

Ag Golfers Start Tryouts

Ralph Johnston, a sophomore from Long Island City, New York, leads scorers vying for places on the 1961 Aggie Golf team.

Johnston carded a 70-71-141 on the A&M course, two strokes better than the 70-73-143 posted by Dickie Duple, a junior from Galveston.

Golf Coach Henry Ransom said 15 golfers are in competition and will complete 216 holes of play in rounds which will qualify the low six scorers for participation in spring meets.

Slowed by the inclement weather of late, the linksmen will play the local 18-hole course as often as possible during the next three weeks in hopes of getting in their rounds.

Iowa Loses Four Starters To Scholastics

By The Associated Press

IOWA CITY, Iowa — Ninth-ranked Iowa's hopes to overtake undefeated Ohio State in the Big Ten basketball race collapsed Wednesday when four Hawkeye starters became scholastically ineligible.

The only regular available for the remainder of the season is junior Don Nelson, the team's leading scorer with a 22-point average.

Sidelined by classroom failures were sophomores Frank Allen and Tom Harris, junior Dave Maher and senior Ron Zaggar.

"After a fine start this season, the loss of these men certainly dims any chance of a strong finish in the conference race," said Coach Sharm Scheuerman.

The Hawkeys have won 12 of 15 games, losing only to St. Louis, Purdue and Cincinnati.

Iowa has a 4-1 conference record—second best in the Big Ten—and was considered the only team with a chance to dethrone top-ranked Ohio State.

The Hawkeys play at Indiana Saturday, host Wisconsin Monday and then entertain Ohio State Feb. 18.
