

Four Pin Robs Ag Bowler of '300'

Saturday afternoon a stubborn number four pin cost Aggie match team bowler, Chuck Haynes, a perfect "300 game."

Haynes, who is a math major from Tyler seemed to be using his major to a good advantage since he had come up with the formula for 11 straight strikes. The twelfth ball came down the alley, but was just a little to the left of the head-pin as it connected.

The four pin wiggled but refused to fall.

This game that Haynes was bowling in was his third of a Gulf Coast Collegiate Conference match against the University of St. Thomas. In the two previous games Haynes had a 186 and a 216 to give a series of 701.

Both the 299 and the 701 are the highest American Bowling Congress sanctioned scores ever rolled by an Aggie and among the best ever to come out of the Bryan-College Station area.

Besides having the satisfaction of the high games, there have been some added awards for Haynes. A local jeweler gave a diamond ring and he received the ABC "299" Award. The Brunswick Corporation presented Haynes with a "700" Award.

Saturday isn't the only time this year that Haynes has stood out as an outstanding bowler. He has helped the Aggie match team win various victories and is now bowling on a team that is second in the GCCC. He is on the team that clinched the championship of the Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference two weeks ago at the Memorial Student Center lanes.

Prior to Saturday's game, Haynes' highest game had been 259.

Football Film Of Cotton Bowl Now Available

Twenty minutes of exciting football on film, highlights of the 1961 Cotton Bowl Classic, is now available for showing throughout the country, the Cotton Bowl office advised Saturday.

Featured in the highlights of the Silver Anniversary game are the spectacular deeds of Lance Alworth, Arkansas' all-American halfback candidate, and the come-from-behind aerial attack by the victorious Duke Blue Devils. Duke won the game from Arkansas, the Southwest Conference champion, 7-6, in the fading minutes.

The films are available for all schools, churches, clubs and other organizations free of charge. They may be ordered directly from the Cotton Bowl Information Office, Box 7185 Inwood Station, Dallas, Texas.

Also available are highlights of previous Cotton Bowl games, including the Rice-Alabama game of 1954 that featured the sensational play of Dickie Moegle and the 1960 thriller involving National Champion Syracuse and the University of Texas.

Requests for films should be made as far in advance of showing as possible.

Fish Rack-Up Fifth Straight As They Down Tarleton, 11-3

By LARRY SMITH

The Aggie Fish baseballers remained undefeated yesterday and ran their winning streak to five straight as they downed the Tarleton State Plowboys on Kyle Field, 11-3.

Every one of the Fish's victories have been by eight runs or more except one in which they beat Allen Academy, 4-3.

Only one extra base hit was smashed in the game yesterday and that was a double by the Plowboys' Phile McLeroy in the 6th inning.

The Fish collected 12 hits in the assault while the Plowboys managed only five bingles.

Tarleton jumped off to a quick one run lead in the first inning on only one hit which followed two base on balls.

Coach J. B. Carroll's boys quickly overtook the slight lead in the second frame with two runs and were never headed. The Fish actually grew stronger as the game wore on.

In the third, the Fish collected two runs on hits by Robert McAdams and Roger Crouch.

After getting one tally in the fifth, the Fish jumped on Ken Floyd for four runs in the sixth on singles by Bill Grockett, Raul Garcia, and Crouch. All four runs were scored after two were out.

In the eighth inning, Crockett led off with a single past shortstop. After the next two men made outs, successive singles were hit by Jim Linnstaedter, Jerry Gunter and Jerry Pizzatola driving in three more tallies.

Johnny Crain started on the mound for the Fish and allowed only one run on one hit. Richard Beller, the winner, took over in the fourth and gave away to Chuck McGuire in the seventh. Beller is now 3-0 for the season.

Starting on the hill for the Plowboys was Floyd, who was shelled for eight runs and eight hits in the six innings he pitched. Chico Rodriguez relieved him in the seventh and finished the game, allowing three runs on four hits.

The next Fish game will be Thursday afternoon against the Allen Academy Ramblers on Kyle Field.

Fish Cindermen Take Four Firsts at Relays

The A&M freshman track squad showed there is plenty to come on the cinders in the future for the Aggies as they swept four first places at the Texas Relays last weekend in Austin.

Twelfth Man Bowl Game Has Changes

There have been some changes in connection with the 12th Man Bowl football game that will be played on Kyle Field May 13.

No definite dates for workouts have been released yet, but a meeting will be held Thursday afternoon that will explain all the information.

All interested applicants must submit their names to their respective commanding officers or in the case of civilians, to the dorm presidents. However, the deadline has been moved from Tuesday at 5 p.m. to Wednesday at the same time.

Each applicant will get a letter later in the week that will contain information concerning the Thursday meeting.

The teams will be divided among the Army and Air Force as usual. Air Force coaches will be Carter Franklin and Bobby Phillips. Paul Piper and Ralph Smith will head the Army team.

Danny Roberts set a new relay record in the shot put as he heaved the iron sphere 52-4. The old record was 51-3 1/3 set by Buddy Tynner of Baylor in 1958.

The 100-yard dash was won by Fish Robert Martin who turned in a time of 9.9.

A&M won the 440-yard relay with a time of 42 seconds flat. The team was composed of Martin, R. E. Merritt, Jerry Anderson and James King.

A 3:18.2 mile relay was turned in by the freshmen with a team composed of Carl Lee, Anderson, Merritt and King.

Pat Mitchell, one of the freshmen's most promising prospects for coming years, didn't get to compete in all the events he was scheduled. In one of the first races, he reinjured an old leg ailment.

In the University Division where the competition was stiff as usual, A&M's Thad Crooks was the only Aggie to rank as high as fourth place. Crooks ran in the class 1500 meter race. In the event the old record of 3:52.4 in 1952 was broken by Stanford's Ernie Cunliffe, with a 3:47.1.

Although no official winner ever declared at the Texas Relays, Abilene Christian was definitely the star of the show. The Wildcats highlighted the weekend's action with their national college record breaking time of 3:57.4 in the mile relay. ACC won the 440 yard relay with a world record, tying 1:22.6; set a distance record of 9:51.5; and took the 400 yard relay with 40.9.

By winning these four relays, the Wildcats became the first Texas school in history to win four baton events in a single relay.
