

Baseballers Travel To Big H For Practice Game With Rice

By JOE CALLICOATTE
The Aggie baseball team will make its second appearance of the 1961 season today as they travel to Houston for a practice bout with the Rice Owls.

Even though Friday's game was the season opener, Coach Tom Chandler said he was quite disappointed in the Cadets' showing. The main thing that hurt was the fielding errors, said Chandler, "and our hitting just wasn't up to par."

Chandler pointed out, that to have a winning team, you must have one of several combinations. A team must have good hitting and a strong defense or a strong pitching staff. The Cadets are a little weak on the mound this season so Chandler said he was relying on the latter combination and as he put it, "We just didn't work it that way Friday."

In Friday's outing, Sam Houston jumped to a 3-0 lead in the third inning as a result of two errors and one hit. Three more runs were scored by the Bearcats in the top of the sixth inning as Jerry Warren relieved Starter Ed Singley on the mound. Warren gave up four bases on balls, walking in one run, before Ray Davis banded

A&M Bowling Team Sewes Up Title

By LEE WILSON
The A&M Match Bowling Team all but mathematically sewed up its second straight Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference championship in San Antonio last Saturday.

The Aggies, long recognized as one of the best college bowling teams in the Southwest, went into Saturday's action leading the conference by only seven games. After matches with Southern Methodist University, Arlington State College, and San Antonio College the Aggies found themselves with a solid twelve and one half game margin over the second place Ponies.

Bowling for the Aggies were Larry Dantzler, a junior civil engineering major from Dallas; Parks Mahaney, a senior electrical engineering major from Ft. Worth; John Tinney, a junior industrial education major from Longview; Bob "Possum" Korose, a freshman chemistry major from Houston; and Lee Wilson, an education major from Austin. Accompanying the team was Marvin "Pro" Butler, economics professor, who is the team faculty advisor.

out a single to score the fifth and sixth runs.

Don Costlow came in during the sixth inning to retire the side, but not before the final Sam Houston run was scored. Mike Spence finished the game for the Cadets at the mound and didn't allow any runs.

A&M's scoring didn't start until they collected their first hit in the sixth inning as Bill Puckett slugged a home run into the scoreboard and brought home two runs. Two more runs were collected in the eighth on a single by Bill Hickerson.

Aggie pitchers gave up seven runs on nine hits and five errors while Sam Houston gave up five runs on four hits and three mistakes.

Sophomores Star In Scrimmage Game

Saturday was a day for the sophomores as they lead the Maroons past the Whites, 26-0, in a game-condition scrimmage on Kyle Field.

The scrimmage wrapped up the second week of spring training with only two more to go.

The second team backfield which is made up only of sophomores—Quarterback Jim Linnstaedter, Halfbacks George Hargett and Phil Peter and Fullback Jerry Rogers—combined to score the first three touchdowns.

Coach Jim Myers cited first team center, Jerry Hopkins, second team center, Jerry Jenkins, and second team left tackle, George Hogan, for their outstanding play during the afternoon.

Myers also liked the play of the entire second team line.

The Maroon team consisted of the first and second units while Bill Puckett, (no cap), soph catcher from Oklahoma City, trots across the plate on Kyle Field after hitting a three-run homer against Sam Houston State. The big hit came in the sixth inning and was the first hit of the day for A&M as they were downed, 7-5.

Thinclads Have Fine Outing But Lose To 'Horns & U of H'

The Aggie thinclads, competing in their first outdoor track meet of the season, made a fine showing in Austin last weekend before going down to Texas and Houston in a triangular meet.

Texas compiled 75 points to 56 for Houston, the defending champions, and the Aggies wrapped up 39 points.

The only two double winners in the meet were from Texas—Ralph Alspaugh, in the sprints, and Ray Cunningham, in the hurdles.

Gale McDaniel was the only Aggie to place in the top position as he won in the pole vault with a jump of 12-3. James Daniel tied for first in the high jump with Jerry Bain of Texas. They both cleared 6-½.

The Aggie sprint relay team, running without their ace anchor man, Ed Williams, broke the A&M school record in the 440-yard relay. They placed second to Houston and were 1/10 of a second under the school mark with a clocking of 41.6. Houston's winning time was 41.4.

Curt Roberts, Eugene Dornak, Bob Clark and George Tedford made up the relay team.

