

Mustangs Dim Aggie Hopes

SMU's Mustangs blew out the Aggies' flickering candle last night in the SMU Coliseum at Dallas and most of the Aggies' hopes for a conference championship went out with the flame.

Final score was Mustangs—65, Aggies—61.

Carroll Broussard, the game's top scorer, finally found his range again after being in a slight slump for several games as he hooped 26 points.

While Broussard was hot, hitting 9 of 20 field goals, most of the other Cadets were extremely cold. Only Lewis Qualls, who dropped in 6 of 10 goals from the floor and 4 of 4 free throws, was able to hit in the double figures.

The Stanley twins, who had been red-hot in the last three games, were extremely off against the Mustangs. Don hit on only 2 of 12 field goals and Pat only managed 1 of 11.

All in all the Cadets had one of their worst nights of the season in field goal percentages as they hit only 30 per cent from the floor while SMU was racking up on 41.8 per cent of their shots.

Top man for the Mustangs was big Jan Loudermilk with 20 points and followed closely by Jon Larson with 17.

SMU jumped off to a quick lead and held it until 11:06 left in the first half when Broussard dropped in a free throw to make the score 16-15 for the Ags.

The lead see-sawed back and forth until 5:34 when Steve Strange hooped a charity toss to tie the contest at 25-25. Strange quickly dropped in a hook shot to push the Mustangs to a 27-25 lead.

At this point Broussard and the sharp-eyed Qualls teamed up to accelerate the Aggies to a 33-30 lead at half time.

The Cadets continued to lead, with five points the largest, until 9:45 left when Larson hit on a jump shot to put the Mustangs ahead, 49-48.

The Methodists maintained the lead until 2:42 left in the game when Billy Young hit on a long jump shot to tie the game at 57-57.

After this last tie, Hammond took over and quickly dropped in one jump shot and two driving layups to put the Mustangs out of reach. Larson added a jump shot while the Ags were getting only one field goal.

With only 33 seconds left, Broussard hit on a jump shot and that was all the scoring.

An over-flow crowd of 8,500 fans, who displayed approval frequently by throwing red flags on the court of play when the referees made a "bad" call, witnessed the hard-fought contest.

The Aggies won in one department—grabbing 49 rebounds to 47 for SMU. Broussard nabbed 12 and Qualls got eight. Loudermilk was the leading rebounder for the Mustangs with 11.

From 10:58 until 6:37, a period of four minutes and 21 seconds, the Aggies did not score a point. Broussard closed this cold spell by hitting on a jump shot.

At the present time the Aggies are riding on a 13-8 record for the season and 7-4 in conference play.

Texas' Longhorns invade Aggie land Friday night, Feb. 24, to try their luck against the Mustangs. Game time is at 8 p.m. with the freshman game starting at 6.

Buckeyes Continue To Lead Associated Press Cage Poll

By The Associated Press The Ohio State Buckeyes are within three victories of a perfect regular season Wednesday while maintaining a firm grip on the top of the Associated Press basketball poll.

The Buckeyes posted victory No. 21 Monday night, defeating Indiana 73-69. This latest triumph came on the heels of Ohio State's come-from-behind success against Iowa, 62-61, Saturday.

It was the Iowa game that kept the Buckeyes in first place in the poll for the 11th straight week. Voting was based on games through Saturday and Ohio State for the 10th week in a row was a unanimous choice of the special panel of sports writers and broadcasters, getting 36 votes.

Unanimity was the order of the week as St. Bonaventure, with a 20-1 mark, grabbed all the votes for the runner-up spot. The Bon-

Red Raiders Crush Baylor; Longhorns Slip Past Rice

By The Associated Press WACO — Big Harold Hudgens led Texas Tech to a smashing 98-81 triumph over Baylor Tuesday night to push the Red Raiders two games ahead in the Southwest Conference basketball race with only three games to go.

The giant center poured in 24 points and Del Ray Mounts carved out 22 as Tech came back for a furious 57-point second half to crush the cellar-dwelling Bears.

