Five Students Win National Award

Five A&M students have won the Leatherneck Magazine Rifle Marksmanship Awards as a result of rifle-firing competition held over the summer at the Platoon Leader's course in Quantico, Va.

Winners were Carlton W. Trant, Jr., of Anahuac; John F. Platt of Everett, Wash.; Donald W. Cantrell of Waco; Harry F. Sharp of El Campo and James W. Rogers of Baytown.

The respective awards were Trant, Battalion Third Place; Platt, Company High Rifle; Cantrell, Company Second Place; Sharp, Company Third Place, and Rogers, Company Runner-Up.

Medals were presented the quintet in ceremonies in the office of President Earl Rudder last week by Dean of Students James P. Hannigan. Also present were Commandant Col. Joe E. Davis and a Marine Corps representative.

Dormitories To Close Saturday

All dormitories except Milner Hall and Ramps A, C and D of Hart Hall will be closed at noon Saturday for the Christmas holidays, according to Harry L. Boyer, housing manager.

The facilities left open will be available for the use of any students who find it necessary to stay on campus during the two-week vacation period.

To secure a room a student must get a note of permission from the person in whose room he wishes to stay and present it at the housing office before 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Boyer urged students who plan to use some of these rooms to make arrangements as soon as possible since there will be no vacant beds which can be used and students who do not make arrangements will not be allowed to stay in the dormitories over the holidays.

A holiday schedule for the college dining halls, Sbsa and Duncan Halls, has also been released. The halls will close after supper Saturday and open for the evening meal Monday, Jan. 2.

The dormitories will re-open at noon, Jan. 1.

High School Girl Describes Knife - Point Kidnapping

By The Associated Press

SULTAN, Wash. — A stocky, blonde teen-age girl described Wednesday how a shabbily dressed man kidnaped her at knife-point as she prepared to leave for school and held her for 90 minutes before she escaped.

Her banker father received a telephone demand for $25,000 ransom and deposited $2,000 of it in a telephone booth at a service station. It never was picked up.

FBI agents, sheriff's officers and police had found no trace of the kidnaper. The girl, Hazel Irene Oelrich, 17, was not harmed. She said she fled in the kidnap car after her abductor left her alone in it.

The high school senior, wearing a brown skirt, flat-heeled shoes and a blue sweater, said she was at home alone when the middle-aged, graying man knocked at the door.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Oelrich, had left a few minutes earlier for the Sultan branch of the First National Bank of Everett, where they both work. Oelrich is manager of the branch in this community of 821 population, 30 miles east of Everett.

The man asked for her father, Hazel said, and she told him her father had left. Then the man asked if he could leave a note. She went to get a piece of paper and he followed her.

"Then he said he would leave something with me and reached inside his jacket," she said. "He pulled out a hunting knife about 6 inches long and told me to come with him."

They got into an old green two-door car.

"He forced me to lie on the floor until we were outside the Sultan town limits," the girl said.

42 Initiated Into Engineering Society

The Texas Delta Chapter of Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honor society, held its fall initiation Monday night in the Memorial Student Center. Forty-two undergraduates were admitted to the society.

Ag Council Convocation Slated Mar. 6

The third meeting of the A&M Student Agricultural Council was held at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Herman Heep Building.

A general business meeting opened the session, with reports from committeemen and officers. Anton Coy, chairman of the Agriculture Convocation Committee, informed the Council the date for the 1960-61 convocation has been set at March 6, 1961, in the MSC Ballroom.

Topic for the convocation is "What to Expect in the Field of Agriculture During the Coming Administration." The speaker for the event has not yet been confirmed.

Following the reports, Dr. R. C. Potts gave a short discussion concerning the college name change.

DR. FROOD ON FINE ARTS

In which Lucky Strike's gift to the arts selects "The World's Greatest Masterpieces" and reveals all—in fact, more than all—that is known about each.

Whistlers' Mother: This painting, by an unknown artist, depicts the housemother of a college sorority patiently waiting for a dance to break up in the next room. Note how the artist has captured the anguish and devotion of this lonely woman as she frets over her young charges (who were nicknamed "The Whistlers" because of the way in which they obtained dates).

The Venus de Milo: Sculptured in the second century B.C. on behalf of a Greek pencil manufacturer, this great statue has won fame through the ages as the symbol of beauty parlors, bowling alleys, upholstery firms and reducing pills. Today it is used primarily as a vivid warning to small children who bite their fingernails.

Early Rembrandt: That Rembrandt was born a genius is conclusively proven by this little-known masterpiece. This, his first known painting, astounded critics and made the name Billy Rembrandt famous throughout Europe. Believe it or not, Rembrandt created this masterpiece when he was two years old!

Woman in Water: Here is the original of a great "lost" masterpiece which I was able to acquire for the ridiculously low price of $8,500. I mention this only to show what great bargains you can find in art if you know your subject. I determined the authenticity of this priceless original by proving that the small stain, upper left, was made by Renoir's favorite coffee.

The Thinker: What is The Thinker thinking? This has been as baffling to scholars as the riddle of the sphinx and "Who's on first?" But now it can be revealed that this statue is actually a Roman warrior who had been asked, "Remember how great cigarettes used to taste?" When he failed to answer, "Luckies still do," he was turned to stone.

AT LEFT: "MASTER OF ALL MASTERPIECES"! "Here, in my opinion," says Dr. Frood, "is the greatest work of art. Note the bold, clean strokes in LUCKY STRIKE, conveying the wisdom and pride of the manufacturer. Note the perfect circle, representing, of course, the perfect product inside. And in the product itself we find a truly magnificent expression of quality, good taste, pleasure and contentment. Surely, there is no work of art that, over the years, has brought more aesthetic joy not only to all of us in the art world, but to millions of people in all walks of life."

CHANGE TO LUCKIES and get some taste for a change!
