $1.49.
- 67. NATIONAL GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES, by W. Anderson. Federal organization, stressing functional elements of the political system. 572 pp. Pub. at $2.25. Sale $1.49.
- 68. THEY CHOSE FREEDOM—HEROES BEHIND BARBED WIRE, by H. K. Hansen. The inspiring story of 85,000 Communist Chinese and North Korean POW's who chose Western freedom after the Korean armistice, 46 photos. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.49.
- 69. THE LOTUS EATERS, by Gerald Green. Author of "The Last Angry Man." A big, teeming novel which dissects a bizarre cast of characters in a gothic Florida resort. Pub. at $4.95. Sale $1.49.
- 70. ELECTRIC MANUFACTURERS: 1875-1900, by H. C. Passer. The origins and development of this highly technical and competitive industry, the men who lived, fought and ruled there. Pub. at $6.00. Sale $1.49.

- 71. WINTER VILLAGE in its heyday—THE IMPROPER BOHEMIANS, by Allen Churchill. Vivid recreation of America's Left Bank in the great years of Eugene O'Neill, Edna St. Vincent Millay, John Reed and Maxwell Bodenheim. Illus. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98.
- 72. AMERICAS LITERARY REVOLT, by V. Liron. A comparative study of Edgar Lee Masters, Vachel Lindsay and Carl Sandburg, tying together the threads of 20th century literature, politics and economics, and showing the three poets' common unqualified opposition to the growth of monopoly, imperialism, political corruption, materialism and cultural decadence. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98.
- 73. THE STORY OF AVIATION, by D. C. Cooke. A beautiful photographic exploration of the secret supersonic sky. Recounts Dr. Vincent's early experiments; Kitty Hawk and the Wright Brothers; the Age of Lindbergh; the Battle of Britain, etc. Illus. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98.
- 74. INVENTOR'S PROGRESS, by J. G. Letourneau. An authoritative and highly readable account of the inventor's revolution in technology, and how it came about. The story focuses on the personalities of the great inventors and their dramatic struggles to produce the fabulous world of today. Illus. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98.
- 75. RECENT PROGRESS IN PSYCHIATRY, ed. by H. B. Sell and Victor Wright. First pictorial biography of the great psychologist, international showman and darling of royalty and presidents, illustrated with 137 halftones and 39 line-cuts. Pub. at $6.95. Sale $1.98.
- 76. THE COLUMBUS ATLAS—REGIONAL ATLAS OF THE WORLD, by John Bartholomew. 160 pages of 1 1/2" x 10" maps in as many as eight eye-appealing colors. Indexed for quick reference to continents, countries and cities, and grouped in specific land and water regions—indispensable global data to keep abreast of a changing world. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $1.98.
- 77. POPULAR MATHEMATICS, by Deming Miller. The eight mathematical branches from arithmetic to calculus explained for actual enjoyment as well as practical understanding and application. 616 pages, profusely illustrated. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $1.98.
- 78. FOLKLORE IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, by Sir James G. Frazer. The author of the epoch-making "The Golden Bough" has here unearthed a treasure-trove of strange, curious and diverting material about the life and people of ancient Israel—their customs, beliefs, institutions and "mythology." An enduring classic of comparative religion. Pub. at $6.95. Sale $1.98.
- 79. CHRIST AND THE APOSTLES, by F. M. Godfrey. 100 fine reproductions of painting masterpieces by Raphael, Rubens, El Greco, Tintoretto, Rembrandt, many others. Studies religious art from early Christian mosaics to the European Baroque, showing how different generations of artists interpreted the Life and Passion of Christ. 8 1/2" x 11". Pub. at $9.95. Sale $1.98.
- 80. CECEL BEATON'S THE FACE OF THE WORLD—AN INTERNATIONAL COMPANION OF PEOPLE AND PLACES. Scores of the world's most renowned personalities, captured in remarkable picture-portraits and lively, most interesting comments by the author, Queen Elizabeth, Sartre, Churchill, Thurber, Audrey Hepburn, many others. Hundreds of photos and sketches, 8 1/2" x 11". Pub. at $10.00. Sale $1.98.
- 81. DANTE'S DIVINE COMEDY, tr. by L. G. White. Luxurious gift edition with 69 full-page 8 1/2" x 10" Dore engravings. A magnificent volume. Pub. at $6.50. Sale $1.98.

