

Aggie Freshmen Looking For Second Win Tonight

By LARRY SMITH

The Aggie Fish will be looking for their third win of the season tonight and their second win over Kilgore as they venture to Kilgore to take on the Rangers.

Kilgore, who is always tough on their home cork-floor court, will try to revenge a humiliating defeat to the hands of the Fish earlier this season. The Fish defeated them in their first outing, 91-67.

The Fish, who looked anything but sharp against the Baylor Cubs last Saturday night in Waco, have not been sharp since before the Christmas holidays, according to Fish Coach Shelby Metcalf. "Our biggest weakness this season is the lack of a good rebounder. We had one last year," added Metcalf. The "good one" was varsity center Jerry Windham.

Metcalf went on to say that top-rated forward Bennie Lennox is playing sub-par ball at the present. "I believe that the steadiest player on the entire Fish team so far has been guard Dave Johnson," added Metcalf.

There will be one change in the Fish line-up tonight in Kilgore. Guard Chuck McGuire will take the place of Cecil Ferguson. McGuire was cited for his play in the Baylor game as he dropped in 10 points.

The other starters include Lennox, Lynn Merritt, Bill Robinette, and Johnson.

Only eight men will make the trip to Kilgore for the Fish. Along with the five starters will be Cecil Ferguson, David Dealy and Ray Poncho.

The team left College Station this morning at 8:30 and will return Friday morning.

The next Fish game will be against the Texas Shorthorns in Austin, Jan. 16. The game will be a preliminary to the varsity game.

Duke Slips Past Virginia, 92-90

By The Associated Press

The eighth-ranked Duke Blue Devils came from 11 points behind with 2:45 left and finally edged upstart Virginia 92-90 in overtime.

It was Art Heyman's field goal with 35 seconds left in regulation time that climaxed an 11-0 burst and finally got Duke even after Virginia (2-11) had built an 81-70 lead. In overtime, it was the 6-foot-5 sophomore's soft push shot that won it with 12 seconds remaining.

Comebacks, spectacular shots and upsets marked the college program in general Wednesday night. St. Joseph's (Pa.) spilled fifth-ranked St. John's 74-71 behind Vince Kempton and Jack Egan in the Windup of a Philadelphia Palestra doubleheader that opened with New York University's 70-67 upset of Temple. Army, holding Villanova scoreless for the first nine minutes, shocked the touted Wildcats 64-49, and Dayton's Flyers beat Duquesne 60-55.

Georgia Tech rolled to an 89-80 overtime triumph over Georgia. Maryland (8-3) got 16 points from Bruce Kelleher in a 55-47 victory over Georgetown, and Air Force squared its record at 5-5, downing Centenary 61-59. Florida (7-6) dominated the boards and rallied to spill Miami of Florida to its fourth loss in 12 games, 81-73, and Toledo (9-1) won its fourth straight Mid-American Conference win, 68-66, over Bowling Green.

NCAA Session 'Long and Wild'

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH—The law-makers for college sports ran into a small college rebellion Wednesday at one of the longest and windiest National Collegiate Athletic Assn. sessions in several years and wound up by passing only about half the controversial legislation that concerned in-season eligibility of players.

After disposing of non-controversial business early—including approval of three new football bowl games and the passing of a couple of restrictive rules about recruiting—the delegates talked themselves into a state of exhaustion and confusion before the session ended.

A key statement of "fundamental policy" barely mustered the necessary two-thirds majority. But a rule limiting college athletes to competition within five calendar years passed by an unexpectedly large vote.

Under this rule, described as a compromise between the four-year limit originally suggested and the need to recognize hardship cases, an athlete must complete his eligibility within five years of the time he first registers at any college. The committee's original idea was to try to end the practice of holding a football player out of competition for one season when he's not needed and thus prolonging his educational process as well as his competitive career.

Two constitutional amendments that were tabled were a proposal for a national pre-registration program under NCAA control and supervision and a proposal for a national transfer rule. It was mainly the small colleges that objected to these propositions as designed to solve the special problems of the bigger members that engage in intensive recruiting.

Also passed was legislation to curb high school all-star football and basketball games and to discourage the importation of over-age foreign athletes.

Requiring that when a prospective athlete gets a visit to a college campus at the expense of someone who wouldn't normally pay the way, that person also must accompany him on the visit.

Ruling that colleges may not pay expenses for athletic talent scouts in recruiting and may not claim he is a staff member and entitled to expenses by paying him a regular fee.

Aggies Prep For Tech

Coach Bob Rogers' charges resumed work yesterday for Friday night's all-important clash with Texas Tech in Lubbock. Carroll Broussard, the new Aggie one-game scoring record-holder, grabs a rebound amidst a cluster of Fish in a scrimmage session.

Professionals Hoard 1960 Sports Spotlights in Texas

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer
Professional football made its appearance and Houston got into the big leagues to feature the sports year in Texas.

As far as championships go, the state was below par but managed to win some important ones. Three professional football clubs came to the state—the Oilers to Houston and the Texans to Dallas in the American Football League and the Cowboys to Dallas in the National Football League.

All three lost money but no more than they expected to drop in the first season.

Houston got a franchise in the National League starting in 1962. Dallas-Fort Worth tried to get into the American League but failed.

One of Texas' big winners was by the indirect route—Rafer Johnson, a native of Hillsboro, was the Olympics champion in the decathlon and was hailed as the greatest athlete in the world. He got his honors while a student of UCLA.

A Texas-owned automobile won the Indianapolis 500 with a new record of 138.76 miles per hour. The car was entered by Ken Rich and Paul Lacey of Dallas with Jim Rathmann as the driver. It was the first Texas-owned car to take the biggest auto race of them all.

Pete Runnels of Lufkin brought fame to Texas when he led the American League in batting with .330. Runnels is second baseman for Boston Red Sox.

Texas produced more Olympic performers than ever before, when Johnson is included. It got a boxer, Humberto Berrera, on the United States team. Berrera is from Robstown. Jay Arnette of the University of Texas was on the Olympics basketball team.

Stone Johnson of Dallas, running for Grambling University of Louisiana, qualified in the 200-meter run. Dave Clark of North Texas State—first Texan ever to vault over 15 feet—and Earl Young of Abilene Christian College, a 400-meter runner, also made the Olympics team. Young won a gold medal running on the 400-meter relay team.

Southwest Texas State won the NAAIA basketball championship and Texas A&I won the national small college football title.

Tyler Junior College won 11 straight games and landed in the Junior Rose Bowl in football.

A. J. Foyt of Houston was United States auto racing champion.

University of Houston won the NCAA golf team championship for the fifth straight year which Richard Crawford of University of Houston repeated as individual champion.

Lamar Tech was NAAIA tennis champion both team and individual. Warren Jacques was singles titlist and Reginald Bennett and Al Driscoll won the doubles. Lamar Tech also took the NAAIA golf championship for the third time in five years.

Al Lawrence of the University of Houston was AAU and NCAA cross-country champion and also won the outdoor AAU 10,000-meter run.

Raymond Berry of Paris, a product of Southern Methodist, was all-pro end. He plays with Baltimore in the National Football League.

Abner Haynes of Dallas was selected as the outstanding player in the American Football League. Bernard (Tut) Bartz of Dallas was captain of the United States Davis Cup team.

Jimmie Demaret of Houston was named to golf's Hall of Fame.

All in all it was a good year for Texas sports.
