

JFK Urges Governors To Support Building

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON—President Kennedy Thursday prodded the nation's governors to act at once so a billion dollars in federal funds can be poured into road and school projects that would put more men to work.

"Use of these funds is now largely dependent on state and local action," Kennedy said in telegrams to the 50 state chiefs.

"I will appreciate your cooperation to speed these and other public programs to strengthen the economy in your area and throughout the nation."

This was a follow-through on Kennedy's announcement at his news conference Wednesday night that he has ordered quickened spending of $734 million on the federal highway program.

In addition, Kennedy told the governors Thursday, he has freed $350 million for construction grants to be used mainly for schools in regions whose classrooms are crowded because they serve youngsters of federal employees, along with their normal pupil population. Some of these grants also would go for constructing hospitals and waste treatment plants.

The billion-plus in highway and school funds normally would have been distributed during the three months starting in April, the White House said.

In his telegrams to the governors, Kennedy appealed for "prompt consideration of specific action at every level of government in this country to invigorate our economy, including acceleration of state and local projects that are genuinely useful and will provide immediate jobs and business help."

Meanwhile, the Interior Department announced it is putting Reclamation Bureau employees in Denver on overtime to speed award contracts for construction and equipment. This, the department said, is in response to Kennedy's orders to help in battling recession.

On Capitol Hill, Republican congressional leaders agreed to cooperate in what they deemed sound measures.

But Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said, "We do not believe this is the time to push the panic button."

Dirksen suggested that some administration officials—Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, for one—"may talk this country into a depression and we want the tag to be placed where it belongs."

Along this same line, House GOP Leader Charles Halleck of Indiana said some Kennedy administration spokesmen have made statements "downgrading our country so much that it could lead to a real inferiority complex."

Annual Secretaries' Seminar To Get Underway Tomorrow

Angell, Vice Chancellor for the A&M System and Secretary to the Board of Directors, will act as Mistress of Ceremonies tomorrow when the more than 150 secretaries from 125 colleges and universities will attend the seminar, "Adventures in Variations," sponsored by the Bryan-College Station Chapter of The National Secretaries Assn. (International). Mrs. Gandy is vice president of the local chapter and will represent Bryan-College Station Chapter as candidate for Secretary of the Year at the annual Division meeting to be held in Corpus Christi in May.

Registrations have been received from secretaries from Fort Worth, Corsicana, Waco, Austin and Houston and many from the Bryan-College Station area.

Internal Revenue Expert To Give Foreigners Help

Foreign Student Advisor Robert L. Melcher has announced an official from the Internal Revenue Service will be on campus next Monday and Tuesday to assist any foreign students in filling out their income tax forms.

He will be available at Melcher's office in Room 27 of Milner Hall from 1-3 p.m. both afternoons.

The advisor reminded federal income tax problems frequently occur among foreigners and anyone having any questions whatsoever should be sure and come by.

He related many persons have previously asked for just such a service.

Thermonuclear Expert Delivers Lecture Tonight

Dr. Robert James Mackin Jr., will give a graduate lecture tonight in Room 211 of the W. T. Doherty Building. He will talk on "Property of High-Vacuum Arch."

The lecturer is group leader, Thermonuclear Experiment Division, Oak Ridge National Laboratory. The public is invited to the lecture.

"Most of the universe is highly ionized plasma," Dr. Wayne C. Hall, Dean of the Graduate School, said yesterday, in announcing the lecture.

"The ionized plasma or thermonuclear process was first outlined by the astrophysicists in the 1930's as the process responsible for energy generated in the stars. Because of the obviously high temperatures required to make it work, scientists did not even think of reproducing such reactions for energy purposes until the nuclear weapon developments of the 1940's.

Realizing the tremendous energy potential of this process, scientists throughout the world have been working energetically in this area of science. So far, a useful thermonuclear reaction has not been achieved, but many scientists expect a break-through in the next 20 years or so. In Mackin's talk, he will review many of the achievements made in this area of science."

Mackin received his BE degree in 1949 from Yale University in Electrical Engineering; his MS degree in 1951 from the California Institute of Technology in Physics and his PhD degree in 1953 from the same institution.

Somehow we don't think of the baby's bassinette as a "scientific development." But it is. It has been designed to protect a child from exterior hazards—and from himself.

Religion isn't what we would call "scientific." But it, too, embraces this theory of double protection.

The man or woman who worships God faithfully is prepared for the unexpected crises in life. And his mature conscience is ready to cope with temptation.

This isn't to say that nothing ever goes wrong for the ardent church-goer. But he meets each outward or inward challenge with adequate spiritual resources.

There are impelling reasons why you need the Church and its undergirding strength. And for every one that is evident today, there are others you'll confront tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

plans for any underpass to be included in the project.

These agreements on the part of the railroad companies are customary and in accordance with the rules of the United States Bureau of Public Roads.

What effect the construction of a multi-million dollar project, such as the proposed crossing, would have on College Station—especially the North Gate area—would remain to be seen. The Highway Commission, which began studying the situation in 1954, foresees "benefits . . . to the railroad companies, and A&M College, and the local governments" if the proposal is accepted.