In the 100-yard dash, Clark and Dornak placed second and third with clockings of 9.7 and 9.8. They tied in the 220-yard dash with a time of 21.5.

Other Aggies placing in the meet were: Hubert Nelson (4th in the pole vault with 10-9), Charles Tiemann (3rd in shot put with 47-6), Charles Hoppe (4th in shot put with 46-7½), John Long (3rd in javelin with 194-3½), Jim Brewer (4th in javelin with 191-1).

Ike Frazier and Emil Pawlik (tied with Charles Giesey of Texas for 3rd in the high jump at 5-9), Ken Rippstein (4th in 120-yard high hurdles with 15.3), Thad Crooks (2nd in 880-yard run with 1:54), Malcolm Hardee (4th in 880-yard run with 2:00), Rippstein (3rd in 220-yard low hurdles with 25.1), Thomas Johnston (4th in two-mile run with 10:08.2), and Terry Robinson (3rd in discus with 142-8¾).

The conference meets on Mar. 25 at the Memorial Student Center Lanes before going to Dallas in May to round out the season on its yearly televised meeting. A&M will be bowling SMU and Arlington State. Should the Aggies defeat the Ponies, they will cop the championship.

CHS Opens 1961 Baseball Season

By RUSSELL BROWN
The A&M Consolidated Tigers run up against a formidable foe in the Bellville Brahmas this afternoon as the Bengals trek to Bellville for their opening 1961 baseball encounter.

The Tigers were set to crack open the season last Friday with a road game in Crockett but rain spoiled the season lid-lifter.

The Tigers will be out for revenge against the Big Red, trying to avenge a 9-2 licking at the hands of the the-defending District 21-AA champions. The loss dropped the Tigers into second place last year, their lowest finish in four years.

Coach Edsel Jones will be forced to field a young squad, including five lettermen from last year's 8-9 club. Top star in the Tiger camp is 6-0, 210-pound senior Vic Clark, who rack up an 8-5 mark, whiffed 133 in 79 innings, and had a 3.14 ERA. As a soph, Clark rolled to a 6-3 mark, struck out 85 in 57 innings, and had an 0.86 ERA. The fireballing righthander has already inked a pre-enrollment application to A&M.

Behind the plate will be sophs Jimbo Carroll (.286) or Les Palmer (.000); seniors Jim Riggs (.500) or Mark Luther (.200) will be at first; juniors Danny Feldman (.000) or Russell Welch (.189) will be at second; The Burke brothers, soph Ozzie or junior Cyril, will be at short; and Feldman or Jack Fugate will be at third.

Junior Johnny Williams, Cyril Burke, senior P. D. Gandy (.268), and senior Aggie-to-be Condy

Pugh (.143) will compose the outfield. Clark, Palmer, Riggs, Gandy, and Pugh lettered for Jones last year while Feldman, Carroll, and Fugate were squadmen. Luther was a squadman in 1959.

Gone from last year's Tiger nine are Ben Jackson (.409) at first, Mike Denison (.156) at second; Kelly Parker (.151) at short, Bill Haley (.232) at third, and catcher Bob Laurensen (.207).

Bellville, the 21-AA champ, will have virtually the same squad back from 1960. Keith Wienecke will be on the mound and big Joe Ed Lynn of football fame will be behind the plate. First base is vacant but Kent Smith, Billy Johnson, and Roy Golan will make up the rest of the infield. Sparking the outfield will be All-American gridster Ernie Koy.

Intramurals

There was a rather active day in intramural sports yesterday in the third week of action this semester.

In Class A Tennis, Sq. 7 blanked Sq. 4, 2-0; Sq. 9 took Sq. 13, 2-0; F-2 edged E-1, 2-1; D-2 blasted I-2, 3-0; H-1 squeezed past B-2, 2-1; C-2 shut out G-2, 2-0; and G-1 defeated Sq. 10, 2-0.

In Class A Volleyball, D-1 slammed Sq. 1, 2-0; Sq. 14 won over M-2 by forfeit; Sq. 6 white-washed B-1, 2-0; and F-1 smashed Sq. 12, 2-0.

The contests in Class B Rifle ran like this: C-1 out-shot Sq. 14, 415-354; Sq. 2 blasted E-1, 309-282; Sq. 3 won over D-1 as the latter was disqualified; and W-Band banged past G-2, 425-376.