$2.98 Each

Come by THE EXCHANGE STORE early Monday while the selection is complete. Sorry, no phone call or mail orders.

THE EXCHANGE STORE
"In Its 52nd Year of Serving Texas Aggies"

$1.98 Each

- 70. PROJECTIVE PSYCHOLOGY: CLINICAL APPROACHES TO THE TOTAL PERSONALITY, ed. by L. E. Abt & L. Bellak. This volume fills the need for an easy reference to the variety of recent projective tests and procedures. Contributors include Drs. Lindner, Westman, Sachs, Levy and Proshansky. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98.
- 71. GOETHE'S IMAGE OF MAN AND SOCIETY, by A. Bergsträsser. A brilliant revelation of the universal scope and the timelessness of Goethe's work. Contains interesting studies of his insight into the foundations of human nature and thought. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98.

- 72. BROOKS ADAMS by Arthur F. Bergin. A fascinating survey and analysis of our main cultural and historical concepts and economic concepts remain vital today. Pub. at $1.98. Sale $1.98.
- 73. GOODYEAR TO UNCLE TOM, by J. C. Furnas. Finally and comprehensively demolishes the myths pertaining to the American Negro, from their origins to the misconceptions of today. "A definitive edition on the Negro in America and the actions which touch him... the work is encyclopedic."—Herald Tribune. Pub. at $1.98. Sale $1.98.
- 74. AMERICAN SOCIETY, by R. M. Williams, Jr. A fascinating survey and analysis of our main cultural and social structures, from geography and resources to sex, religion and education. Pub. at $1.98. Sale $1.98.
- 75. LITERARY CRITICISM—TRAGEDY, by W. G. McCollum. A valuable account of tragic writing, ancient and modern, and a brilliant study of the art of Sophocles, Shakespeare, Racine and Ibsen as a tragic norm. Anouilh, Eliot, Claudel, Fry and O'Neill are among the moderns considered. Pub. at $3.50. Sale $1.98.
- 76. U.S. CAMERA 1958, ed. by T. Maloney. One of the finest volumes in this great series of photographic surveys. Over 300 pages of text and pictures by Brassai, Szechenyi, Frank, Walker Evans, Avedon, Larry Colwell, T. Armstrong-Jones, among others. Complete technical information on the camera; fanatical pleasure for all lovers of beauty. Pub. at $3.95. Sale $1.98.
- 77. GREENWICH VILLAGE in its heyday—THE IMPROPER BOHEMIANS, by Allen Churchill. Vivid recreation of America's Left Bank in the great years of Eugene O'Neill, Edna St. Vincent Millay, John Reed and Maxwell Bodenheim. Illus. Pub. at $5.00. Sale $1.98.
- 78. AMERICAS LITERARY REVOLT, by V. Liron. A comparative study of Edgar Lee Masters, Vachel Lindsay and Carl Sandburg, tying together the threads of 20th century literature, politics and economics, and showing the three poets' common unqualified opposition to the growth of monopoly, imperialism, political corruption, materialism and cultural decadence. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98.
- 79. THE STORY OF AVIATION, by D. C. Cooke. A beautiful photographic exploration of the secret supersonic sky. Recounts Dr. Vincent's early experiments; Kitty Hawk and the Wright Brothers; the Age of Lindbergh; the Battle of Britain, etc. Illus. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98.
- 80. INVENTOR'S PROGRESS, by J. G. Letourneau. An authoritative and highly readable account of the inventor's revolution in technology, and how it came about. The story focuses on the personalities of the great inventors and their dramatic struggles to produce the fabulous world of today. Illus. Pub. at $4.50. Sale $1.98.
- 81. RECENT PROGRESS IN PSYCHIATRY, ed. by H. B. Sell and Victor Wright. First pictorial biography of the great psychologist, international showman and darling of royalty and presidents, illustrated with 137 halftones and 39 line-cuts. Pub. at $6.95. Sale $1.98.
- 82. FOLKLORE IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, by Sir James G. Frazer. The author of the epoch-making "The Golden Bough" has here unearthed a treasure-trove of strange, curious and diverting material about the life and people of ancient Israel—their customs, beliefs, institutions and "mythology." An enduring classic of comparative religion. Pub. at $6.95. Sale $1.98.
- 83. CHRIST AND THE APOSTLES, by F. M. Godfrey. 100 fine reproductions of painting masterpieces by Raphael, Rubens, El Greco, Tintoretto, Rembrandt, many others. Studies religious art from early Christian mosaics to the European Baroque, showing how different generations of artists interpreted the Life and Passion of Christ. 8 1/2" x 11". Pub. at $9.95. Sale $1.98.
- 84. CECEL BEATON'S THE FACE OF THE WORLD—AN INTERNATIONAL COMPANION OF PEOPLE AND PLACES. Scores of the world's most renowned personalities, captured in remarkable picture-portraits and lively, most interesting comments by the author, Queen Elizabeth, Sartre, Churchill, Thurber, Audrey Hepburn, many others. Hundreds of photos and sketches, 8 1/2" x 11". Pub. at $10.00. Sale $1.98.
- 85. DANTE'S DIVINE COMEDY, tr. by L. G. White. Luxurious gift edition with 69 full-page 8 1/2" x 10" Dore engravings. A magnificent volume. Pub. at $6.50. Sale $1.98.

