

A&M Cagers Place Three On All-SWC

A&M pulled down some top honors on the 1961 Associated Press All-Southwest Conference basketball team yesterday as three men were voted to positions on the first two teams.

Carroll Broussard was one of three unanimous choices on the first team while Don and Pat Stanley grabbed positions on the second unit.

Two more of the first team was made up of Harold Hudgens and Del Ray Mounts of Texas Tech who also were unanimous choices.

From the top three men, there were quite a few varied opinions as to who could fill out the top five. And the voting was so close that the eight SWC coaches who picked the team for AP gave Jan Loudermilk of Southern Methodist University a slim nod for fourth position, but declared a tie for fifth between three players. Clyde Rhoden and Pat Foster of Arkansas and Donnie Lasiter all wound up in a deadlock for fifth.

Although Texas Tech and Arkansas each had two players on the first team, A&M was the only school to place two men on the second team.

Rice, Baylor and Texas Christian failed to place a man on either the first or second teams.

From the looks of things, the SWC will be quite a bit stronger next year since five of the players on the first two teams were juniors. These talented juniors include Broussard, Mounts, Hudgens, Loudermilk of the first team and Arkansas' Jerry Carlton of the second team.

Broussard Breaks 3 Marks With Every Swish Of Net

Carroll Broussard, the greatest varsity basketball performer in the history of A&M will break three school scoring records every time he drops in a single point.

Broussard has a chance to break two more records if he has a good night against Arkansas tonight. He only needs three field goals to break TCU's H. E. Kirchner most field goals in one conference season (116) record. This will be a conference record.

If Broussard hits for 36 points tonight, he will break Neil Swisher's season career record of 984. Swisher compiled this total in three seasons while Broussard has played only two.

To become the second highest scorer in SWC history, Broussard has to score only three points. Raymond Downs of Texas is presently in second position as he scored 322 points in 12 conference games in 1956. Nick O'Neal of TCU is the top man as he scored 362 points in 12 conference games in 1955.

With only one game remaining, Broussard has averaged 22.4 points per game throughout the season and 24.6 per game in conference games.

So far this season the Frenchman from Port Arthur has broken 11 school records. They are:

- (1) Most points scored in one game: 37 against Texas twice and Arkansas. (Old record was 36 by James Addison vs. SMU in 1953-54.)
- (2) Most points scoring in one season: 519 (Old record of 430 points by Broussard in 1959-60.)
- (3) Most points scored in one season of conference play: 320 (Old record of 244 by Broussard in 1959-60.)
- (4) Most points scored in conference career: 564 (Old record of 540 by Neil Swisher in 1958-59. Swisher's record was through three years while Broussard has played only two.)
- (5) Most field goals in one game: 15 against Arkansas. (Old record of 13 by Bill Brophy vs. LSU in 1954-55.)

- (6) Most field goals scored in one conference game: 15 against Arkansas. (Old record 11 by Archie Carroll vs. Arkansas in 1958-59; 11 by Broussard vs. Arkansas in 1959-60.)
- (7) Most field goals in one season: 184 (Old record of 152 by Broussard in 1959-60.)
- (8) Most field goals in one season of conference play: 114 (Old record of 90 by Archie Carroll in 1958-59.)
- (9) Most free throws in one game: 19 against Texas. (Old record of 16 by James Addison vs. SMU and Arkansas in 1953-54.)
- (10) Most free throws in one conference game: 19 against Texas. (Old record of 16 by James Addison vs. SMU and Arkansas in 1953-54.)
- (11) Most free throws in one season: 151 (Old record of 130 by James Addison in 1953-54.)

Buckeyes Remain In No. 1 Spot

By The Associated Press

Mighty Ohio State is the unanimous choice as the No. 1 college basketball team in the nation for the 12th straight week, and St. Bonaventure is clinging to the runnerup spot by a slender thread.

The weekly Associated Press poll Monday showed the unbeaten, high-flying Buckeyes still unchallenged. They received all 36 of the first place votes cast by the special panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

On the basis of 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc., St. Bonaventure fell farther back of the lead and just managed to beat out Cincinnati for the No. 2 position.

The Bonnies dropped their second decision of the season Saturday night to Niagara 87-77 after scoring their 22nd victory earlier in the week over Siena.

This caused distribution of the second place votes, which a week ago went solidly to St. Bonaventure, and tightened the race for the season's runnerup honors.
