

Prairie View Has First No. 1 in Basketball

By The Associated Press
AUSTIN—The 24 best teams of 1,000 hopefuls in Texas Interscholastic League basketball begins the final championship weeding-out process at Gregory Gymnasium here Thursday.

Of the 24 regional titlists in the five classes only one comes to the 41st annual Interscholastic League Tournament with an unbeaten season record. That is Buna in Class AA, coached by M. N. Cotton Robinson.

Buna rolled over 41 opponents including a dozen Class AAAA squads. If Buna—the tournament's only really outstanding favorite of any classification—wins the title this year it will make its third championship in five years.

Buna makes its first tournament appearance at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the opening Class AAAA game against New Boston which has a 28-3 season record.

Many teams and busloads of backers arrived in Austin Wednesday afternoon and the schoolboys got in their first workouts at Gregory Gym to accustom themselves to the unfamiliar court.

The tourney's first game begins at 8:45 a. m. Thursday with Aspermont 32-2 taking on Mertzon. Mertzon 26-3 in Class B. Games in this bracket continue throughout the morning and afternoon, matching Hutto 27-7 with Blanket 28-5 at 10:10 a. m.; Franks-ton 38-3 versus Santa Rosa 21-8 at 11:35 a. m.; Mauriceville 31-4 versus Forestburg 34-2 at 1:45 p. m.

Play in Class A begins in mid-afternoon, matching Brownsboro 34-2 and Louise 25-6. Class AA play begins with the Buna—New Boston game; Classes AAA and AAAA begin their elimination Friday afternoon and night.

The Class AAAA division—top class—will have Denton, Amarillo Palo Duro, Houston Austin and Austin, with Austin the only returnee. Houston Austin, with a 32-5 record, will be favored for the championship won by Beaumont South Park last year.

The Class AAAA teams do not swing into action until Friday night when Austin of Houston clashes with Austin and Denton takes on Palo Duro.

Class AAA has only one 1960 team returning—South San Antonio. But Clear Creek, with a 35-1 record, is the favorite. Class AAA starts Friday afternoon with Clear Creek meeting Dumas and Naacogoches playing South San Antonio.

Class AA has one team back—Dimmitt, which has a 30-5 record. Buna, which comes to the tournament with its great unbeaten record, plays New Boston in the opening round Thursday night. Dimmitt tackles Needville.

Class A has all new teams—White Deer, James Bowie, Brownsboro and Louise. This class starts play Thursday afternoon with Brownsboro meeting Louise and James Bowie engaging White Deer. The latter, with a 31-2 record, is the championship favorite.

Jackson 445, Burgess 405, McGill 385 and Moe 367.

Art Heyman, Duke's star sophomore, received 352 points to top a third team which also includes York Larese of North Carolina, John Rudometkin of Southern California, and John Havlicek and Larry Siegfried, both of Ohio State. Larese got 331 points, Rudometkin 316, Havlicek 295 and Siegfried 269.

Dave Debusschere of Detroit, with 237 points, tops an honorable mention group of 45. Len Chapman of Wake Forest, with 205 points, is second on the honorable mention list followed by Wayne Hightower of Kansas, 155, Rod Thorn of West Virginia, 153, Tom Chilton of East Tennessee State, 149, Don Nelson of Iowa, 128, Jerry Graves of Mississippi State, 89, and Tom Meschery of St. Mary's (Calif.), 88.

Lucas, a junior, is the only repeater from the 1960 All America. Dischinger, also a junior and with Lucas a member of the 1960 U.S. Olympic team, moved up from the second team as did Stith, Kaiser and Walker.

Stith and Kaiser are seniors, Walker and junior. Jackson, who made last year's first team, dropped down to the second quintet.

These six, along with the other players on the first three teams, will receive certificates from The Associated Press.

Lucas, a 6-8 whiz, led the Buckeyes to the national collegiate (NCAA) championship a year ago. This year the Bucks expanded their winning streak to 27 in a row, through last Saturday, with Lucas again the leader.

Stith is the "kind of boy who spoils a coach," said Coach Eddie Donovan of St. Bonaventure, a team ranked second to Ohio State in The Associated Press weekly poll.

"He does everything so easily and so gracefully that you're scarcely aware of how hard he's working. But he always turns up in the right place at the right time and he can put that up there with every imaginable kind of shot."

Others winning honorable mention were:

John Turner, Louisville; Fred Crawford, St. Bonaventure; Jeff Cohen, William and Mary; Chris Smith, Virginia Tech; Don Kojis, Marquette; Larry Comley, Kansas State; Gary Phillips, Houston; Carroll Broussard, Texas A&M; Whitey Martin, St. Bonaventure; Cedric Price, Kansas State; Paul Hogue, Cincinnati; Jack Foley, Holy Cross; Mel Nowell, Ohio State; John Egan, Providence.

Jim Gus Guydon, Drake; Charlie Warren, Oregon; Howie Carl, DePaul; Bill Bridges, Kansas; Dick Hickox, Miami (Fla.); Billy Lickert, Kentucky; Bill Green, Colorado State Univ.; John Tidwell, Michigan; Jack Egan, St. Joseph's (Pa.); Henry Whitney, Iowa State; Bill McClintock, California; Bruce Drysdale, Temple; Dave Fedor, Florida State; Jim Hadnot, Providence; Bill Depp, Vanderbilt; Del Ray Mounts, Texas Tech; Al Butler, Niagara; Lou Merchant, Florida; Charles Henke, Missouri; George Nattin, Louisiana State; Harold Hudgens, Texas Tech; Bob Wiesenahhn, Cincinnati; Ron Heller, Wichita.