- 99. THE GREAT AGE OF DISCOVERY, by P. Herrman. From the Santa Maria to Kon-Tiki—the whole thrilling story of the men who opened up the unexplored lands and seas. Illus. 508 pp. Pub. at $8.00. Sale $2.98.
- 100. FOUNDERS OF AMERICAN ECONOMIC THOUGHT AND POLICY, by Y. G. White. A superlative review of economic ideas and public policy, told in terms of the philosophies of early American statesmen. Pub. at $8.00. Sale $2.98.
- 101. OTTO RANK—A BIOGRAPHICAL STUDY, by Jessie Taft. The first definitive account of the life and work of the great psychoanalyst, his theories of the creative personality and his break with the Freudians. Pub. at $5.50. Sale $2.98.
- 102. THE COLLEGE YEARS—A TREASURY OF COLLEGE LIFE AND LAUGHTER, ed. by A. C. Spectorsky. College life in all its aspects, reflected brilliantly in writings by Chaucer, Swift, Mencken, Thurber and many others. Illustrated with photos, drawings and cartoons. Pub. at $2.98. Sale $2.98.
- 103. WHO WAS SHAKESPEARE? THIS STAR OF ENGLAND, by D. & C. Osburn. Attributes the authorship of the Bard's works to Edward de Vere, 17th Earl of Oxford, on the basis of analyses of his poems and plays. 1,298 pp. Illus. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $2.98.
- 104. BUFFALO BILL AND THE WILD WEST, by H. B. Sell and Victor Wright. First pictorial biography of the great cowboy, hunter, scout, international showman and darling of royalty and presidents, illustrated with 137 halftones and 39 line-cuts. Pub. at $6.95. Sale $2.98.
- 105. THE COLUMBUS ATLAS—REGIONAL ATLAS OF THE WORLD, by John Bartholomew. 160 pages of 1 1/2" x 10" maps in as many as eight eye-appealing colors. Indexed for quick reference to continents, countries and cities, and grouped in specific land and water regions—indispensable global data to keep abreast of a changing world. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $2.98.
- 106. POPULAR MATHEMATICS, by Deming Miller. The eight mathematical branches from arithmetic to calculus explained for actual enjoyment as well as practical understanding and application. 616 pages, profusely illustrated. Pub. at $10.00. Sale $2.98.
- 107. FOLKLORE IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, by Sir James G. Frazer. The author of the epoch-making "The Golden Bough" has here unearthed a treasure-trove of strange, curious and diverting material about the life and people of ancient Israel—their customs, beliefs, institutions and "mythology." An enduring classic of comparative religion. Pub. at $6.95. Sale $2.98.
- 108. CHRIST AND THE APOSTLES, by F. M. Godfrey. 100 fine reproductions of painting masterpieces by Raphael, Rubens, El Greco, Tintoretto, Rembrandt, many others. Studies religious art from early Christian mosaics to the European Baroque, showing how different generations of artists interpreted the Life and Passion of Christ. 8 1/2" x 11". Pub. at $9.95. Sale $2.98.
- 109. CECEL BEATON'S THE FACE OF THE WORLD—AN INTERNATIONAL COMPANION OF PEOPLE AND PLACES. Scores of the world's most renowned personalities, captured in remarkable picture-portraits and lively, most interesting comments by the author, Queen Elizabeth, Sartre, Churchill, Thurber, Audrey Hepburn, many others. Hundreds of photos and sketches, 8 1/2" x 11". Pub. at $10.00. Sale $2.98.
- 110. DANTE'S DIVINE COMEDY, tr. by L. G. White. Luxurious gift edition with 69 full-page 8 1/2" x 10" Dore engravings. A magnificent volume. Pub. at $6.50. Sale $2.98.

