Top Stars Invade Dallas For Relays

Top Southwest Conference performers in every event will be featured in the Dallas Invitation Track and Field Meet Friday night along with Oklahoma University stars who assure a battle for team as well as individual laurels.

Injury may sideline Ray Cunningham, Texas' conference record-holder who is credited with the best clocking in both hurdle events this season. Top flight competitions is assured even for these events, however. SMU has an ace in Bob Johnson, runner-up at the Texas Relays last week, and Baylor has quality and depth in David Bennett and Jerry Nason.

Johnson has been timed at 14.2 in two successive meets and ranks behind only Cunningham (14 flat) and TCU's Bobby Bernard (14.1) in top SWC performances for the season. The SMU sophomore set the conference freshman mark (14.4) last year and finished ahead of such aces as Bernard and ACC's Calvin Cooley at Austin last week.

With Cunningham and his hurdling teammate Rex Wilson due to miss the meet, Baylor is a slight favorite for team honors over Oklahoma. SMU, which may capture as many blue ribbons as any of the contenders, and Texas A&M complete the cast.

Oklahoma provides the chief competition for the league's top performers of this season—Baylor's John Fry in the weights and SMU's Dexter Elkins in the pole vault. The Sooners offer J. D. Martin, the meet record-holder in the pole vault, and Mike Lindsay in the shot and discus.

Martin leads the nation's collegians at 15-3 for the season, while Elkins is in the No. 3 position with his 15-4. Both cleared 14-6 in widely-separated meets last week. They have a competent challenger in Baylus Bennett, Texas' junior who is rounding back into form after an injury in the Sugar Bowl meet in which he set a school record of 14-4.

Lindsay is one-quarter inch ahead of Fry in their two-three standing among the top collegiate shot putters. The Sooner senior, who set the Dallas Invitation record of 57-2½ as a soph, has a best throw of 58-10½ this season, achieved just a week after Fry hit his 58-10½. Jim Allison of Texas (56-7¼) and Buddy Tyner of Baylor (56-6) also rank among the nation's best.

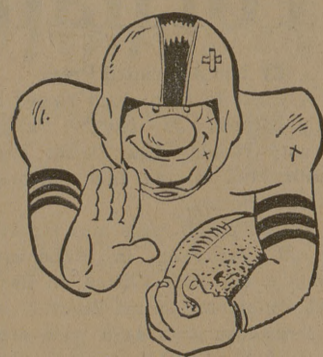

Fry moved ahead of Lindsay as the eleventh-ranking collegiate discus tosser last week with 167-10½ for runner-up honors at the Texas Relays. Lindsay's best for the year is 167-7.

The Sooners claim superiority over their SWC rivals in only one other event, the broad jump. They have two men (Steve Swafford, 24-4¼ and Don Warrick, 23-10¼) who have bettered the best recorded by a conference jumper. Larry Harbour of Baylor and Jack Sides of Baylor, who will compete here, have done 23-7 but the league's best leap was made in Austin Friday by Fred Hansen of Rice (23-9¼).

Eddie Curtis of Baylor, who ranks only one-half inch behind league-leading Jackie Upton of TCU, will duel here with Oklahoma's Mark Brady, who has a best of 6-5. All three of these rank among the nation's top ten.

Friday night's sprinting will match Ralph Alspaugh of Texas, defending champion in both the 100 and 220; Bill Kemp, the Baylor soph; Joe Hill of SMU and Curtis Roberts of A&M, who have had wind-assisted 9.5's, and Richard Sinclair of Oklahoma.

Russell Again Leads Celts To World Title

By The Associated Press
BOSTON—Incredible Bill Russell, the man who made basketball world champions of the Boston Celtics, kept them there by sparking a 121-112 victory over the St. Louis Hawks Tuesday night.

The star centers all-around excellence enabled the Celtics to close the best-of-seven National Basketball Association playoff finals in five games before a capacity 13,909 Garden fans.