Jack Dugan hit a 3-pointer for Texas, stealing the ball for a lay-up and then cashing in on a free throw attempt. It was the first time Texas had led since its 51-50 lead five minutes deep in the second half.

Rice led by as much as eight points most of the ball game. Texas never trailed after taking the lead on Dugan's heroics. Butch Skeete stole the ball with a minute left and was fouled, then hit two free throws to make the score 80-77. Jim Fox of Rice hit a field goal with 18 seconds left and as the game ended Skeete sank a free throw to make the final score 81-79.

Until that 51-50 lead, the previous Texas bulge was 27-26 with 6:50 left in the first half. But Rice led at the half 42-39. The victory gave Texas a 7-4 conference record. Mike Maroney of Rice was the high point man with 26 points. Lasiter scored 22 for Texas.

Speedy Madisonville Humbles Columbus In Coliseum Playoffs

By BOB ROBERTS Speed and an aggressive defense carried the Madisonville Mustangs past the Columbus Cardinals, 60-38, in a Class AA Bi-District basketball game in G. Rollie White Coliseum last night.

The win catapulted the Mustangs into the regional playoffs which will be held in G. Rollie White Saturday.

Columbus jumped off to an early lead, but Madisonville quickly overcame the deficit and led for the final three quarters. The Mustangs capitalized on the steady shooting of seniors Tommy Poe and Charles Grizzle, who hit 17 and 13 points, to take game honors. Columbus had only one man to score on the double figures, Center Dickie Pate, who tallied 12.

North Carolina, Kansas State, West Virginia and Southern California round out the first 10. Kansas State slumped two places, as did Southern California. West Virginia, winner over Penn State and Pitt, moved up one position, while North Carolina stayed put.

Ohio State's remaining games are against Wisconsin Saturday, Michigan State March 4 and Illinois March 11.

The top ten, with won-lost records through Saturday and first place votes and points on a 10-9-8 etc. basis:

1. Ohio State 36 (20-0) 360
2. St. Bonaventure (20-1) 324
3. Cincinnati (19-3) 254
4. Bradley (19-4) 191
5. Iowa (14-4) 153
6. Duke (18-4) 15
7. North Carolina (18-4) 144
8. Kansas State (16-4) 118
9. West Virginia (20-3) 104
10. Southern California (16-4) 72

Ref Cites 2nd Round As Costly To Ingo

By The Associated Press Referee Art Mercante believes Ingemar Johansson missed his big opportunity in the second round of his second heavyweight title fight with Floyd Patterson last June 20.

It was in the second round that the Swede nailed Patterson with a right high on the forehead. Patterson appeared hurt and retreated. Instead of tearing in like he did in the first fight, which he won on a third round technical knockout, Johansson moved in slowly and carefully with his left hand extended. By the time he reached Patterson, Floyd had regained complete control of his senses.

Patterson, who finally won on a fifth round knockout, maintains that the right was a good shot but that he knew what he was doing and played possum in hope that Johansson would get careless. Johansson, after looking over the movies, said he should have followed up.

Mercante, a handsome, young official who worked the second fight, agrees with Johansson. "When a fighter is hurt he either retreats or holds," said Mercante in warming over the fight at a boxing writers luncheon. "If he's hurt real bad, he instinctively holds. If he's hurt, but can rationalize, he will retreat. "Patterson was hurt, but he still could rationalize. He retreated, but his eyes looked glazed. If Johansson had been more alert he would have had him.

Intramurals

Intramural sports finally got under way this semester with volleyball the only event on the agenda. In Class A Volleyball, Mitchell Hall blanked A-2, 2-0; I-2 thumped past Sq. 2, 2-1; D-2 whitewashed F-2, 2-0; Sq. 17 edged G-3, 2-1; C-2 won over C-1, 2-1; Sq. 11 shutout E-1, 2-0; and K-2 held B-1 scoreless by the score of 2-0. In the only game scheduled in Class C Volleyball, Mitchell Hall shutout Puryear Hall, 2-0. More contests are scheduled to get under way as soon as the "typical Aggie weather" clears up.