Good Books For Young Readers

- 123. PELLIAN PRILL, by Gloria Forsyth. Lindy learns all the joys and sorrows of motherhood when she raises a baby pelican pup on a remote Florida Key. Gaily illustrated (8-12). Pub. at $2.50. Sale $1.
- 124. MARTIN'S FRIENDS, by Rosemary Jenne. Big colored pictures, by the author, and just enough words capture the secret world of a small boy's play (3 to 6 yrs.). Pub. at $2.00. Sale $1.
- 125. MISS FRANCES' DING DONG SCHOOL BOOK, by Dr. Frances R. Horwich. Activities from the outstanding TV program. Illus. (2-5). Pub. at $2.50. Sale $1.
- 126. ANGELO GOES TO THE CARNIVAL, by E. Goddow. Angelo finds an enchanted world under the sea—and a beautiful costume to wear to the Carnival. Illus. (4-8). Sale $1.
- 127. CAPTAIN IMPOSSIBLE AT SEA, by Peter Abenheim. A delightful mixture of adventure and nonsense by Television's Captain Fortune. (6-10). Illus. Sale $1.
- 128. GRAY LANCE, by G. Rafferty. A young boy, mistaken for a lost police dog, is freed from a trap and patiently nursed and tamed by his young master. (12-16). Sale $1.
- 129. MISS FRANCES' ALL-DAY-LONG BOOK, by Dr. Frances R. Horwich. Keeping a child happy and busy all day long. Illus. (2-5). Pub. at $2.50. Sale $1.
- 130. THE DRAGON AND THE BOOK, written and illustrated by Christine Price. A boy saves a precious book and helps bring the world's knowledge to the knights-and-armor world of Medieval England. (10-14). Sale $1.
- 131. A HORSE WITH A HORN A-HEAD, by Peter Abenheim. Television's Captain Fortune saves a unicorn. (5-8). Illus. Sale $1.
- 132. EVIE AND COOKIE, by I. Elser. A wonderful kangaroo makes friends with animals and people in a new neighborhood. Illus. (7-9). Pub. at $2.75. Sale $1.
- 133. WHOSE BIRTHDAY IS IT? by N. D. Watson. A deeply touching story about a very special birthday party on a snowy December night. Color illus. (5-8). Sale $1.
- 134. DON AND THE BOOK BUS, by H. D. Olds. When the book bus comes to town, Don discovers that reading is fun! (6-9). Illus. Sale $1.
- 135. CHRISTOPHER JARRETT OF NEW PLYMOUTH, by W. Strachan. A boy from London stumbles built a new home in young America. Illus. (13-17). Sale $1.