Former All-America and Olympic wonder, Russell scored 30 points, grabbed 38 rebounds and stole the ball frequently in carrying the dazzling Celtics to their third straight NBA title and fourth in five years since he arrived.

But the never-say-die Hawks fought back from a 99-82 deficit and pulled to within 5 points before veteran Tom Heinsohn, Bob Cousy, Frank Ramsey and Sam Jones finished the job.

Cousy, putting on his fantastic dribbling show when it got close, and feeding for the late baskets, flopped to the floor in complete exhaustion at the final buzzer as pandemonium broke loose.

While the crowd bore the rest of the team off to the dressing room and Coach Red Auerbach happily and helplessly watched the clothes torn from his back, the 11-year NBA veteran Cousy needed assistance to make it from the arena.

Fish Baseballers Have Much Talent

This year's Fish baseballer squad is one of the best crops of talented ballplayers to hit Aggieland in quite some time.

Fish Coach J. B. Carroll, former star centerfielder for the Aggies, is the man who has been given the privilege to coach such a group.

"We have several potentially good hitters on the team concerning both averages and power," said Carroll.

It is very seldom that a freshman team has these qualities. Usually the first year team has only two or three extraordinary performers, but on this team there isn't a weak spot, added Carroll.

The first and second teams of the squad are just about equal and they both are good, said their coach.

There are four football players on the squad that should help the Fish even more. They are Ronnie Carpenter, Jim Linnstaedter, Jerry Pizzatola and Eddie Hall.

"These football boys are still tight from playing football and it will take about another two weeks before they get used to baseball and loosen up. A baseball player is loose and he actually flows," said Carroll.

Carroll wishes that the Fish could play more games than their allotted 12. "We just don't get a chance to see our pitchers show their stuff," said Carroll.

Thursday afternoon on Legion

Field in Bryan, the Fish go to their sixth straight victory as they take on the Allen Academy Raiders. The Fish have already defeated the Ramblers twice a season—12-2 and 4-3. Another game was played but was called account of rain after three innings.

LUCKY STRIKE PRESENTS:

DEAR DR. FROOD!

DR. FROOD'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: The best defense is a good offense, unless you're weak or cowardly, in which case a good hiding place is unbeatable.

DEAR DR. FROOD: Every guy I go out with thinks he's Casanova. What should a girl do?

Chased

DEAR CHASED: Ask each one to roll up his sleeve. If there is a small birthmark just above the left elbow, you've got the real Casanova.

DEAR DR. FROOD: A tackle on the football team likes the same girl I do. He says that if I see her any more, he'll mop up the floor with me. I refuse to be intimidated! What should I do?

Ninety-nine Pounder

DEAR NINETY-NINE: You'd better let your hair grow long.

FROOD TO WASHINGTON! Dr. Frood has been called by government officials to unveil his extraordinary "Luckies for Peace Plan." Questioned about this plan, Frood replied: "The details are still classified, but it all started when I discovered that college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular. This led me to believe that if all the world's peoples would but lean back and light up a Lucky, they would be too happy to be belligerent."

DEAR DR. FROOD: I am a sophomore majoring in architecture. Our college has just completed a magnificent carillon tower. Yesterday, while examining the blueprints, I was horrified to discover that the tower will collapse at 3:30 P.M., June 3, 1964. I have taken my calculations to the dean, to the architects, to the builders, to the president of the college. No one will pay any attention to me. I am desperate. What can I do to avert disaster?

Frantic

DEAR FRANTIC: You've done your best, son. Now, for your own peace of mind, won't you join me in a short trip to Las Vegas to see what kind of odds we can get?

DEAR DR. FROOD: I've been writing poems to a certain girl for about five months. Yesterday I found out that this girl and her friends get together to read my poems and laugh at them. Do you think I should stop writing to her?

Upset

DEAR UPSET: Definitely not. There are all too few humorous poets writing today.

CHANGE TO LUCKIES and get some taste for a change!
