

Extension 'Mother Of Year' Title Given Mrs. Rudder

Mrs. Earl Rudder has been chosen Mother of the Year for the Extension Service Club. Her credentials and biography will be entered in competition at a Fourth district convention of the Texas Federation of Womens Clubs. Mrs. Rudder is the mother of seven children, ranging from college to that of the first grade. They are Earl, Jr. (Bud), age 20; Anne, age 18; Linda, age 13; Jane, age 11; and Bob, age 6. "Every day of our lives, Mother is constantly chosen to consider our needs and interests above her own," they declare. "Mother has been a guide, example and inspiration to our entire family." While Mrs. Rudder's family holds first place in her heart, she generously contributes her time and talent to school, church and civic endeavors. She is an active worker in the A&M Methodist Church, serving currently on the Commission of Membership and Evangelism. Last year, she devoted much time and study to the Citizens Advisory Committee, which was set up to study the A&M Consolidated School program in respect to facilities and curricula. Mrs. Rudder grew up on a ranch in Menard County, graduated from the University of Texas, settled in Brady to teach school and one year later married the young coach there whom she had known while in the University. At this point she began to adjust her life to the colorful, varied and challenging careers of her husband. In her current role as First Lady of the A&M College campus, Mrs. Rudder approaches each full day with carefully laid plans. Many college events, such as football season when guests are frequent and military weekends when numerous officials visit the campus, she performs her duties with graciousness and pride. In Brady and Austin, where she formerly lived, Mrs. Rudder was an active participant in community affairs. At one time she was working in four different Parent-Teacher Association groups. She has been a Scout leader and county chairman for the Red Cross membership drive. She worked regularly in the Junior Department of the Brady Methodist Church. At present Mrs. Rudder is a member of the Bryan-College Station branch of the American Association of University Women; honorary president of the Federation of Texas A&M College Mothers Clubs; member of the Brazos County A&M Mothers Club, and an active supporter of the Mothers and Dads Club at Consolidated School.

RE WEEK SPEAKERS

(Continued from Page 1) Summer camps and other varied activities which are related to churches, and has established a high reputation as religious leader in these activities. Rev. Bunjes will live in Henderson Hall, and will lead the forum and discussion groups for dormitories 7, 8 and 9 of Law Hall. These meetings will be in the lounge of Henderson Hall. George M. Stephenson is a native of Collinsville, Tex., and is now in his fourth year as minister of the Broadway Church of Christ in Lubbock, Tex., which hosts one of the largest congregations of the Churches of Christ. Stephenson is a graduate of Wilbren Christian College Magna Cum Laude. He served as president of his senior class in 1936 and was elected to Who's Who Among College Students. He has done graduate work with the Harding College School of Religion in Memphis, Tenn. The minister has preached at evangelistic meetings in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee, Mississippi, Illinois, New York, California, and Florida, and has delivered lectures for several colleges maintained by members of the Churches of Christ.

Stephenson is on the editorial staff of the "20th Century Christian," published in Nashville, Tenn., and the "Firm Foundation," published in Austin, Tex. The forum and discussion groups led by Stephenson will be conducted in the lounge of Dormitory 10. Rev. C. Knox Poole, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Freeport, Tex., will conduct forum and discussion groups for Dormitories 5 and 7, with the meetings being conducted in the lounge of Dormitory 5. Rev. Poole has served as pastor of his present church since 1958, having been born in Troy, N. C. He received his B.A. degree from Davidson College in 1929, and while attending college he participated in freshman football. He was also a member of the college glee club, symphony orchestra, a vocal quartet, and Sigma Delta Fraternity. The minister also attended Guilford College and participated in varsity baseball. As a public school teacher, Poole taught social sciences, and obtained his B.D. degree in 1934 and Th.M. degree in 1939 from Union Theological Seminary in Virginia. Rev. Poole has served as pastor of the Presbyterian church in Romney, W. Va.; director, Christian Education for the Presbyterian Synod of Louisiana, and Pastor, Third Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, La. At present, Rev. Poole is a member of the Brazos Presbytery, Synod of Texas, and holds the office of Chairman of Adult Work on Christian Education Committee.

Aggie Affections

Aggies voice their affection for Mrs. Rudder far and wide. Syd Heaton, cadet colonel of the Corps, says "Mrs. Rudder is an unusual woman, a wonderful mother and is well deserving of the honor of being Mother of the Year." Sincere concern for friends and deep compassion for the ill or incapacitated are characteristic of Mrs. Rudder. In 1950, a Brady friend, Mrs. Norman Lawler, fell victim to polio and since has lived in an iron lung. Mrs. Lawler holds a special regard for Mrs. Rudder and says, "She is loved and respected by all for her sweetness and perfect example of a selfless mother, wife and friend. She is the best of American womanhood." Mrs. Rudder visits the sick and carries flower arrangements she herself has made. A favorite pastime of hers is that of playing the piano "for my own enjoyment." Aside from her duties as wife of a College president and commanding general, Mrs. Rudder is especially fond of the titles mother and homemaker.

'Language, Arts' Theme Given Meet

"Language and Arts" will be the theme of the program for the A&M Consolidated Mothers and Dads Club Tuesday night. The regular monthly meeting will be held in the Consolidated High School Auditorium beginning at 7:30 p.m. The program will feature five Consolidated teachers. Mrs. R. E. Leighton and Mrs. Frank Coulter will represent the Elementary School, Mrs. R. L. Elkins and Mrs. Harrison Hieth will represent the Junior High School and Mrs. Ermine Worrell will represent the High School. The teachers will discuss the objectives of the language-arts in their respective areas of teaching. This is the first of a series of discussions which is designed to acquaint parents and patrons with the teaching program being done at Consolidated. A. F. "Tex" Isbell, president of the Mothers and Dads Club, stated that the people of College Station have been asking for this type of program. He also indicated that parents and interested patrons, whether they are members of the Club or not, are cordially invited to attend this meeting in response to their requests. Following the presentation a period has been set aside for questions and open discussion. A short business session will conclude the program during which plans will be made for the annual Community Supper which will be held in March.

Rev. C. Knox Poole, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Freeport, Tex., will conduct forum and discussion groups for Dormitories 5 and 7, with the meetings being conducted in the lounge of Dormitory 5.

Senior Grants Revealed

Dr. C. H. Ransdell, faculty sponsor of Phi Eta Sigma, the freshman honor society, has urged all graduating seniors who are members of the society to see him at his office in Room 114 of the Engineering Building. The sponsor reminded that the national fraternity offers two $300 scholarships every year and that Mar. 1 has been set as the deadline for this year's entrants. The scholarships are reportedly offered on the basis of the student's scholastic record, evidence of creative ability, evidence of financial need, promise of success and personality. Only Phi Eta Sigma members are eligible to enter.
