

Fish Continue To Win; Defeat Allen Ramblers

The Fish baseballers continued their winning ways yesterday on Legion Field in Bryan as they routed the Allen Academy Ramblers for the third time this season, 7-1.

This game marks the sixth straight win for the Fish this spring and "winning" has become a household word around Kyle Field for the Fish.

The two big guns for the Fish yesterday were Ronnie Carpenter and Bill Grochett. Carpenter accounted for two runs with two doubles and Grochett added a bases-loaded triple in the wild-scoring eighth inning.

Joel Rochelle who was given his first pitching assignment of the year, was the winner. He struck out seven Ramblers in the four innings he pitched.

Big Rufus Lyne started on the mound for the Fish and retired after five innings of toil. He allowed the only two hits that Allen managed to get in the game.

Allen drew first blood as they scored one run in the second-inning on successive doubles.

In the sixth frame, the Fish added a run to knot the score.

After Bill Hancock dented the plate in the eighth inning, the roof caved in on Rambler pitcher, John Herrera. Roger McAdams and Jerry Gunter hit back-to-back singles, Carpenter smashed a double down the right field line, Rusty Uresti and Eddie Hall walked, and then Grochett hit his three-run triple.

The losing pitcher was Herrera, who went eight frames before giving way to Chico Moreno.

The next Fish games matches them against the Rice Owlets on Kyle Field Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. Earlier in the season, the Fish crushed the Owlets 17-3

Los Angeles Professional Breaks Golf's 'Color Line'

By The Associated Press GREENSBORO, N. C.—Charlie Sifford, Negro professional from Los Angeles, cracked golf's color line Thursday by using 68 strokes and five cigars to take the first-round lead in the $22,500 Greater Greensboro Open Tournament.

The 38-year-old Charlotte, N.C., native, marked the first appearance of a member of his race in a major PGA event in the South by putting together a pair of 34s in a three-under-par performance that gave him a one-shot lead over Billy Maxwell of Dallas, Tex.

Sifford, noted more for his booming tee shots, used finesse around the greens to take the lead. He had 12 one-putt greens and needed 24 putts in all.

Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N. Y., missed a chance to tie Sifford when he took a double bogey six on No. 17 and finished with 70 to tie Greensboro amateur Bill Harvey for third place.

Six men tied at par 71 in the field of 115 who tested the 7,000-yard Sedgfield Country Club course.

Heading the 71 group was Sam Snead, the defending champion and seven-time GGO winner from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Fraser, Emerson In Houston Semis

By The Associated Press HOUSTON—Australians Neale Fraser and Roy Emerson gained the semifinals of the 27th River Oaks Tennis Tournament Thursday by taking straight sets from Ron Holmberg and Hamilton Richardson.

The top seeded Fraser defeated Holmberg, the No. 5 U. S. player from Brooklyn, N. Y., 6-3, 6-4. Emerson, seeded third, defeated Richardson, former U. S. Davis Cup player, 6-4, 8-6, 6-1.

The Australian sweep of the first half of the quarter-final round left young Frank Froehling, the No. 30 U. S. player from Coral Gables, Fla., the lone American among the six players still seeking the River Oaks title that has never been won by a foreign entry.

Indictments Given In Cage Scandal

By The Associated Press NEW YORK—Aaron Wagman, one of two gambling figures arrested on charges of bribing basketball players, was indicted Thursday on three counts accusing him of trying to bribe a detective.

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said the indictment was limited to accusations that Wagman sought to bribe one of Hogan's men. However, the grand jury still is investigating charges that Wagman and another man bribed basketball players.

Specifically, Wagman, 28, of New York, is charged with trying to bribe Detective David F. Campbell in return for information about the district attorney's investigation into basketball bribery.

Varsity Baseballers Meet Rice in Houston Saturday

After a 10-day layoff the Aggie baseball team gets into action again in Houston tomorrow as they meet Rice in a double header starting at 1:30.

A&M's last game was on Apr. 5 when they brought home a victory from the University of Houston Cougars. They were scheduled to play Texas Christian University on Kyle Field last Saturday, but the game never came about because of rain.

So far this season, the Owls have been the only SWC team that has proven "too much" for A&M as they downed them 12-4 on Kyle Field.

Since that time A&M has won over St. Mary's University, Illinois, Brooke Medics and Houston.

A&M's season record now stands at 10-3-1 with losses to Sam Houston, Minnesota and Rice. The Aggies tied Texas, 6-6, in a 10-inning affair in Austin. According to the SWC officials, the game will have to be played completely over, but a date hasn't been set.

The leading Cadet hitter is still Mike Spence who has four hits in seven trips to the plate for .571. Spence is also the top man on the mound with three wins and no defeats.

The next three men in the top hitting column are all seniors and are hitting over .300. Dick Hickerson is in the number two spot with .389; Clifford Davis is third with .382; and Byron Barber is the fourth man with .328.

Davis completely missed the three games between St. Mary's, Illinois and Brooke Medics in San Antonio because of a shoulder injury received in the last outing with Rice. He has only seen limited action in practice for the past couple of weeks and it will be some time before he is back at speed.

From now on out the Cadets will have a week's break between games and will play two weekends. Next weekend they will play a pair with TCU in Ft. Worth.

Baylor Favored In Dallas Meet

By The Associated Press DALLAS—Baylor will be favored and at least five records may fall Friday night as five colleges hook up in the annual Dallas Invitational Track and Field Meet.

Oklahoma, the defending champion, is expected to give Baylor its toughest fight, with Texas next in line. Southern Methodist and Texas A&M are the other teams in the meet.

Strength in both relays and the shot and discus plus point potentials in all other events make Baylor a solid favorite to gallop in with the championship.

The most interesting duels will come in the weights and pole vault. Oklahoma's Mike Lindsay and Baylor's John Fry will be battling it out in the shot and discus, with a new record likely in the former. Both Lindsay and Fry have exceeded the record of 57 feet 3 3/4 inches repeatedly.

J. D. Martin of Oklahoma will be back to defend his pole vault championship and also protect the record of 14 feet 6 inches. Dexter Elkins of Southern Methodist will duel Martin and since each has already gone over 15 feet in a year, a record is quite possible.

Baylor's mile relay team, which has a 3:10.9 to its credit, has a 20.3 220-yard dash, may set a record. The mile relay mark is the 880 is 1:51.7 and the 220 is 20.4.

It is definite that Texas's hurdlers, Ray Cunningham and Ed Wilson, will not be able to compete because of leg injuries. Records are not expected in either of the hurdles.

Jim Parr of Southern Methodist is favored in the mile, Baylor's rated tops in the 440-yard relay. Alspaugh in the 100 and 220. Johnson of Southern Methodist is the hurdlers, Jan Ahlberg of Southern Methodist in the two-mile. Eddie Curtis of Baylor in the javelin and Steve Swafford of Oklahoma in the broad jump.

Olympian Stone Johnson of Grambling will show off for the home folks in special 100 and 220 yard dashes.

A crowd of 8,000 is expected with first events starting at 6 p.m.

do they fall for you head first?

They do if you use 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic on your head first! Most men use water with their hair tonic and 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic is special made to use with water. Water evaporates, dries out your hair. Alcohol and cream tonics evaporate, too. But 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic won't evaporate. It's 100% pure light grooming oil — replaces oil that water removes. And just a little does a lot!
